Messiahship A New Perspective:

Messiahship Minister Chri Nseka, 2005-03 In this revolutionary and inspirational book the author Christian Nseka a religious minister since 1987 elaborates on issues that divide Christianity within itself and issues that divide Christianity from other religions In this book the author also gives insight on why Jesus is the Messiah As per his experience this is a question that even many fervent Christians have trouble answering Finally the author covers issues relating to the mission of the Messiah the importance of the Messiah and the second coming of the Messiah just to name a few Atonement and the New Perspective Stephen Burnhope, 2018-08-10 Atonement has been described as the central doctrine of Christianity and yet surprisingly the church has never insisted on a particular understanding of how redemption in Christ was achieved Instead a miscellany of metaphors has been employed each picturing something of Christ's work Recent debate within Reformed Evangelicalism has been characterized by claims for hegemony to be granted to penal substitution versus counter arguments for a kaleidoscopic multi model understanding Notably absent in these discussions however are two considerations One is any common nexus to draw atonement thought together The other is any positive theological contribution deriving from God's preexisting relationship with Israel the presumed role of which has rather been to provide a negative contrast of law versus grace and works versus faith as the dark background against which the light of Christ may shine more brightly Recent scholarship however particularly the new perspective on Paul has comprehensively dismantled the old stereotypes concerning first century Judaism This book asks how differently we might think about the atonement once it is brought into conversation with the new scholarship It concludes by proposing a new perspective on atonement in which Christ is central Israel and Torah are affirmed and the traditional metaphors continue to find their place Studies in the New Perspective on Paul Don Garlington, 2008-06-15 This collection of essays follows upon its predecessor originally entitled In Defense of the New Perspective on Paul Essays and Reviews Wipf and Stock 2005 This second edition differs from the first in that five new chapters have been added and one review article has been deleted The change of the main title to Studies in the New Perspective on Paul is due to the conviction that the New Perspective on Paul actually represents a return to the original context in which Paul proclaimed the gospel of Christ Therefore it is not something to be defended but propounded in the most positive terms possible God and the Faithfulness of Paul Christoph Heilig, J. Thomas Hewitt, Michael F. Bird, 2017-04-01 N T Wright's magnum opus Paul and the Faithfulness of God is a landmark study on the history and thought of the apostle Paul This volume brings together a stellar group of international scholars to critically assess an array of issues in Wright's work Essays in Part I set Wright in the context of other Pauline theologies Part II addresses methodological issues in Wright's approach including critical realism historiography intertextuality and narrative In Part III on context scholars measure Wright's representation of early Judaism Greek philosophy paganism and the Roman Empire Part IV turns to Wright's exegetical decisions regarding law covenant and election the New Perspective justification and redemption Christology

Spirit eschatology and ethics Part V at last speaks to the implications of Wright's work for the church's theology, sacraments and mission and for global responsibility in a postmodern age. The volume includes a critical response from Wright himself.

Perspectives of Jesus in the Writings of Paul Gerry Schoberg, 2014-02-27 The critical question of the relationship between Jesus and Paul has been well established in New Testament studies for over 150 years and it needs to be addressed with all the tools of historical criticism that scholarship has developed So states Gerry Schoberg at the beginning of this new and important work that does just that By coupling comparative instances in the gospels and the works attributed to Paul Schoberg invites the reader to enquire more profoundly than in past studies as to the nature of the relationship between Jesus and the most dramatic of Christian converts At the heart of this study is not only the question of whether the New Testament truly gives a unified vision of the Christian movement but also how the early followers of Jesus felt able to draw such insightful conclusions about him Answering such questions through the study of Jesus and Paul offer an insight as to how one is to make theological sense of the many details experienced from day to day and thereby live a life in Christ Pauline Perspectives N. T. Wright, 2013-11-01 This companion volume to Paul and the Faithfulness of God and Paul and His Recent Interpreters brings together N T Wright s most important articles on Paul and his letters over the last three decades The book begins with Wright s auspicious essay of 1978 when as a young aspiring scholar he gave the annual Tyndale lecture in Cambridge and proposed for the first time a new perspective on Pauline theology The book ends with an expanded version of a paper he gave in Leuven in 2012 when as a seasoned scholar at the height of his powers he explored the foundational role of Abraham in Romans and Galatians Christ and Caesar Seyoon Kim, 2008-10-07 This title looks at what kind of responses Paul made to the Roman Empire The author subjects the methods of current interpreters to critical scrutiny and discusses what makes an anti imperial interpretation of Pauline writings difficult Justification and God's Kingdom Seyoon Kim, 2018-09-10 The traditional understanding of Paul s doctrine of justification has an inherent problem of relating to his ethics Following its anthropocentric approach to the doctrine even the New Perspective makes little contribution toward resolving it Hence appreciating the facts that Paul places the doctrine in Romans within the inclusio of the Davidic Messiah Jesus rule over all the nations as God s Son in Rom 1 3 5 and 15 12 and that his thesis about the doctrine in Rom 1 16 17 is but a soteriological statement about the effect of the Christologically formulated gospel of Rom 1 3 4 Seyoon Kim approaches the doctrine from both the Christological and anthropological perspectives Thus he interprets justification as Herrschaftswechsel cf Kasemann a transfer from the Satanic kingdom into the kingdom of God and his Son Jesus the Lord Paul and His Recent Interpreters N. T. Wright, 2015-10-15 This companion volume to N T Wright s Paul and the Faithfulness of God and Pauline Perspectives is essential reading for all with a serious interest in Paul the interpretation of his letters his appropriation by subsequent thinkers and his continuing significance today In the course of this masterly survey Wright asks searching questions of all of the major contributors to Pauline studies since the Enlightenment Getting Acquainted with the New Testament Frank Eakin, 1927 Conformed to the Image of His Son Haley Goranson Jacob, 2018-07-17 What does Paul mean when in Romans 8 29 he speaks of being conformed to the image of his Son Is it a moral or spiritual or sanctifying conformity to Christ or to his suffering or does it point to an eschatological

transformation into radiant glory Haley Goranson Jacob points out that the key lies in the meaning of glory in Paul s biblical theological perspective and in how he uses the language of glory in Romans
