Holy Women, Holy Men Church Publishing, 2010. Fully revised and expanded, this new work is the first major revision of the liturgical calendar of the Episcopal Church in more than 40 years. It is the official revision of Lesser Feasts and Fasts and authorized by the 2009 General Convention. All commemorations in Lesser Feasts and Fasts have been retained and many new ones added. Three scripture readings instead of current two are provided for all minor holy days. Additional new material includes a votive mass of the Blessed Virgin Mary, many more ecumenical commemorations, plus a proper for space exploration. For years, the oft-revised volume Lesser Feasts and Fasts (LFF) has served parishes and individuals, marking part of the holiness of each day by providing Scripture readings, a collect, a Eucharistic preface, and a narrative about those remembered on the church's calendar that day whose lives have witnessed to the grace of God. Holy Women, Holy Men (HWHM) is a major effort to revise but also to expand and enrich LFF. Where LFF provided two readings, gospel and other New Testament plus a psalm, HWHM adds an Old Testament citation. Where LFF was limited to few non-Anglicans in the post-Reformation period and few non-Episcopalians after 1789, HWHM dramatically broadens appreciation for other Christians and their traditions. Over-emphasis on clergy is redressed by additional laity, males by females, and in church activities by contributions well beyond the workings of institutional agendas. These almost daily commemorations occupy over 600 of the book's 785 pages, by far the lion's share of its content. Remaining sections address principles of revision and guides for future revision, liturgical propers for seasons (Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter) and new propers for a miscellany of propers usable with individuals or events not officially listed in the formal calendar. Two cycles of propers for daily Eucharist are also included: one covering a six-week period, the other a two-year cycle.

Lesser Feasts and Fasts 2018, 2019-12-17. Lesser Feasts and Fasts had not been updated since 2006. This updated edition, adopted at the 79th General Convention, resolution A065, fills that need. Biographies and collects associated with those included within the volume have been updated. A deliberate effort has been made to more closely balance the men and women represented within its pages.

Akathists. Dr. John (Ellsworth) Hutchison-Hall, 2013-07-15. An Akathist from the Greek Akthistos mnos, an unseated hymn, is a devotional hymn to a saint, holy event, or one of the persons of the Holy Trinity, which is said in churches or by the faithful in private devotion. This volume contains thirty Akathists, including those to our Lord Jesus Christ and to the Mother of God, as well as other Saints, including several Saints of the British Isles and North America.

Lesser Feasts and Fasts 2024. The Episcopal Church, 2025-01-07. Newly revised commemorations for saints and occasions throughout the church year, updated as a result of changes from General Convention 2024. Lesser Feasts and Fasts supplements the Book of Common Prayer with material to commemorate numerous saints and occasions This 2024 version of Lesser Feasts and Fasts includes new commemorations authorized by the General Convention of the Episcopal Church in 2024 The Arctic Deanna Swaney,1999 This unique guide to one of the last wilderness frontiers is the essential companion for both intrepid adventurers and armchair travellers Comprehensive coverage of the Arctic regions of Alaska Canada Finland Greenland Iceland Norway Russia and Sweden Special sections written by experts on Arctic issues including indigenous peoples and cultures research history exploration and literature Detailed activities chapter covering options from sea kayaking to dogsledding 43 detailed maps Memory Eternal Sergei Kan,2014-07-01 In Memory Eternal Sergei Kan combines anthropology and history anecdote and theory to portray the encounter between the Tlingit Indians and the Russian Orthodox Church in Alaska in the late 1700s and to analyze the indigenous Orthodoxy that developed over the next 200 years As a native speaker of Russian with eighteen years of fieldwork experience among the Tlingit Kan is uniquely qualified to relate little known material from the archives of the Russian church in Alaska to Tlingit oral history and his own observations By weighing the one body of evidence against the other he has reevaluated this history arriving at a persuasive new concept of converged agendas the view that the Tlingit and the Russians tended to act in mutually beneficial ways but for entirely different reasons throughout the period of their contact with one another The Russian American Company began operations in southeastern Alaska in the 1790s Against a description of Tlingit culture at the time of the Russians arrival Kan examines Russian Orthodox theology ritual practice and missionary methods and the Tlingit response to them An uneasy symbiosis characterized the early era of the Russian American Company when the trading relationship outweighed any spiritual or social rapprochement A second major focus of Kan s study is the Tlingit experience with American colonial domination He attributes a sudden revival of Tlingit interest in Orthodoxy in the 1880s as their attempt to maintain independence in the face of concerted efforts by the newcomers and especially Presbyterian missionaries to Americanize them Memory Eternal shows the colonial encounter to be both a power struggle and a dialogue between different systems of meaning It portrays Native Alaskans not as helpless victims but as historical agents who attempted to adjust to the changing reality of their social world without abandoning fundamental principles of their precolonial sociocultural order or their strong sense of self respect The Rough Guide to Alaska Paul Whitfield,2001 The Rough Guide to Alaska provides extensive and insightful information on the US s premier adventure destination The Colorado School of Mines Magazine ,1914 Colorado School of Mines Magazine ,1914
