Merlin Parsifal Adversarial Twins:

Merlin & Parsifal Wilson Harris, 1997 Narratives of Resistance Ana María Manzanás Calvo, Jesús Benito Sánchez, 1999

The articles included in this collection cover a wide range of literatures and topics but most of them address the ways in which ethnic writers create themselves in opposition and resistance to the mainstream. These narratives of opposition and resistance do not equate protest narratives but represent a consciously subversive effort. There is agency and creativity in the confrontation for the majority of these narratives are not only demystifying an old world and order but creating a new one; these narratives are not reproducing as much as producing and forging culture and literature. The articles we present resist not only the politics of traditional canon formation but the politics of cultural nationalism as well; they challenge the margins as well as the center. With this revisionist agenda the aim of this collection is to invite readers to further their rethinking of American and Caribbean literatures.

Selected Essays of Wilson Harris A.J.M. Bundy, 2005-08-04. First published in 1999. Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis, an information company.

Time, History, and Philosophy in the Works of Wilson Harris Gianluca Delfino, 2016-05-31. Gianluca Delfino's study of one of the Caribbean's most controversial authors paves the way for looking at Wilson Harris's body of work in a new light. Harris's imaginative approach to reality is discussed in relation to the categories of history and time with reference to several novels with a special focus on The Infinite Rehearsal, Jonestown, and The Dark Jester, spanning more than forty years of his vast literary production. Delfino's analysis encompassing critical perspectives ranging from African philosophy to Jungian readings through historiography and anthropology demonstrates that Harris's works as a whole show a remarkable unity of thought rooted in their author's complex imagination. As a result, the cross-cultural quality of Harris's thought emerges as a healing outcome of the traumatic colonial encounter, bringing together elements of Amerindian, African, and European origin in an ongoing dialogue with time, nature, and the psyche.

Hidden Mutualities Michael Mitchell, 2006. Hidden mutualities link the work of major postcolonial writers with Christopher Marlowe's drama of the Faustian pact: the manipulation of the material world in exchange for the soul. Written as the scientific world view was emerging, which accompanied the imperial expansion of Europe and has determined the economic and social structures of the colonial and postcolonial world. This fascinating study brings together researches in widely different fields to show how Doctor Faustus reflects a Gnostic/Hermetic tradition marginalized within the dominant European power structures. Rediscovered in the Renaissance and combined with occult arts such as alchemy and magic, this living tradition informs the work of Magus figures such as Pico della Mirandola, Marsilio Ficino, Trithemius, Johannes Reuchlin, Agrippa of Nettesheim, Paracelsus, and John Dee, who are reflected in the Faust tradition and in Prospero in Shakespeare's The Tempest. The second part investigates the dual legacy of the Magus: a counterpoint between a law-governed, objective material world and an occult, visionary pursuit of the divine potential of the human imagination is traced through the examples of Johann Kepler, Robert Fludd, Isaac Newton, William Blake, Rudyard Kipling, Aleister Crowley, W. B. Yeats.

Wolfgang Pauli and C G Jung In the third part textual analysis reveals how attention to these Faustian themes opens new and exciting critical perspectives in appreciating the works of postcolonial writers in particular Dimetos by Athol Fugard Disappearance by David Dabydeen Omeros by Derek Walcott and the novels of Wilson Harris Theatre of the Arts, 2021-07-26 This volume celebrates Wilson Harris s eightieth birthday and more than fifty years of creative writing The most original and profound writer of the Caribbean he has revolutionized the art of fiction and its language He has himself contributed to this volume and several Caribbean writers of a younger generation Cyril Dabydeen Fred D Aguiar Andrew Jefferson Miles Mark McWatt Caryl Phillips Lawrence Scott pay tribute here to his genius The essays are by critics from the Caribbean Britain the United States and continental Europe who have long admired and explored his work They cover the various genres of Harris s writing his poetry fiction and criticism and deal with major aspects of his work bringing out its relevance to the contemporary context of violence in the world its modernity and its contribution to the renewal of the humanities

Beyond the Blood, the Beach & the Banana Sandra Courtman, 2004 Beyond the Blood the Beach and the Banana emphasises the significance of the Caribbean in an increasingly globalised social world and draws attention to the contribution that scholarship in Caribbean Studies makes in coming to terms with a multi cultural heritage The compilation deliberately ranges in focus across periods geographies linguistic divisions and subject matter to present the fruition of significant research projects by 25 researchers from the Caribbean North America and Europe Contributors on the Hispanic Dutch African Indian and Anglophone Caribbean juxtaposed with work on the Caribbean diasporas of the USA UK Canada and the Netherlands enrich the text with multiple perspectives

The Transit of Empire Jodi A. Byrd, 2011-09-06 Examines how Indianness has propagated U S conceptions of empire Caribbean Literature and the Environment Elizabeth M. DeLoughrey, Renée K. Gosson, George B. Handley, 2005 Examines the literatures of the Caribbean from an ecocritical perspective in all language areas of the region This book explores the ways in which the history of transplantation and settlement has provided unique challenges and opportunities for establishing a sense of place and an environmental ethic in the Caribbean

Literary Histories of the Early Anglophone Caribbean Nicole N. Aljoe, Brychan Carey, Thomas W. Krise, 2018-05-04 The Caribbean has traditionally been understood as a region that did not develop a significant native literary culture until the postcolonial period Indeed most literary histories of the Caribbean begin with the texts associated with the independence movements of the early twentieth century However as recent research has shown although the printing press did not arrive in the Caribbean until 1718 the roots of Caribbean literary history predate its arrival This collection contributes to this research by filling a significant gap in literary and historical knowledge with the first collection of essays specifically focused on the literatures of the early Caribbean before 1850 Symbolic Cities in Caribbean Literature C. Winks, 2009-05-25 Utilizing cross cultural strands this comparative study analyzes Caribbean literary representations of magic and invisible cities reworking the notion of the city as both instituted social space and imaginary community The Journal of Caribbean Literatures ,2000 No Land, No Mother Kampta Karran,Lynne Macedo,2007 Review The essays in this collection focus on the rich dialogue carried out in David Dabydeen s critically acclaimed body of writing Dialogue across diversity and the simultaneous habitation of multiple arenas are seen as dominant characteristics of his work Essays by Aleid Fokkema Tobias Doring Heike Harting and Madina Tlostanova provide rewardingly complex readings of Dabydeen s Turner locating it within a revived tradition of Caribbean epic with reference to Walcott Glissant and Arion as subverting and appropriating the romantic aesthetics of the sublime and in the connections between the concept of terror in Turner s painting and in Fanon s classic works on colonisation Lee Jenkins and Pumla Gqola explore Dabydeen s fondness for intertextual reference his dialogue with canonic authority and ideas about the masculine in his work Michael Mitchell Mark Stein Christine Pagnouille and Gail Low focus on Dabydeen s more recent fiction Disappearance A Harlot s Progress and The Counting House By dealing with his more recent work and looking more closely at Dabydeen s Indo Guyanese background this collection complements the earlier Art of David Dabydeen Jacket Ariel ,2001-07 Hambone ,1998 The Writers Directory ,2013
