Ingulsrud,2015-12-15 Stepping Up to the Cold War Challenge The Norwegian American Lutheran Experience in 1950s Japan describes the events that led to the Evangelical Lutheran Church ELC an American Christian denomination to respond to General MacArthur s call for missionaries This Church did not initially respond but did so in 1949 only after their missionaries had been expelled from China due to the victory of communist forces on the mainland Because they feared Japan would also succumb to communism in less than ten years the missionaries evaded ecumenical cooperation and social welfare projects to focus on evangelism and establishing congregations Many of the ELC missionaries were children and grandchildren of Norwegian immigrants who had settled as farmers on the North American Great Plains Based on interview transcripts and other primary sources this book intimately describes the personal struggles of individuals responding to the call to be a missionary adjusting to life in Japan learning Japanese raising a family and engaging in mission work As the Cold War threat diminished and independence movements elsewhere were ending colonialism missionaries were compelled to change methods and attitudes The 1950s was a time when missionaries went out much in the same manner that they did in the nineteenth century Through the voices of the missionaries and their Japanese coworkers the book documents how many of the traditional missionary assumptions begin to be questioned The Norwegian-American Historical Association, 1925-1975 Odd S. Thompson,2013-03-28 The sixth and final volume in the History of Wisconsin series examines the period from 1940 1965 in which state and nation struggled to maintain balance and traditions Some of the major developments analyzed in this volume include coping with three wars racial and societal conflict technological innovation population shifts to and from cities and suburbs and accompanying stress in politics government and society as a whole Using dozens of photographs to visually illustrate this period in the state s history this volume upholds the high standards set forth in the previous volumes Anticipation exceeded realization Robert Allan Stevens,2017-03-10 The original Illinois State University was typical of colleges in the American antebellum period Springfield s community boosters welcomed the new college as a civic adornment Determined men of the cloth envisioned a prestigious institution like the one at which they learned the artes liberals and the Lutheran catechism But turbulent times undermined their heroic efforts to sustain the school The saga of ISU is a short arc from eager anticipation to bitter realization
