Northeast Asia:

Northeast Asia Vinod K. Aggarwal, Min Gyo Koo, Seungjoo Lee, Chung-in Moon, 2008-09-26 Can regional mechanisms better institutionalize the increasing complexity of economic and security ties among the countries in Northeast Asia As the international state system undergoes dramatic changes in both security and economic relations in the wake of the end of the Cold War the Asian financial crisis and the attack of 9 11 this question is now at the forefront of the minds of both academics and policymakers Still little research has been done to integrate the analysis of security and economic analysis of changes in the region within a broader context that will give us theoretically informed policy insights Against this backdrop this book investigates the origins and evolution of Northeast Asia s new institutional architecture in trade finance and security from both a theoretical and empirical perspective The Making of Northeast Asia Kent Calder, Min Ye, 2010-08-16 Northeast Asia where the interests of three major nuclear powers and the world s two largest economies converge around the unstable pivot of the Korean peninsula is a region rife with political economic paradox It ranks today among the most dangerous areas on earth plagued by security problems of global importance including nuclear and missile proliferation Yet despite its insecurity the region has continued to be the most rapidly growing on earth for over five decades and it is emerging as an identifiable economic political and strategic region in its own right As the locus of both economic growth and political military uncertainty in Asia has moved further to the Northeast a need has developed for a book that focuses analytically on prospects for Northeast Asian cooperation within the context of both Asia and the Asia Pacific regional relationship This book does exactly that while also offering a more general theory for Asian institution building Early Modern China and Northeast Asia Evelyn S. Rawski, 2015-06-11 Evelyn Rawski presents a revisionist history of early modern China in the context of northeast Asian geopolitics and global maritime trade Northeast Asia's Stunted Regionalism Gilbert Rozman, 2004-06-21 A comprehensive picture of the pursuit of regionalism across Northeast Asia in the years following the Cold War Japan and Russia in Northeast Asia Vladimir I. Ivanov, Karla S. Smith, 1999-03-30 This collection of essays by leading scholars and diplomats involved with the area examines the key political and economic issues facing Japan Russia and their neighbors since the end of the Cold War The main goal is to analyze recent developments in Moscow Tokyo bilateral relations and their growing interest in closer economic engagement stability and regional cooperation The volume provides readers with an in depth analysis of the very problems and opportunities that compelled the national leaders of Japan and Russia to drastically change the format and contents of the dialogue to address the most critical issues not only of the moment but also for the future The volume is a crucial resource for scholars policy makers and students involved with Asia Pacific economic cooperation and Japanese and Russian foreign policy The International Relations of Northeast Asia Samuel S. Kim, 2004 Written by a team of leading scholars this volume presents a variety of theoretical perspectives and case studies to offer a comprehensive analysis of the pressures that shape the policy choices of China Russia Japan the United States North and South Korea and Taiwan      Energy Security Cooperation in Northeast Asia Bo Kong, Jae H. Ku, 2015-04-24 Drawing on cutting edge research from leading scholars this book investigates state preferences for regime creation and assesses state capacity for executing these preferences in Northeast Asia's energy domain defined as the geographical area comprising the following countries Russia Mongolia China Japan South Korea and North Korea It examines questions pertaining to how states perceive the need and necessity for establishing a regime when it comes to the issue of energy and how much commitment they make to the effort in Northeast Asia The book analyses the factors that shape each country's fundamental energy interests in the region how these interests impact their attitudes toward engaging the region on energy security and the way they carry out their regional engagement Based on countries interests in promoting institutionalized regional energy cooperation and their capacity for forging that cooperation the collection assesses each state's role in contributing to an energy regime in Northeast Asia It then concludes with a critique on the decade plus quest for energy security cooperation in Northeast Asia and suggests ways forward for facilitating regional energy security cooperation This book will be of great interest to scholars and students of environmental policy energy policy security studies Asian studies and international relations      Rethinking Historical Injustice and Reconciliation in Northeast Asia Gi-Wook Shin, Soon-Won Park, Daqing Yang, 2007-01-24 Korea is a nation that has addressed issues of both internal and external injustices from past wrongs that were committed in times of colonialism war and dictatorship Using examples of this injustice this book focuses on Korea and looks towards reconciliation in the region      North Korea and Northeast Asia Samuel S. Kim, Tai Hwan Lee, 2002-10-09 A country of stark contradictions and puzzles North Korea exhibits uncanny resilience in the face of external shocks and internal woes raising important questions of theoretical and real world significance What has made it possible for North Korea to defy the classical realist axiom The strong do what they have the power to do and the weak accept what they have to accept What is the nature of the North Korean threat in post Cold War Northeast Asia What kind of bargaining leverage does Pyongyang exercise in system maintaining survival strategies What are North Korea's prospects for sustaining such survival strategies in the uncertain years ahead This volume offers a major reappraisal of the changing relationship between North Korea and its neighboring powers in the post Cold War era in both theoretical and practical terms The contributors examine the complex interplay of global regional and national forces that have influenced and shaped the changing patterns of conflict and cooperation in North Korea's relationships with China Russia and Japan and with the United States Within the context of Northeast Asian geopolitics the book tracks explains and assesses North Korea's survival strategies in both the security and economic domains as well as the prospects of these strategies in the coming years      Forest Vegetation of Northeast Asia Jirí Kolbek, Miroslav Srutek, Elgene E. O. Box, 2003-08-31 When two of us Jirí Kolbek Miroslav Srutek were working in North Korea on the Czech Slovak field expeditions of the early 1990s we did not think initially of comparing our results with the vegetation of surrounding areas or of writing a book Our efforts mainly involved observing and documenting the vegetation as completely as possible and initial recognition of vegetation units At first we focused on the most obvious vegetation types but eventually also any important types that we could discern Later we focused more on forests since almost all of northeastern Asia has forest potential and forests still do form the landscape matrix in most areas First we studied suburban woods and forests most of which are strongly affected by human activities Later though we also had chances to visit and study lovely mountain regions including Myohyang san Kungang san Su jang san and the high especially beautiful Changbai shan on the border between North Korea and China The Changbai shan is the highest mountain system in the Korean Peninsula including the highest peak Paektu san We gradually changed our goal from an evaluation of forest data from North Korea to comparison with available field data and literature sources from comparable surrounding areas These include South Korea the Russian Far East northeastern China Manchuria and northern Japan including the Kuril Islands Finally we decided to prepare a preliminary survey of the forest vegetation of the Russian Far East and eventually of all of northeastern Asia which would be published in English

