Genealogical Quarterly Lucius Carroll Herrick, Frank Theodore Cole,1900 The Great Stewardess Rebellion Nell McShane Wulfhart,2022-04-19 The empowering true story of a group of spirited stewardesses who stood up to huge corporations and won creating momentous change for all working women Gloria Steinem co founder of Ms magazine It was the Golden Age of Travel and everyone wanted in As flying boomed in the 1960s women from across the United States applied for jobs as stewardesses They were drawn to the promise of glamorous jet setting the chance to see the world and an alternative to traditional occupations like homemaking nursing and teaching But as the number of stews grew so did their suspicion that the job was not as picture perfect as the ads would have them believe Sky girls had to adhere to strict weight limits at all times gain a few extra pounds and they d be suspended from work They couldn t marry or have children their makeup hair and teeth had to be just so Girdles were mandatory while stewardesses were on the clock And most important stewardesses had to resign at 32 Eventually the stewardesses began to push back and it s thanks to their trailblazing efforts in part that working women have gotten closer to workplace equality today Nell McShane Wulfhart crafts a rousing narrative of female empowerment the paradigm shifting 60s and 70s the labor movement and the cadre of gutsy women who fought for their rights and won

Locating Classed Subjectivities Simon Lee,2022-05-30 Locating Classed Subjectivities explores representations of social class in British fiction through the lens of spatial theory and analysis By analyzing a range of class conscious texts from the nineteenth twentieth and twenty first centuries the collection provides an overview of the way British writers mobilized spatial aesthetics as a means to comment on the intricacies of social class In doing so the collection delineates aesthetic strategies of representation in British writing tracing the development of literary forms while considering how authors mobilized innovative spatial metaphors to better express contingent social and economic realities Ranging in coverage from early nineteenth century narratives of disease to contemporary writing on the working class millennial Locating Classed Subjectivities offers new perspectives on literary techniques and political intentions exploring the way class is parsed and critiqued through British writing across three centuries As such the project responds to Nigel Thrift and Peter Williams s claim that literary and cultural production serves as a particularly rich yet unexamined access point by which to comprehend the way space and social class intersect
