in order to access hidden layers of the reading experience She expertly harnesses this theory of preclosure to explore interactions between pedagogy and theory formalism and cultural studies fiction and nonfiction Returning to the roots of storyness Lohafer illuminates the intricacies of classic short stories and experimental forms of surreal postmodern and minimalist fiction She also discusses the impact of social constructions such as gender on the identification of preclosure points by individual readers Reading for Storyness combines cognitive science with literary theory to present a compelling argument for the uniqueness of the short story Teaching Writing in the Middle School Anna J.