The Law of the Sea and Northeast Asia Park Hee Kwon, 2021-10-25 The Law of the Sea is a vast and multifaceted area of international law The 1982 United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea and the Agreement relating to the implementation of Part XI of the Convention constitute essential instruments of the law of the sea governing a new maritime order for the international community With its entry into force on November 16 1994 the 1982 United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea has virtually become the Magna Carta of the Oceans or the Constitution for the Oceans Testifying to its success is the number of Parties adhering to it now totaling 132 States including one international organization the European Community The world is entering the era of a New Maritime Order based on near universal adherence to the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea In the wake of the Convention's entry into force and its ratification by many States in Northeast Asia a new maritime order is emerging in the region The littoral States have enacted and promulgated new national legislation to incorporate the provisions of the UN Convention into their domestic legal order The three littoral States China Japan and South Korea concluded or initialed bilateral fisheries agreements based on the new concept of extended jurisdiction set forth by the UN Convention The UN Convention will however present even more challenges than opportunities for the littoral States of Northeast Asia in their quest for a new maritime order The maritime security situation in the region has been and will continue to be extremely volatile due to conflicting claims disputed boundaries unregulated pollution of the marine environment and widespread illegal activities at sea The author has set the both pragmatic and ambitious aim of outlining the emerging maritime order in Northeast Asia As a practitioner of the law of the sea who has participated in bilateral and multilateral negotiations on maritime affairs the author sheds light on the new maritime order in the making at the international and regional levels The author also delineates the main issues and disputes hindering the establishment of a new maritime order in the region and present policy options that could contribute to erecting a solid maritime order in the region by peaceful and cooperative means Finally the author presents a compilation of relevant legal texts most of which were produced after the entry into force of the UN Convention in the hope that this collection will prove useful for desk officers in charge of ocean affairs in promoting peaceful and constructive solutions for maritime issues in Northeast Asia This work serves as a realistic analysis of the current law and State practice as well as of the progressive development of the law of the sea and its codification in the wake of the entry into force of the 1982 UN Convention

