North Of Capricorn:

The Shadow of the Precursor Nena Bierbaum, 2011-10-18 A shadow in its most literal sense is the projection of a silhouette against a surface and the obstruction of direct light from hitting that surface For writers and artists the shadows cast by their precursors can be either a welcome influence one consciously evoked in textual production via homage or bricolage or can manifest as an intrusive haunting prohibitive presence one which threatens to engulf the successor Many writers and artists are affected by an anxious and ambiguous relationship with their precursors while others are energised by this relationship The role that intertextuality plays in creative production invites interrogation and this publication explores a range of conscious and unconscious influences informing relations between texts and contexts between predecessors and successors The chapters revolve around intertextual influence ranging from conscious imitation and intentional allusion to Julia Kristeva's idea of intertextuality Do all texts contain references to and even quotations from other texts Do such references help shape how we read This multidisciplinary work includes chapters on the long shadows cast by Shakespeare Dante Scott Virgil and Ovid the shadows of colonial precursors on postcolonial successors the shadows cast over Kipling and Murdoch and chapters on other writers dramatists and filmmakers and their relationships with precursor figures With its focus on intertextual relationships this book contributes to the thriving fields of adaptation studies and studies of intertextuality
