Advanced architecture is to the information age what modern architecture
was to the industrial age.
Digital technologies,
the knowledge economy,
environmental awareness and interest in the individual are giving rise to a new kind of architectural action.

The Threefold Logic of Advanced Architecture Manuel Gausa, Jordi Vivaldi, 2021-04-15 During the last 30 years Advanced Architecture has consolidated an interactive and informational logic that differs from that of Modernity and Postmodernity This logic is threefold it is modulated through three coexisting protocols modes of action whose peaks of intensity occur in three different decades Conformative Protocols 1990 2000 Distributive Protocols 2000 2010 and Expansive Protocols 2010 2020 This work proposes a threefold cultural narrative whose interactive and informational logic differs from that of modernity and postmodernity It positions three different ethos by critically approaching the architectural side of a cultural mutation that has been affecting the Western experimental areas of knowledge and practice since the end of the last century A transformative process constituted by a constellation of transdisciplinary manifestations accelerations turns shortcuts and clusterizations that by no means can be read under one single epistemological umbrella In this sense rather than approaching the practice of architecture focusing on its disciplinary inner specificity this book approaches the research of experimental architecture focusing on its extra disciplinary entanglements It argues that a vast multiplicity of fields of knowledge participates in a cultural endeavour modulated through three protocols forms of action that singularize three decades Conformative Protocols 1990 2000 Distributive Protocols 2000 2010 and Expansive Protocols 2010 2020 These three periods shouldn't be read as three hermetic and concatenated monads but as three different modulations of the same narrative that is as three overlapping and coexisting systems whose peaks of intensity occur in three different decades However the main purpose of this book is not limited to unveiling the ethos of these three conjugations It also aims at using this framework as a time field a narrative map that moves from the classificatory to the cartographical in order to vectorize the last 30 years of experimental architecture In this sense this book argues that this threefold set of protocols represents the progressive attempt to constitute critical interiorities looking for and produced through interactions that are increasingly more intimate and whose agents are increasingly more diverse A tendency oriented towards the consolidation of an intimacy between strangers that highly resonates with the cultural and technological landscape in which experimental architecture operates Large Parks John Beardsley,2007-07-26 Publisher description Arquitectura y virtualidad Josep Muntanola Thonberg,2010-12-15 Es bien sabido que la arquitectura es un tipo muy específico de arte de ciencia o de acto ético porque los edificios las ciudades y los territorios son artefactos físicos y sociales no representaciones virtuales como sucede en el cine en la literatura etc Mijail Bajtin era consciente de esta especificidad cuando afirmaba que la arquitectura toda la arquitectura solamente tiene sujetos estéticos potenciales no héroes estéticos reales 1 Sin embargo estas cualidades específicas de la arquitectura no significan que el proyecto arquitectónico virtual es decir un proyecto aun no construido aun no usado sea real See more at <http://ebooks.upc.edu/product/arquitectura-y-virtualidad-architecture-virtuality-sthash-qKiK1LUK.dpuf> Architecture Depends Jeremy Till,2013-02-08 Polemics and reflections on how to bridge the gap between what architecture actually is and what architects want it to be Architecture depends on what On people time politics ethics mess the real world Architecture Jeremy Till argues with conviction in this engaging sometimes pugnacious book cannot help itself it is dependent for its very existence on things outside itself Despite the claims of autonomy purity and control that architects like to make about their practice architecture is buffeted by uncertainty and contingency Circumstances invariably intervene to upset the architect's best laid plans at every stage in the process from design through construction to occupancy Architects however tend to deny this fearing contingency and preferring to pursue perfection With Architecture Depends architect and critic Jeremy Till offers a proposal for rescuing architects from themselves a way to bridge the gap between what architecture actually is and what architects want it to be Mixing anecdote design social theory and personal experience Till's writing is always accessible moving freely between high and low registers much like his suggestions for architecture itself Self-Sufficient Habitat Vicente Guallart,2022-02-16 Material Intelligence simulations sensors actuators as well as the bio mimetic and digital manufacturing innovations provide revolutionary ideas on growth adaptability repair sensitivity replication and energy savings in architecture Should we continue constructing rigid and fixed structures Or can our habitats begin to think

Ugly, Useless, Unstable Architectures Miguel Paredes Maldonado, 2019-11-04 Ugly Useless Unstable Architectures traces productive intersections between architecture and the discourses of Post Structuralism and New Materialism It investigates how their unique ontological regimes can be mobilised to supersede the classical framework that still informs both the production and the evaluation of architecture Throughout its three main chapters this enquiry challenges one of the most prevalent tropes of architectural assessment Beauty Utility and