Security Cooperation in Northeast Asia T.J. Pempel, Chung-Min Lee, 2012-06-14 Defining and conceptualizing Northeast Asia's security complex poses unique quandaries The security architecture in Northeast Asia to date has been predominately U S dominated bilateral alliances weak institutional structures and the current Six Party Talks dealing with the North Korean nuclear issue There has been a distinct lack of desire among regional countries as well as the U S to follow in the footsteps of Europe with its robust set of multilateral institutions However since the late 1990s there has been burgeoning interest among regional states towards forming new multilateral institutions as well as reforming and revitalizing existing mechanisms Much of this effort has been in the economic and political arenas with the creation of bodies such as the East Asian Summit but there have also been important initiatives in the security sphere This book offers detailed examinations about how this potentially tense region of the world is redefining certain longstanding national interests and shows how this shift is the result of changing power relations the desire to protect hard won economic gains as well as growing trust in new processes designed to foster regional cooperation over regional conflict Presenting new and timely research on topics that are vital to the security future of one of the world's most important geographical regions this book will be of great value to students and scholars of Asian politics regionalism international politics and security studies

Nuclear Proliferation in Northeast Asia A. O'Neil, 2007-10-01 To what extent does the failing strategy of nonproliferation pose serious challenges for Northeast Asia's security environment Are there alternative strategies for managing nuclear weapons in the region Should the presence of nuclear weapons in Northeast Asia necessarily be seen in exclusively negative terms as many experts believe

The Major Powers of Northeast Asia Tae-Hwan Kwak, Edward A. Olsen, 1996 The remnants of Cold War politics stand in the way of Northeast Asia's adjustment to the post Cold War era This book examines the security policies of Japan China Russia the US and Australia in the Northeast Asia region with reference to attempts to reunify the two Koreas

Rethinking Governance in Europe and Northeast Asia Uwe Wissenbach, 2019-10-23 This book explores how nationalism and multilateralism transform international society and global governance It does so by comparing the governance model of the EU a constitutionalised and increasingly polycentric form of multilateralism with Northeast Asia There nationalist administrations have resisted multilateral commitments and are locked into rivalries instead of pursuing a regional project Both Europe and Northeast Asia can be seen as success stories of the late 20th early 21st centuries but by having followed different approaches to international governance The book traces these two trajectories through critical junctures in history to how both regions have dealt with the contemporary challenges of the financial crisis and climate change During the financial crisis Europe s multilateral economic and monetary architecture revealed profound weaknesses whilst national policies allowed much of Northeast Asia to escape the worst of it On climate change the European Union EU has developed effort sharing governance models to reduce emissions while Northeast Asian countries are relying on greening national industrial policy The book argues that global governance has to find the balance between multilateralism and nationalism in order to find collaborative approaches to global challenges This book provides a fresh take on the EU and on Northeast Asia and develops innovative concepts of international society and polycentric governance Thus it will be of considerable interest to researchers and students of global governance international relations EU and Asia Studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY ND 4 0 license

