Patrick MacGill, 1911 The Philadelphia Irish Michael L. Mullan, 2021-07-16 This book describes the flowering of the Irish American community and the 1890s growth of a Gaelic public sphere in Philadelphia a movement inspired by the cultural awakening in native Ireland transplanted and acted upon in Philadelphia's robust Irish community The Philadelphia Irish embraced this export of cultural nationalism revealed in Gaelic symbols and endorsed the Gaelic language political nationalism Celtic paramilitarism Gaelic sport and a broad ethnic culture Using Jurgen Habermas's concept of a public sphere the author reveals how the Irish constructed a plebian counter public of Gaelic meaning through various mechanisms of communication the ethnic press the meeting rooms of Irish societies the consumption of circulating pamphlets oratory songs ballads poems and conversation Settled in working class neighborhoods of vast spatial separation in an industrial city the Irish resisted a parochialism identified with neighborhood and instead extended themselves to construct a vibrant culturally engaged network of Irish rebirth in Philadelphia a public of Gaelic meaning Culture, Northern Ireland, and the Second World War Guy Woodward, 2015 Culture Northern Ireland and the Second World War presents a new cultural history of Northern Ireland during and after the Second World War examining the often neglected period before the onset of the

Troubles and exploring work by the generation of artists and writers that preceded Seamus Heaney and his contemporaries

The Oxford Handbook of Dance and Competition Sherril Dodds, 2019 This Handbook asks how competition affects the presentation and experience of dance The Cumulative Book Index ,1913 Cultures in Motion Daniel T. Rodgers, Bhavani Raman, Helmut Reimitz, 2017-05-09 In the wide ranging and innovative essays of Cultures in Motion a dozen distinguished historians offer new conceptual vocabularies for understanding how cultures have trespassed across geography and social space From the transformations of the meanings and practices of charity during late antiquity and the transit of medical knowledge between early modern China and Europe to the fusion of Irish and African dance forms in early nineteenth century New York these essays follow a wide array of cultural practices through the lens of motion translation itinerancy and exchange extending the insights of transnational and translocal history Cultures in Motion challenges the premise of fixed stable cultural systems by showing that cultural practices have always been moving crossing borders and locations with often surprising effect The essays offer striking examples from early to modern times of intrusion translation resistance and adaptation These are histories where nothing dance rhythms alchemical formulas musical practices feminist aspirations sewing machines streamlined metals or labor networks remains stationary In addition to the editors the contributors are Celia Applegate Peter Brown Harold Cook April Masten Mae Ngai Jocelyn Olcott Mimi Sheller Pamela Smith and Nira Wickramasinghe Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress. Cataloging Policy and Support Office, 2009 Bulletin , 1950 Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, Library of Congress. Office for Subject Cataloging Policy, 2011 Ireland's 1916 Rising Mark McCarthy, 2016-05-06 In light of its upcoming centenary in 2016 the time seems ripe to ask why how and in what ways has memory of Ireland's 1916 Rising persisted over the decades In pursuing answers to these questions which are not only of historical concern but of contemporary political and cultural importance this book breaks new ground by offering a wide ranging exploration of the making and remembrance of the story of 1916 in modern times It draws together the interlocking dimensions of history making commemoration and heritage to reveal the Rising's undeniable influence upon modern Ireland's evolution both instantaneous and long term In addition to furnishing a history of the tumultuous events of Easter 1916 which rattled the British Empire's foundations and enthused independence movements elsewhere Ireland's 1916 Rising mainly concentrates on illuminating the evolving relationship between the Irish past and present In doing so it unearths the far reaching political impacts and deep seated cultural legacies of the actions taken by the rebels as evidenced by the most pivotal episodes in the Rising's commemoration and the myriad varieties of heritage associated with its memory This volume also presents a wider perspective on the ways in which conceptualisations of heritage culture and identity in Westernised societies are shaped by continuities and changes in politics society and economy In a topical conclusion the book examines the legacy of Queen Elizabeth II's visit to the Garden of Remembrance in 2011 and looks to the Rising's 100th anniversary by identifying the common ground that can be found in pluralist and reconciliatory approaches to remembrance Notes on dr. Edmond Halley [&c. A scrapbook of extr. from The New York geneal. and biogr. record, Notes and queries &c.]. Compiled by E.F. McPike Eugene Fairfield McPike, 1903