Stability Author Miguel Paredes Maldonado critically unpacks the spatial and operational qualities of these three idealised concepts before setting out an alternative framework of spatial practice that draws from Gilles Deleuze's post structuralist take on the production of the real and Manuel DeLanda's model based branch of New Materialism This book reads and situates a series of spatial works through the lens of this critical methodology to contest the conceptual aspects traditionally underpinning architectural value It posits that architecture can operate as a continuous generative spectrum encompassing a broad range of potential configurations Written for academics and students in architectural theory design and contemporary philosophical thought alike this book should appeal to a wide audience [gamerover] Giancarlo Huapaya,2025-05-13 A political poetic excavation of the human landscape charting the history of geography through the historic movement of its residents bodies and complicated habits Through intertextual intervention this anti linear collection reconceives the archives of Phoenix Arizona to create a counter map of the city and its trajectories of supremacist violence gamerover tracks trajectories of colonial enterprizes from the Arizona State Fair to the World's Columbian Exposition in Chicago to the Tornillo Detention Center in Texas investigating the oppressions of each imperial form in spaces of recreation exhibition and spectacle Understanding the landscape as an ever moving hypertext these poems challenge entrenched means of representation uses of public space and positions of witness Knitting Food: Food and Eco-textiles Manuel Gausa,Giorgia Tucci,2024-10-22 This book focuses on the emerging field of food waste based eco textiles Eco textiles eco leathers and bio skins are now an important category of biomaterials with immediate applications in sustainable industrial production and the circular economy In this sense the book brings together new collaborative and interdisciplinary projects and artistic crossovers specialised in eco textile research re design and functional use of organic and food waste in a vision that starts from the product dimension and reaches the urban scale Wiring the Streets, Surfing the Square Timothy Jachna,2021-03-18 This book investigates the production of public space in contemporary urban contexts as conditioned by the suffusion of urban life with digital technologies A social production of technology approach is taken to frame the digitally mediated city as a communal social and cultural project Acknowledging the multivalent and shifting nature of public space and the heterogeneity of the urban actors who form it the agency of these different actors in appropriating digital technologies takes center stage The dynamics of negotiations between regimes of control and impulses towards freedom and experimentation the entanglement of the spatial commons and the digital commons changes in the notions of what constitutes membership in a public or counterpublic and evolving relationships between the various individuals and groups who share and constitute public space are all revealed in different actors appropriation of digital technologies in the formation of public spaces and the conducting of public life in cities The book is divided into two sections Drawing on classic and contemporary scholars on public space and on digital culture Section I explores the implications of the convergence of these bodies of knowledge and lenses of critique and examination on the present urban condition establishing a conceptual foundation upon which public space discourse is brought to bear on an interrogation of the wired or mediated city Structured by the core concepts that underlie Hannah Arendt's notion of agency in the constitution of the public sphere Section II is devoted to discussing and demonstrating through myriad concrete examples how different affordances of digital technologies are implicated in the production of public space and in the interplay between urban governance and control urban life and citizenship and urban commodification The topics in this book are of broad and current international relevance and will appeal to scholars and students in architecture urbanism design sociology and digital culture

Reclaiming Public Space through Intercultural Dialogue Christa Reicher, 2019 The challenges rapid urbanisation encompasses are manifold so are the efforts addressing sustainable and inclusive development frameworks Reclaiming Public Space through Intercultural Dialogue is an intercultural and interdisciplinary initiative which focuses on how social and spatial segregation can be overcome in metropolitan areas Through joint research and teaching activities in the cities of Dortmund and Amman three comprehensive topics emerged urban transformation and the role of public space social and cultural dimensions of cities and nature based planning approaches The book compiles contributions to these topics from researchers practitioners and students which were presented in an international conference held at the German Jordanian University in Madaba Jordan in November 2017

Sustainability in Practice Walter Leal Filho, Fernanda Frankenberger, Ubirata Tortato, 2023-09-15 Sustainability is now a widely spread concept and much progress has been achieved since the 1970s when it started to be widely discussed At present many international organizations and scientists are active in implementing sustainable development as a whole and the UN Sustainable Development Goals SDGs in particular Nevertheless the main research agenda is being led by some countries providing a good opportunity for other nations and regions which have not yet been so active to bring their viewpoints to the global discussion One of these regions is Latin America Consistent with the need for more cross sectorial and cross cultural interactions among the various stakeholders working in the field of sustainability in Latin America and beyond this book pursues two main aims a to provide research institutions universities NGOs government agencies and enterprises from the region with an opportunity to present their works in the field of sustainability and b to document and promote ideas and experiences acquired in the execution of sustainability projects especially successful initiatives and good practice across the Latin America region Last but not least a further aim of the book is to present methodological approaches and experiences deriving from case studies and projects which aim to show how sustainability may be enhanced in practice

Planning and Place in the City Marichela Sepe, 2013 In this volume Marichela Sepe explores the preservation reconstruction and enhancement of cultural heritage and place identity She outlines the history of the concept of placemaking and sets out the range of different methods of analysis and assessment that are used to help pin down the nature of place identity

Reimagining Public Spaces and Built Environments in the Post-Pandemic World Paul Messinger, Kishwar Habib, 2024-03-29 This book considers the implications of the emerging post pandemic reality for public space and the built environment It addresses changes to our cities parks neighborhoods transportation modes schools streetscapes cultural spaces and engineering systems present in each of these The chapters broad topics include public space and the built environment tactical urbanism and temporality designing built environments and hybrid remote spaces engaging community and participation connection with nature for mental health and wellness the future of post pandemic space and disaster preparedness Recurring themes are design flexibility repurposed cities building standards virtual connectedness environmental vigilance refocus on wellness and green space gender perspectives and community organization It will be an important reference work for researchers students and practitioners CODELESS SARAJEVO

Nataša Pelja-Tabori, 2024-07-01 In most European countries spatial and land use planning documentation formal and informal and building codes complement each other The city of Sarajevo however has not had a building code over the last eight decades The author with many years of professional experience as a planner in Sarajevo shows how this has affected the spatial planning system in all its segments including through a weak building permission procedure She compares Sarajevo's legal framework to the planning systems and building regulations of Slovenia Vienna Zurich and Paris Arguing that a building code is an inseparable part of land use management and land use planning implementation system as well as of sustainable effective urban politics the author proposes a model for a new building code and a comprehensive planning system for the Canton of Sarajevo With implications for spatial planning beyond Bosnia and Herzegovina the book is highly relevant for planning policy and administration but also for the scientific community It addresses spatial and urban planners jurists architects sociologists and historians of architecture in Continental and South East Europe Workshop
