Nostalgia Obeliskov

Théophile Gautier

Nostalgia Obeliskov:

Seductive Resistance: The Poetry of Théophile Gautier Constance Gosselin Schick, 2023-10-16 Gautier's poetry merits an attentive reading which respects his own essential criterion of poeticity namely textuality This is a poetry which puts on display its literariness that is its existence as cultural artifact In so doing however it also puts on display the absence of and its resistance to whatever personal or real signified it would evoke or name Its beauty and self indulgent pleasure reveal their hollowness and inadequacy Its chiseled polished surface renders its borders or limits and its play unsatisfyingly and teasingly perceptible Its very superficiality allows invites and seduces the reader to go entre les lignes and perceive the mystery not of what has been symbolically buried unburied concealed revealed but of the truly absent the ab mes superficiels Chapter 1 focusing on texts from the Poésies of 1830 studies the intertextual repetition of Gautier's poetry the citations imitations and transpositions which make evident the poetry's displacement of the significant and the personal into aesthetic simulacra Chapter 2 deals with the poems of Gautier's second collection Albertus and analyzes the use of allegory and of humor as further markers of textual substitution The inherent lifelessness and illusoriness of the textual artifact is revealed in the poems of La Comédie de la Mort the collection examined in chapter 3 Chapter 4 analyzes the so called descriptive referential poetry of Espérance and finds that the monde extérieur of Gautier's poetry functions to express an absence of self and is itself always shown to be other than the Other The diminution of the poetic effected in Emaux et Camées is the subject of chapter 5 and chapter 6 deals with the contextuality the fetishism and the eroticism revealed in a miscellany of poems in particular the libertine poems which do not figure in Gautier's five major collections By short circuiting significations and transforming them into seductive appearances Gautier reveals himself to be the acknowledged maître of both Baudelaire and Mallarmé

Charles de Foucauld's Reconnaissance au Maroc, 1883-1884 Rosemary A. Peters-Hill, 2020-09-25 Reconnaissance au Maroc is Charles de Foucauld s adventurous account of his Moroccan explorations For eleven months in 1883-84 Foucauld travelled through a country then off limits to Europeans documenting its landscape and charting its waterways He travelled in disguise as a Russian rabbi Joseph Aleman accompanied by the real rabbi Mardochee Aby Serour and sought hospitality in the mellahs Jewish quarters of villages along their route Foucauld meticulously recorded every day of his time in Morocco and by the time his memoir was published in 1888 it had already garnered praise in France and the prestigious gold medal from the Soci t  de G ographie de Paris The book is more than merely a travel memoir however as an artefact of cultural and religious encounter and as a scientific compendium Reconnaissance au Maroc offers an extraordinary glimpse of the late nineteenth century French mentality toward North Africa as well as a cross section of Moroccan society in the pre colonial era Rosemary Peters Hill s volume translates Foucauld s work into English for the first time situating Reconnaissance within the contexts of both late nineteenth century French writing about ailleurs other places and Foucauld s own journey through Morocco the other place where paradoxically he found his true self and calling

Stratified Modernism Sasha Colby, 2009 This book proposes an alternative modernist tradition a line of writers captured by the archaeological project and the poetic possibilities it created This tradition spans from Th ophile Gautier s mid nineteenth century passion for Egyptology to Charles Olson s literal excavations on the Yucatan peninsula in the 1950s With attention to the historical development of archaeology the author argues that the archaeological became a rich site of cultural fantasy a location where modernity s alternatives could be considered imagined and transcribed These models taking their cue from new archaeological dynamics include the ushering of primal intensities into the present the tapping of the subterranean unconscious and the decipherment of an original poetic language Ranging from psychic excavations to the reactivation of political templates the plumbing of the archaeological landscape became a key posture in modernist development which the author pursues through the work of both twentieth century modernists and their nineteenth century substrata Ambitious in scope this book provides a compelling argument about the role of archaeology in the modernist literary imagination and the century long evolution of the poetics of excavation

