Merry Christmas From A Little Town Called Paxton:

In a Little Town Called Paxton Patricia DeMuth, Donna DeMuth, 2004-09 Is burning down the garage really the best way to enliven a boring Saturday afternoon Is it possible to cut your contributions to the church by 75% without incurring divine retribution How do you reinstate rationality when military thinking goes out of control Can you effectively dispose of a bucket of dirty scrub water by throwing it out the window Can you ban puberty Most importantly how do you do all of this when you are under the age of twelve Find the answers and much more in a little town called Paxton A closely knit family living in a small rural community during the nineteen fifties and sixties provides the setting for this delightful collection of stories With gentle humor the authors take you along as they revisit their childhood and share some of the trials and joys of growing up By the time you turn the last page you will be eagerly looking forward to another visit Merry Christmas from a Little Town Called Paxton Donna R. DeMuth, 2005-10 What can possibly stop a determined six year old from visiting Santa Did Dad go shopping in the Twilight Zone for the new Christmas tree Could a Christmas miracle really have happened in Paxton Illinois Did Guinness agree about the world's tallest Christmas tree Is an Audubon Guide a needed tool when decorating Christmas cookies Playing The Ghosts of Christmas Past Donna and Pat take us back once again to their childhood home and memories of Christmas to find answers to these questions Told with the authors quiet humor and trademark wry twists these stories will both charm and entertain you Merry Christmas from a Little Town Called Paxton is an eagerly awaited and most welcomed sequel to In a Little Town Called Paxton Backyard Bones Patricia J.
