Northern Review 1986:

Northern Review, 1986 Dynamic Publications, Inc. Staff, 1986-01 Poet John Hewitt, 1907-1987 and Criticism of Northern Irish Protestant Writing Sarah Ferris, 2002 This study questions the validity of John Hewitt's prominence in Northern Irish Protestant writing and asserts the need for a more accurate history of this genre. Confronting the perceived wisdoms of a highly politicized discourse, it undermines Hewitt's status within it as a matchless acceptable Protestant for a critically re-visioned Ireland. Challenging the substance of Hewitt's self-representations as icon of cultural liberalism, radical secular dissenter and verse apologist for the Planter condition, this book shows that his elevation over the majority of northern Protestants is tenable only within an incomprehensive history of Northern Irish Protestant writing that diminishes other important figures. The study provides a framework for a more equitable study of Protestant voices. The Reception of James Joyce in Europe: Germany, Northern and East Central Europe, 2004-01-01 James Joyce is now widely considered the most influential writer of the twentieth century. His name and his most important works appeared again and again in fin de millennium surveys. This is the case not only in the English-speaking world but also in many European literatures. Joyce's influence is most pronounced in French, German and Italian literatures where translations of most of his works appeared during his life time and where he had a clear impact on his fellow writers. In other countries and cultures his influence took more time to register, sometimes after the war in the fifties and sixties and sometimes only in the final decade of the century. This was the case in most of the languages of Eastern Europe where the translation of Joyce's work could only begin after the collapse of the Soviet Union in the 1990s. This book contains two volumes. Series Editor: Dr Elinor Shaffer, FBA, Institute of Germanic Romance Studies, School of Advanced Study, University of London. Contributors to the volume include: Sonja Basic, University of Zagreb; Eric Bulson, Columbia University; Astradur Eysteinnsson, University of Reykjavik; Kalina Filipova, University of Sofia; Marta Goldmann, University of Budapest; Jakob Greve, University of Copenhagen; Manana Kherghiani, New York; Teresa Iribarren, University of Barcelona; Onno R. Culture Renée Hulan,2002 She considers each of these diverse genres in terms of the way it explains the cultural identity of a nation formed from the settlement of immigrant peoples on the lands of dispossessed indigenous peoples The Impact of AIDS on the Kaiser Permanente Medical Care Program (Northern California Region) ,1988 Torture and Human Rights in Northern Ireland Aoife Duffy,2019-03-28 This book presents a compelling and highly sophisticated politico legal history of a particular security operation that resulted in one of the most high profile torture cases in the world It reveals the extent to which the Ireland v United Kingdom judgment misrepresents the interrogation system that was developed and utilised in Northern Ireland Finally the truth about the operation is presented in a comprehensive narrative sometimes corroborating secondary literature already in the public domain but at other times significantly debunking aphorisms or indeed lies that circulated about interrogation in depth The book sets out the theoretical reference paradigm with respect to the culture and practice of state denial often associated with torture and uses this model to excavate the buried aspects of this most famous of torture cases Through the lens of a single operation conducted twice it presents a fascinating expos of the complicated structures of state sponsored denial designed to hide the truth about the long term effects of these techniques and the way in which they were authorised A Conservation Strategy for the Northern Spotted Owl ,1990 U.S. Geological Survey Circular ,1984 1987 Annual Report on Alaska's Mineral Resources ,1987 1987 Annual Report on Alaska's Mineral Resources Donald J.