Collaborative Regional Development in Northeast Asia Won Bae Kim, Yue-man Yeung, Sang-Chuel Choe, 2011-07-18 Against the background of accelerating globalization and growing economic interdependence in Northeast Asia over the past two decades including the recent global economic crisis this book sets out to examine the status and prospect of cross border cooperation It has synthesized diverse strands of discussion and different country perspectives to highlight the challenges and opportunities of collaborative regional development in Northeast Asia Distinct from previous studies this book attempts to capture international national and local viewpoints in regional development Practical experience across countries has been analyzed and consolidated to form the basis of a policy agenda for cross border cooperation Combining an intimate knowledge of the region and different disciplinary perspectives this book offers a wealth of information statistical and illustrative materials and analyses across topics and countries of the region Editors include Won Bae Kim Research Advisor of the Gyeonggi Research Institute and former Senior Fellow at the Korean Research Institute for Human Settlements Yue man Yeung Emeritus Professor of Geography and Honorary Fellow of The Chinese University of Hong Kong and Sang Chuel Choe former Chairman of the Presidential Committee on Regional Development in South Korea and Professor Emeritus of Seoul National University

Conflict Prevention and Management in Northeast Asia Alec Forss, Sofia Ledberg, Niklas Swanström, 2010-03-08 Two of the world s most dangerous flashpoints this edited volume with contributions by leading scholars offers a comprehensive evaluation and comparison of approaches to conflict management and prevention on the Korean Peninsula and in the Taiwan Strait The consequences of any escalation of these two conflicts and the difficulties in resolving them necessitate a fresh look at designing new strategies to prevent and contain conflict as well as highlighting the limitations of existing measures Presenting both a theoretical and practical examination of conflict prevention and management the volume provides a comparative analysis of the Korean Peninsula and the Taiwan Strait identifying lessons that could be transferred between the two cases but also the obstacles to this. The experiences of other regions and the role of third parties are also examined. This is a valuable addition to the literature for students of peace and conflict studies as well as policy makers with an interest in Northeast Asia.

Charles K. Armstrong, Gilbert Rozman, Samuel S. Kim, Stephen Kotkin, 2016-09-16

The common images of Korea view the peninsula as a long standing battleground for outside powers and the Cold War's last divided state. But Korea's location at the very center of Northeast Asia gives it a pivotal role in the economic integration of the region and the dynamic development of its more powerful neighbors. A great wave of economic expansion driven first by the Japanese miracle and then by the ascent of China has made South Korea an economic powerhouse in its own right, the hub of the region once again, a natural corridor for railroads and energy pipelines linking Asiatic Russia to China and Japan. And over the horizon, an opening of North Korea with multilateral support would add another major push toward regional integration. Illuminating the role of the Korean peninsula in three modern historical periods, the eminent international contributors to this volume offer a fresh and stimulating appraisal of Korea as the key to the coalescence of a broad open Northeast Asian regionalism in the twenty fifth century.

Policing Northeast Asia Se Hyun Ahn, 2020-06-02

This book explores the progress in and the obstacles surrounding developing comprehensive security cooperation between Russia and South Korea since diplomatic relations were established in 1991 within the framework of economic security. The book focuses on oil and natural gas projects linking the Trans Siberian and Trans Korean Railroads, industrial development in the Nakhodka Free Economic Zone, fishery cooperation and the arms trade and examines whether these five aspects of cooperation serve to contribute to building Russian-South Korean bilateral and regional economic security. The author argues that these five aspects of cooperation all have the potential to enhance comprehensive bilateral security and further regional economic security in Northeast Asia. However, Russian-South Korean economic cooperation has been hampered by a number of obstacles including domestic factors as well as external factors and prevented Russia and South Korea from fulfilling their potential for creating a cooperative comprehensive security relationship. The author concludes with an assessment on the utility of the concept of multi dimensional security cooperation as a framework for studying and improving the prospects for Russian-South Korean bilateral relations.