Memories of War Thomas A. Chambers, 2012-09-24 Even in the midst of the Civil War its battlefields were being dedicated as hallowed ground Today those sites are among the most visited places in the United States In contrast the battlegrounds of the Revolutionary War had seemingly been forgotten in the aftermath of the conflict in which the nation forged its independence Decades after the signing of the Constitution the battlefields of Yorktown Saratoga Fort Moultrie Ticonderoga Guilford Courthouse Kings Mountain and Cowpens among others were unmarked except for crumbling forts and overgrown ramparts Not until the late 1820s did Americans begin to recognize the importance of these places In Memories of War Thomas A Chambers recounts America s rediscovery of its early national history through the rise of battlefield tourism in the first half of the nineteenth century Travelers in this period Chambers finds wanted more than recitations of regimental movements when they visited battlefields they desired experiences that evoked strong emotions and leant meaning to the bleached bones and decaying fortifications of a past age Chambers traces this impulse through efforts to commemorate Braddock s Field and Ticonderoga the cultivated landscapes masking the violent past of the Hudson River valley the overgrown ramparts of Southern war sites and the scenic vistas at War of 1812 battlefields along the Niagara River Describing a progression from neglect to the Romantic embrace of the landscape and then to ritualized remembrance Chambers brings his narrative up to the beginning of the Civil War during and after which the memorialization of such sites became routine assuming significant political and cultural power in the American imagination

Neocolonialism and Built Heritage Daniel E. Coslett,2019-07-02 Architectural relics of nineteenth and twentieth century colonialism dot cityscapes throughout our globalizing world just as built traces of colonialism remain embedded within the urban fabric of many European capitals Neocolonialism and Built Heritage addresses the sustained presence and influence of historic built environments and processes inherited from colonialism within the contemporary lives of cities in Africa Asia and Europe Novel in their focused consideration of ways in which these built environments reinforce neocolonialist connections among former colonies and colonizers states and international organizations the volume s case studies engage highly relevant issues such as historic preservation heritage management tourism toponymy and cultural imperialism Interrogating the life of the past in the present authors thus challenge readers to consider the roles played by a diversity of historic built environments in the ongoing asymmetrical balance of power and unequal distribution capital around the globe They present buildings maintenance management reuse and re interpretation and in so doing they raise important questions the ramifications of which transcend the specifics of the individual sites and architectural histories they present

Memories From A Real World Rich Seibert,2020-12-11 Since the fall of man God had set a time for the final judgment of Satan The endgame is about to begin and Satan s reign on Earth is about to end This is the final move through his son the takeover of earth and the return to Heaven with his armies to conquer and settle the score Meanwhile Christ prepares to bring home his own the saved from eternity past It is now 1994 in the aftermath of a congressional investigation a new agency has replaced the CIA and its director is a man without a past In an area of Queens New York a lodge is destroyed by an unknown source In the aftermath of the destruction five individuals and a missionary woman rescue two brothers in a hospital while in another dimension Satan plans a strategy to remove Christianity from the last bastion on earth the United States of America Working through the man without a past he suspects seven individuals to be part of a conspiracy to undermine his plans outside the predestined path The seven the chosen from the foundations of the earth are Satan s main target Who are these seven Are they soldiers of Christ the many who are saved to pave the way for the Savior s return The man without a past will he set in motion the events that will lead to the Rapture Imagine in an alternate time and history what is to happen for it is a warning of what is to come Read on find out and claim the promise before Christ returns Foreign Bodies Madeleine Dobie, 2001

