North Of Wakulla An Anhinga Anthology:

Parasol (Poems 1977-2007) Hal Shows, 2007-10 In language at once bracingly direct and lyrical these poems which roam from the freest of free verse to traditional forms fuse the creative heart and the keen critical intellect in a way reminiscent of D H Lawrence and Stanley Kunitz Their themes range from the personal to the global Classical motifs merge with modern mayhem and the results are revelatory At the centre of the book is the search for love in a world that degrades the notion daily This rare book of poems will appeal equally to the scholar the critic the lover of poetry and all students of the human heart Florida poet and musician Hal Shows is a State of Florida Individual Artist Fellow and a member of the National Association of Recording Arts and Sciences His latest recording Native Dancer issued in 2003 Parasol is his first full length collection of poems

Setting the World in Order Rick Campbell, 2001 Rick Campbell's journey from the banks of the Ohio to the beaches of Florida is a rhapsody and the music he makes in ordering his world takes us with him to the headwaters of a new river Rick Campbell's poems leave some sweet dirt under your fingernails proof of hard honest work when the longing of small town America is not enough Setting the World in Order eloquently plots our geographically impossible trajectories On the way Campbell can lay down a narrative as spacious as the range of a blues harmonica every gritty riff dissolving into compassion Dionisio D Mart nez Rick Campbell's poems move with grace and muscle and music from the Catholic working class of his youth its factories and foundries along the rivers of Pennsylvania Ohio and Florida and through the lives of the flesh and blood characters of contemporary America Part prayer part song part gritty story they always dance with meaning and significance they always wholly embrace the idea of individual presence in a terrible beautiful world Frank X Gaspar From Harmonica Lesson Go with the rhythm till you can't get off the track Like this Tight belly staccato hands cutting and freeing the air one hard held bottom line Play between trains Keep the wheels in mind Catch the next one and play all night In the morning try the whistle You've earned it It should sound like Kansas Setting the World in Order is the tenth winner of the Walt McDonald First Book Prize in Poetry selected by Robert Fink of Hardin Simmons University editor of the Walt McDonald First Book Series

Unspeakable Strangers Van K. Brock, 1995 Poetry These are very bold and powerful poems about of course practically the most difficult theme in the world I read them with increasing admiration for both the mastery of imagery and control Never once do they slip into the sentimental and that in itself is an achievement But mainly I am impressed by the pervasive music the requiem sound William Styron
