Northern Africa Islam And Modernization:

Northern Africa: Islam and Modernization, 1973 Northern Africa: Islam and modernization, ed , Northern Africa African Studies Association of the United Kingdom, 1973 The Jews of the Middle East and North Africa in Modern Times Reeva Spector Simon, Michael Menachem Laskier, Sara Reguer, 2003-04-30 Despite considerable research on the Jewish diaspora in the Middle East and North Africa since 1800 there has until now been no comprehensive synthesis that illuminates both the differences and commonalities in Jewish experience across a range of countries and cultures This lacuna in both Jewish and Middle Eastern studies is due partly to the fact that in general histories of the region Jews have been omitted from the standard narrative As part of the religious and ethnic mosaic that was traditional Islamic society Jews were but one among numerous minorities and so have lacked a systematic treatment Addressing this important oversight this volume documents the variety and diversity of Jewish life in the region over the last two hundred years It explains the changes that affected the communities under Islamic rule during its golden age and describes the processes of modernization that enabled the Jews to play a pivotal role in their respective countries in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The first half of the book is thematic covering topics ranging from languages to economic life and from religion and music to the world of women The second half is a country by country survey that covers Turkey Syria Lebanon Israel Palestine Iraq Iran Afghanistan Yemen Egypt the Sudan Libya Tunisia Algeria and Morocco Islam's Predicament with Modernity Bassam Tibi, 2009-02-25 This book presents an in depth cultural and political analysis of the issue of political Islam as a potential source of tensions and conflict and how this might be peacefully resolved Looking at modernity from an Islamic point of view the author analyses issues such as law knowledge and human rights Northern Africa: Islam and Modernization African Studies Association of the United Kingdom, 1973 The Jews of the Middle East and North Africa in Modern Times Reeva S. Simon, Michael M. Laskier, Sara Reguer, 2003 Filling an important gap in the literature this volume documents the variety and diversity of Jewish life in the Middle East and North Africa over the last two hundred years It explains the changes that affected the communities under Islamic rule during its golden age and describes the processes of modernization that enabled the Jews of the Middle East and North Africa to play a pivotal role in their respective countries in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Northern Africa African Studies Association of the United Kingdom, 1973 A History of African Societies to 1870 Elizabeth Isichei, 1997-04-13 This comprehensive and detailed exploration of the African past from prehistory to approximately 1870 is intended to provide a fully up to date complement to the Cambridge History of Africa Reflecting several emphases in recent scholarship it focusses on the changing modes of production on gender relations and on ecology laying particular stress on viewing history from below A distinctive theme is to be found in its analyses of cognitive history The work falls into three sections The first comprises a historiographic analysis and covers the period from the dawn of prehistory to the end of the Early Iron Age The second and third sections are for the most part organised on regional lines the second section ends in the sixteenth century the third carries the story on to 1870 A second volume now in preparation will cover the period from 1870 to 1995 This book attempts a more rounded view of African history than most of the other textbooks on the subject addressed to a largely undergraduate level student Earlier histories have tended to ignore some of the current foci in the scholarly literature on Africa generally not reflected in the textbooks these include discussions of topical issues like ecology and gender Isichei's book is also more radical

Messianism and Puritanical Reform

Mercedes Garcia-Arenal, 2006-06-01 This is a book about revolutionary movements of a messianic and millenarian character led by a mahdi in Islamic terms a charismatic messianic leader It also addresses the question of mediation between God and men and the political repercussions of this question in the history of the pre Modern Muslim West Mahdism is considered in relation to sufi ideas terminology and symbols which shape notions of authority and of legitimate power when claiming direct intimate contact between the holy and the divine The relationship between mahdism and the legitimacy of power the process by which the messianic paradigm becomes inseparable from the claim to the caliphate are amply discussed The contents of the book range from the times of the Muslim conquest of North Africa and Iberia to the first part of the XVIIIth century with the end of Muslim Iberia and the beginnings of European intervention in Morocco

Islamic Law and Society in the Sudan Carolyn Fluehr-Lobban, 2013-10-15 Few studies exist which deal with Islamic law in practice and this is among the first such studies in the English language for Islamic Africa It is significant that the present study was completed just prior to the extension of Islamic law as the sole governing law in the Sudan in 1983 for it captures many essentials of the Shari'a as it has been applied for decades prior to this important change Numerous movements for reform and change are discussed in the book which reflect the contemporary debate in the Sudan over the position of Shari'a in society

The Cambridge History of Christianity: Volume 5, Eastern Christianity Michael Angold, 2006-08-17 This volume encompasses the whole Christian Orthodox tradition from 1200 to the present Its central theme is the survival of Orthodoxy against the odds into the modern era It celebrates the resilience shown in the face of hostile regimes and social pressures in this often neglected period of Orthodox history

civilization during the Middle Ages Accessible to scholars students and non specialists this resource will be of great use in research and understanding of the roots of today s Islamic society as well as the rich and vivid culture of medieval Islamic civilization

