A Study of the Middle-English Poem Known as the Northern Passion and Its Relation to the Cycle Plays ... Frances Allen Foster, 1914 First Supplement to A Manual of the Writings in Middle English, 1050-1400 John Edwin Wells, 1919 Second Supplement to A Manual of the Writings in Middle English, 1050-1400 John Edwin Wells, 1923

Cornish Literature Brian Murdoch, 1993 Comparative study of Cornish literature placing it in a wider context and looking in detail at major works This admirable survey compact smoothly written easy to read and digest yet indicative throughout of profound scholarship and an obvious mastery of the field Cornish Literature provides an enduring guide to this small but significant genre The three Middle Cornish plays in English titles The Creation of the World Life of St Meriasek and the tripartite Ordinalia accompany a long Pascon agan Arluth a verse Passion of our Lord and the odd fragment His last chapter Survivals and Revivals is a fair but detached account covering a long 1611 to 1992 phase that will also interest sociologists The chief strength of his book is the textual analysis of the main plays placing them alongside medieval English drama as well as the larger European manifestation of religious drama and the complex question of all their biblical and quasi biblical sources There is a useful bibliography Modestly priced Brian Murdoch's scholarly and attractive guide should appeal to many beyond medievalist circles it will not be superseded for a long time THE TIMES LITERARY SUPPLEMENT BRIAN MURDOCH is head of the Department of German at Stirling University A Manual of the Writings in Middle English, 1050-1400 John Edwin Wells, 1916 Reader's Guide to Periodical Literature Supplement, 1919 Texts of the Passion Thomas H. Bestul, 2015-08-05 In this book Thomas H Bestul constructs the literary history of the Latin Passion narratives placing them within their social cultural and historical contexts He examines the ways in which the Passion is narrated and renarrated in devotional treatises paying particular attention to the modifications and enlargements of the narrative of the Passion as it is presented in the canonical gospels Of particular interest to Bestul are the representations of Jews women and the body of the crucified Christ Bestul argues that the greatly enlarged role of the Jews in the Passion narratives of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries is connected to the rising anti Judaism of the period He explores how the representations of women particularly the Virgin Mary express cultural values about the place of women in late medieval society and reveal an increased interest in female subjectivity Mandeville's Travels Sir John Mandeville,1919 The Southern Version of Cursor Mundi, Vol. III Henry J. Stauffenberg,1985-01-01 The medieval poem Cursor Mundi is a biblical versified account of the history of the world It offers a chronological overview of salvation history from Creation to Doomsday The Cursor Mundi originated in northern England in 1300 or thereabouts and was frequently copied in the north before appearing in a substantially altered southern version Although it is a storehouse of popular medieval biblical lore and a fascinating study in the eclectic use of more than a dozen sources the poem had attracted little scholarly attention until the publication of this critical analysis This five part collaborative edition presents the Arundel version of the poem with variants from three others In addition it provides a discussion of sources and analogues detailed explanatory notes and a bibliography Published in English Western Illuminated Manuscripts Paul Binski,Patrick Zutshi,2011-03-31 Cambridge University Library s collection of illuminated manuscripts is of international significance It originates in the medieval university and stands alongside the holdings of the colleges and the Fitzwilliam Museum The University Library contains major European examples of medieval illumination from the ninth to the sixteenth centuries with acknowledged masterpieces of Romanesque Gothic and Renaissance book art as well as illuminated literary texts including the first complete Chaucer manuscript This catalogue provides scholars and researchers easy access to the University Library s illuminated manuscripts evaluating the importance of many of them for the very first time It contains descriptions of famous manuscripts for example the Life of Edward the Confessor attributed to Matthew Paris as well as hundreds of lesser known items Beautifully illustrated throughout the catalogue contains descriptions of individual manuscripts with up to date assessments of their style origins and importance together with bibliographical references