Building on the critical foundations established by Edward Said in Orientalism Foreign Bodies examines the relationship between the Orientalist tradition in French art and literature and France's colonial history It focuses on a central dimension of this exchange the prevalent figure of the oriental woman and the interplay of race and gender in both domestic and colonial history It also offers a genealogy of contemporary French attitudes to Islamic culture in which beliefs about sexuality and gender relations continue to occupy a privileged place The author examines the extent to which the rhetorical status and political implications of Orientalism register the changing circumstances of French colonial activity tracing the convergence or divergence of colonial practice and the literary record She also argues against the tendency in both historical and theoretical writing on colonialism to divide center from margins metropolitan from colonial Instead she shows how colonial products and ideas permeated the domestic culture and shaped its evolution Finally the book proposes that the feminine figures of Orientalist texts are often interwoven with representations of language and more specifically with representations of language as an alien and resistant code something other than the transparent medium of ideas It suggests that in promoting awareness that language is not simply the neutral medium of thought and experience these veiled figures of language function as foreign bodies creating disruptive effects within an economy orchestrated toward the production of knowledge of the other However the book also argues against the view espoused by certain critics that the self reflexivity of Orientalist writing fully counteracts its polarizing political effects arguing instead for a process of double reading that acknowledges both the geopolitical power encoded within Orientalist representation and the ways in which specific texts resist this power

Selected Works of Theophile Gautier Theophile Gautier, Brother you ask me if I have ever loved Yes My story is a strange and terrible one and though I am sixty six years of age I scarcely dare even now to disturb the ashes of that memory To you I can refuse nothing but I should not relate such a tale to any less experienced mind So strange were the circumstances of my story that I can scarcely believe myself to have ever actually been a party to them For more than three years I remained the victim of a most singular and diabolical illusion Poor country priest though I was I led every night in a dream would to God it had been all a dream a most worldly life a damning¹ life a life of a Sardanapalus One single look too freely cast upon a woman well nigh caused me to lose my soul but finally by the grace of God and the assistance of my patron saint I succeeded in casting out the evil spirit that possessed me My daily life was long interwoven with a nocturnal life of a totally different character By day I was a priest of the Lord occupied with prayer and sacred things by night from the instant that I closed my eyes I became a young nobleman a fine connoisseur in women dogs and horses gambling drinking and blaspheming and when I awoke at early daybreak it seemed to me on the other hand that I had been sleeping and had only dreamed that I was a priest Of this somnambulistic life there now remains to me only the recollection of certain scenes and words which I cannot banish from my memory but although I never actually left the walls of my presbytery one would think to hear me speak that I were a man who weary of all worldly pleasures had become a religious seeking to end a tempestuous life in the service of God rather than an humble seminarist who has grown old in this obscure curacy situated in the depths of the woods and even isolated from the life of the century Yes I have loved as none in the world ever loved with an insensate and furious passion so violent that I am astonished it did not cause my heart to burst asunder Ah what nights what nights From my earliest childhood I had felt a vocation to the priesthood so that all my studies were directed with that idea in view Up to the age of twenty four my life had been only a prolonged novitiate Having completed my course of theology I successively received all the minor orders and my superiors judged me worthy despite my youth to pass the last awful degree My ordination was fixed for Easter week I had never gone into the world My world was confined by the walls of the college and the seminary I knew in a vague sort of a way that there was something called Woman but I never permitted my thoughts to dwell on such a subject and I lived in a state of perfect innocence Twice a year only I saw my infirm and aged mother and in those visits were comprised my sole relations with the outer world I regretted nothing I felt not the least hesitation at taking the last irrevocable step I was filled with joy and impatience Never did a betrothed lover count the slow hours with more feverish ardor I slept only to dream that I was saying mass I believed there could be nothing in the world more delightful than to be a priest I would have refused to be a king or a poet in preference My ambition could conceive of no loftier aim I tell you this in order to show you that what happened to me could not have happened in the natural order of things and to enable you to understand that I was the victim of an inexplicable fascination At last the great day came I walked to the church with a step so light that I fancied myself sustained in air or that I had wings upon my shoulders I believed myself an angel and wondered at the somber and thoughtful faces of my companions for there were several of us I had passed all the night in prayer and was in a condition well nigh bordering on ecstasy The bishop a venerable old man seemed to me God the Father leaning over his Eternity and I beheld Heaven through the vault of the temple Obelisk
