Autobiography of a Garden Patterson Webster, 2022-07-04 Autobiography of a Garden follows Patterson Webster s twenty five year journey as she transforms a beautiful but conventional country property into a 750 acre landscape that challenges what a garden is or can be A unique personal memoir this book details how a neophyte gardener moved from copying the ideas of other people to learning from them and finally to striking out on her own Combining traditions from French and English eighteenth century gardens with contemporary perspectives Webster communicates concepts and ideas that underpin the garden s design sharing a process that evolved over seasons and years She explores the meaning of creating a garden and the meaning that a garden can create linking ideas about aging and the passage of time to the reality of growth and death in the landscape and thinking through how art in a garden can reframe questions of memory and our relationship to nature Using the history of the property as a framework Webster considers the impact made by those who lived on the land before her the Abenaki the early settlers the cottagers the farmers the US southerners who came to Quebec to avoid the summer heat and the northerners who defeated them in the Civil War With engaging personal anecdotes she describes the thinking behind each part of the garden and the examples that guided her the mishaps and successes she encountered and her plans for the future Beautifully photographed and full of inspirational ways of thinking about gardens and gardening Autobiography of a Garden blends history horticulture and art encouraging readers to make their own surroundings more beautiful and more meaningful

Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index ,1975      Leonard Cohen, Untold Stories: The Early Years Michael Posner,2020-10-20 The extraordinary life of one of the world s greatest music and literary icons in the words of those who knew him best Poet novelist singer songwriter artist prophet icon there has never been a figure like Leonard Cohen He was a true giant in contemporary western culture entertaining and inspiring people everywhere with his work From his groundbreaking and bestselling novels The Favourite Game and Beautiful Losers to timeless songs such as Suzanne Dance Me to the End of Love and Hallelujah Cohen is a cherished artist His death in 2016 was felt around the world by the many fans and followers who would miss his warmth humour intellect and piercing insights Leonard Cohen Untold Stories chronicles the full breadth of his extraordinary life The first of three volumes The Early Years follows him from his boyhood in Montreal to university and his burgeoning literary career to the world of music culminating with his first international tour in 1970 Through the voices of those who knew him best family and friends colleagues and contemporaries rivals business partners and his many lovers the book probes deeply into both Cohen s public and private life It also paints a portrait of an era the social cultural and political revolutions that shook the 1960s In this revealing and entertaining first volume bestselling author and biographer Michael Posner draws on hundreds of interviews to reach beyond the Cohen of myth and reveal the unique complex and compelling figure of the real man      The History of Greenfield Park John Riley,2005

History of Miso and Its Near Relatives William Shurtleff; Akiko Aoyagi,2021-05-05 The world s most comprehensive well documented and well illustrated book on this subject With extensive subject and geographical index 363 photographs and illustrations many in color Free of charge in digital PDF format      Esquire ,1986-07      Looking for My Country Robert Macneil,2008-12-18 Renowned journalist and author of the international bestseller Wordstruck Robert MacNeil reflects on a life lived between nations and why he finally decided to call himself an American Growing up in Halifax during World War II it seemed to Robert MacNeil that nothing of significance ever happened in Canada From his mother s obsession with all things English even the marmalade to his own love for American music like Rhapsody in Blue Canada seemed too small too parochial for his ambitions Moving to Britain in his mid twenties MacNeil was suddenly exposed to a country with thousands of years of history extraordinary theatre and culture But it was in America that MacNeil finally found his country America a land of contrasts and possibilities A journalist for NBC and later for PBS on the MacNeil Lehrer NewsHour MacNeil was a witness to many of the current events that shaped the last century the erection of the Berlin Wall Kennedy's election and assassination the Cuban Missile Crisis Watergate and finally September 11 2001 As the well respected and trenchant news reporter brought world issues to the American public he discovered that his Canadian values and upbringing allowed him some valuable detachment and perspective And when MacNeil returned to Nova Scotia after 40 years he found his country of birth much changed multiculturalism and diversity had caused Canadian culture to blossom in his absence With charm and warmth but also with a piercing eye on the century MacNeil looks at the meanings of patriotism nationalism and home and explains why he finally made the decision to become an American citizen Excerpt from Looking for My Country I grew up in a nation trying to build a distinctive culture in an environment that constantly threatens extinction physical from the north and political cultural from the south Each fear in its own way reinforces the other The inhospitality of the northern climate induces Canadians to drift southwards and the magnet of American material prosperity and opportunity reinforces that urge Yet the fear of being swallowed ingested by the American leviathan makes Canadians draw back shrinking from the smothering embrace to find a source of national pride and identity in overcoming the natural human fear of perishing in frozen wastes Peter Gzowski the late beloved CBC radio host once ran a contest which produced this inspired response As Canadian as possible under the circumstances Rebellion in the Mountains Edith Fox MacDonald, 1976 Inland

Navigation by the Stars Anne Coleman, 2018-05-31 Coleman's keen observations about her long life make INLAND NAVIGATION BY THE STARS not only an intimate personal memoir but also a work of social history Her reflections of the times she grew up in are compassionate yet critical and provide a unique and engaging insight into both Coleman herself and the challenges that women in Canada have faced over the last eighty years SONJA LARSEN award winning author of Red Star Tattoo FROM THE AUTHOR OF I LL TELL YOU A SECRET Growing up in Toronto Ontario and North Hatley Quebec Anne Coleman was a combination of pre feminist independent girl and literary dreamer With literature as her source of information about life she married Frank a handsome brilliant Slovenian whose family had lost their famous Grand Hotel Toplice in Bled northern Yugoslavia to the Nazis and then to the Communists He was just the type of man with a troubled past her reading had demanded she find The marriage alternated between happiness and darkness with Frank descending into bouts of alcoholism and depression as a result of his childhood trauma at the hands of the Nazis After a dramatic escape from the marriage with her two small children Anne had to start over She earned a Master's degree in English from Bishop's University and then taught for five years at Miss Edgar's and Miss Cramp's School in Montreal and for thirty years at a college in Kamloops BC now Thompson Rivers University Before heading west she was part of the liveliest literary gatherings of the era Her circle included Hugh MacLennan Leonard Cohen Margaret Atwood and Michael Ondaatje In the 1970s and 1980s Anne's feminist awakening was a call to arms for women at her college and beyond And for men too The male professors who had hitherto reigned unchallenged fought back as best they could with mockery and threats But Anne struggled to live her feminism fully in her private life She stayed far too long in a second marriage by going into survival mode denial and immersing herself in her teaching students friends Her primary solace became the flora and fauna of Narnia a 160 acre property south of Kamloops with an old Quebec style house built during the marriage One section of her book is titled How Beauty Makes Things Possible and her descriptions of nature there and elsewhere in the book whether of the hills lake and forests of North Hatley the top of the world wildness outside Kamloops or the gardens and coastal areas of Victoria may prove to be among some of the finest in all of Canadian writing      Troubled Ground Claude Andrew Clegg,2010-11-05