A History of Islamic Societies Ira M. Lapidus,2014-10-13 This new edition of one of the most widely used course books on Islamic civilizations around the world has been substantially revised to incorporate the new scholarship and insights of the last twenty five years Ira Lapidus history explores the beginnings and transformations of Islamic civilizations in the Middle East and details Islam s worldwide diffusion The history is divided into four parts Part I is a comprehensive account of pre Islamic late antiquity the beginnings of Islam the early Islamic empires and Islamic religious artistic legal and intellectual cultures Part II deals with the construction in the Middle East of Islamic religious communities and states to the fifteenth century Part III includes the history to the nineteenth century of Islamic North Africa and Spain the Ottoman Safavid and Mughal empires and other Islamic societies in Asia and Africa Part IV accounts for the impact of European commercial and imperial domination on Islamic societies and traces the development of the modern national state system and the simultaneous Islamic revival from the early nineteenth century to the present

The Cambridge History of Egypt M. W. Daly,Carl F. Petry,1998-12-10 The Cambridge History of Egypt offers the first comprehensive English language treatment of Egyptian history through thirteen centuries from the Arab conquest to the present day The two volume survey considers the political socio economic and cultural history of the world s oldest state summarizing the debates and providing insight into current controversies As today s Egypt reclaims a leading role in the Islamic Arab and Afro Asian worlds the project stands as testimony to its complex and vibrant past Volume 2 traces Egypt s modern history from the Ottoman conquest to the end of the twentieth century A wide range of scholars from the humanities and social sciences have been brought together to explore the history of the period Their conclusions reflect the work of traditional scholarship and also indicate present trends and future directions in historical writing in Egypt

The Islamic Near East and North Africa David W. Littlefield,1977 Annotated bibliography on the Islamic Middle East and North Africa includes regional level and national level studies

Heresy and the Politics of Community Marina Rustow,2014-10-31 In a book with a bold new view of medieval Jewish history written in a style accessible to nonspecialists and students as well as to scholars in the field Marina Rustow changes our understanding of the origins and nature of heresy itself Scholars have long believed that the Rabbanites and Qaraites the two major Jewish groups under Islamic rule split decisively in the tenth century and from that time forward the minority Qaraites were deemed a heretical sect Qaraites affirmed a right to decide matters of Jewish law free from centuries of rabbinic interpretation the Rabbanites in turn claimed an unbroken chain of scholarly tradition Rustow draws heavily on the Cairo Geniza a repository of papers found in a Rabbanite synagogue to show that despite the often fierce arguments between the groups they depended on each other for political and financial support and cooperated in both public and private life This evidence of remarkable interchange leads Rustow to the conclusion that the accusation of heresy appeared sporadically in specific contexts and that the history of permanent schism was the invention of polemicists on both sides Power shifted back and forth fluidly across what later commentators particularly those invested in the rabbinic claim to exclusive authority deemed to have been sharply drawn boundaries Heresy and the Politics of Community paints a portrait of a more flexible medieval Eastern Mediterranean world than has previously been imagined and demonstrates a new understanding of the historical meanings of charges of heresy against communities of faith Historians of premodern societies will find that in her fresh approach to medieval Jewish and Islamic culture Rustow illuminates a major issue in the history of religions

A History of Christian-Muslim Relations Hugh Goddard, 2000-09-05 Hugh Goddard investigates the history of the relationships between Christians and Muslims over the centuries

The Maghrib in Question Michel Le Gall, Kenneth Perkins, 1997 A wealth of historical writing dealing with the Maghrib Morocco Algeria Tunisia and Libya has been published during the roughly forty years since European colonial control ended in the region This book provides a state of the field survey of this postcolonial Maghribi historiography The book contains thirteen essays by leading Maghribi and North American scholars The first section surveys the Maghrib as a whole the second focuses on individual countries of the Maghrib and the third explores theoretical issues and case studies Cutting across chronological categories the book encompasses historiographical writing dealing with all eras from the ancient Maghrib to the contemporary period

Modernizing Islam John L. Esposito, François Burgat, 2003 In recent years Islam has become a more visible force not only in North Africa the Middle East and Asia but also in Western Europe and the United States Greater attention to religious observance prayer fasting dress pilgrimage has accompanied the creation of new institutions mosques finance houses insurance companies schools clinics and hospitals Religiously inspired social and political movements have proliferated Only a few decades ago Muslims were virtually invisible in Europe and America Today increased immigration has changed the religious landscape of the West Mosques and Islamic centers are found in European and American cities and towns Muslims are visible in nearly every area of social and political life A list of major Islamic cities and populations today must include not only Cairo Tunis Damascus and Islamabad but also Paris London New York and Detroit This demographic and cultural shift requires that we speak not only of the relationship between the traditional Islamic world and the West but also about Islam in the West It has also meant that Islam has been obliged to modernize to grapple with its status as a minority religion in some parts of the world and a majority one in others Modernizing Islam speaks to the significance origins influences and implications of Islam s changes and thus to the various ways in which this religion is becoming a truly global force shaping such realms as law politics education and ethics among many others