When Reason Fails Michael Goodspeed, 2001-12-30 A nation's fighting forces are often believed to embody a country's qualities of determination resourcefulness and courage This study examines the influences of these qualities from the viewpoint of the American Army in Vietnam the British Army in Northern Ireland and the Israeli Army throughout its struggle in the Middle East It is a provocative look at corporate military character operations personalities organizations administrative policies training social factors technology strategy and tactics all elements that are woven tightly together to explain why national armies perform in the manner that they do Goodspeed uses these historical case studies as the basis of his analysis then explores the social technical and organizational issues that future armies will likely face He assesses the future of modern warfare in technical terms in the context of mass mobility firepower and communications The Duke of Wellington once scoffed Tell the history of a battle One might as well describe the history of a ball This book takes the Iron Duke's advice to heart and seeks to explain modern military victory and defeat in terms of corporate military character a complex and fragile mosaic one in which national temperament is only a minor feature In so doing it takes on a subject long veiled in myth and invention The social political and technical blueprints for the conduct of wars in the 21st century are already well established Goodspeed illustrates these patterns by showing how armies have coped in the most influential campaigns of modern times and in this light assesses the key factors driving change for future wars Bloody Tyrants and

Little Pickles Marlis Schweitzer, 2020-11-02 Bloody Tyrants and Little Pickles traces the theatrical repertoire of a small group of white Anglo American actresses as they reshaped the meanings of girlhood in Britain North America and the British West Indies during the first half of the nineteenth century It is a study of the possibilities and the problems girl performers presented as they adopted the manners and clothing of boys entered spaces intended for adults and assumed characters written for men It asks why masculine roles like Young Norval Richard III Little Pickle and Shylock came to seem normal and natural for young white girls to play and it considers how playwrights managers critics and audiences sought to contain or fix the at times dangerous plasticity they exhibited both on and off the stage Schweitzer analyzes the formation of a distinct repertoire for girls in the first half of the nineteenth century which delighted in precocity and playfulness and offered up a model of girlhood that was similarly joyful and fluid This evolving repertoire reflected shifting perspectives on girls place within Anglo American society including where and how they should behave and which girls had the right to appear at all

Women police Louise Jackson, 2017-10-03 Women Police examines the professional roles identities activities and everyday experiences of women employed within the UK police service since the First World War against a backdrop of social and cultural change As the first in depth historical study of women's involvement in uniform plain clothes and undercover policing in the period before formal integration with male officers in the 1970s it charts the relationship between gender surveillance and penal welfare strategies For much of the twentieth century women police played a specialist role in the detection and prevention of child abuse and neglect the investigation of sexual violence and in London the regulation of prostitution The book shows how women officers fashioned their own feminine occupational culture and style of working in relation to male colleagues other professionals and the women and children they encountered Jackson concludes by examining experiences at the end of the twentieth century comparing and contrasting the differing concepts of equality that have shaped women s involvement in the police service Nature Displaced, Nature Displayed Nuala C. Johnson, 2011-04-29

Botanical gardens brought together in a single space the great diversity of the earth s flora They displaced nature from forest and foothill and re arranged it to reveal something of the scientific principles underpinning the apparent chaos of the wild Nature Displaced Nature Displayed shows how the design and display of such gardens was not determined by scientific principles alone Through a study of three botanical gardens belonging to the University of Cambridge the Royal Dublin Society and the Belfast Natural History Society the author shows how the final outcome involved a complex interplay of ideas about place identity empire botanical science and especially aesthetics creating spaces that would educate the mind as well as please the senses This highly engaging book offers a wealth of fresh insights into both the history and development of botanical gardens as well as connections between science and aesthetics 102 Motion Pictures on Democracy Seerley Reid, 1950
