process the difficulties of choosing a child and being chosen and the happiness and shock of finally bringing that child home A candid compelling and inspirational book about what it means to be a parent of a child that isn't biologically your own Whether you have no children have been through IVF fostered adopted or borne biological children this stunning work and all account of the yearning to parent is a must read Powell's experiences told with such particular and often heart-rending hilarity speak to the universal questions we all ask of our parents partners friends and ultimately of ourselves Cate Blanchett

Good Housekeeping, 1929 Sex Education Deborah Shaw, Rob Stone, 2025-03-20 This collection maps the origins of the Netflix series Sex Education in relation to the genre of teenage high school dramas and comedies exploring the four season narrative arc and analysing the principal themes and characters The Netflix series Sex Education has been a standout critical and popular success and has featured among Netflix's most watched content in 190 countries throughout its 4 seasons Its fresh and exciting portrayals of teenagers and their friendships relationships identities and sexualities demand new frameworks for understanding gender and genre as well as the dynamics of streaming and interaction with the audience This collection considers the aesthetics of the series and its main philosophical ethical and political aspects It investigates the creative process behind the ground and taboo breaking series examining it as a cultural product that is both old and new in that it relies on tried and tested generic formulae while also being responsive to new identity formations Not My Shame

Martina Zangger, 2025-08-26 A testament to the power of female courage and strength this intensely personal memoir reveals how one woman confronted her dark past and broke free from lifelong trauma bonds Not content with only healing herself author Martina Zangger has dedicated her life to helping other sexual assault survivors as they navigate both their healing journeys and the complexities of the criminal justice system Her frankness in narrating her startling life choices displays the potency of shedding shame and the freedom that follows Sexually abused by her grandfather and uncle as a small child Martina's early years became the foundation for a life of struggles and wrong turns Like many victim survivors Martina kept her trauma a secret a suppression that led her into sex work and ultimately into the grip of the notorious cult of the Indian guru Rajneesh For decades Martina believed she was a magnet for abusers that the sexual violence she endured was somehow her fault But healing has allowed Martina to bravely face the tragedies she once buried and to place the blame where it belongs No longer silenced by shame Martina's greatest discovery is that love doesn't have to be dangerous that it can be respectful and kind instead This is her story and it is a story of hope for all survivors My Mother's Sabbath Days

Chaim Grade, 1997-05-01 This tender and moving memoir by the great Yiddish writer Chaim Grade takes us to the very source of his widely praised novels and poems the city of Vilna the Jerusalem of Lithuania during the years before World War II Centered on the figure of Grade's mother Vella simple pious hard working this is a richly detailed account of the ghetto of his youth of the lives of the rabbis the wives the tradesmen the peddlers and the scholars We see Vella desperate after losing her husband become a fruit peddler struggling to survive poverty and to remain true to her faith in the face of human pettiness and cruelty We follow Grade as he walks in the footsteps of his scholar father a champion of enlightenment we see him entering marriage and his mother finding some peace of mind in a marriage of her own all of this in a world recalled with extraordinary physical and emotional intensity Then World War II The partition of Poland between the Soviet Union and Germany is followed by the new German invasion of June 1941 Grade believing as do so many others that the Nazis pose a danger chiefly to able bodied men like himself flees into Russia In his travels on foot and by train he meets a fascinating kaleidoscopic array of characters the disillusioned Communist Lev Kogan the durachok or simpleton a young prisoner who mistaken for a German spy is shot when he jumps from a train the once prosperous lawyer Orenstein who virtually becomes a beggar dies and is buried by strangers in a remote Central Asian village With the war s end Grade returns to Vilna to find the ghetto in ruins to learn that his wife and his mother have gone to their deaths and he is left with nothing but memories But it is here amid the devastation of a people that he finds the compulsion and the passion to commit to paper the world that has been lost

Marginalized Mothers, Mothering from the Margins Tiffany Taylor,Katrina Bloch,2018-10-08 This volume examines the barriers and borders that marginalize mothers and their efforts to be good mothers and how they mother as a form of resistance to these barriers and borders

Ghost Stories Morgana Best,2020-04-14 When Laurel s mother Thelma hosts a group of writers in the belief they are writing about the Holy Ghost she is horrified to find they are in fact writing ghost stories Thelma decides to go on a road trip Her GPS cannot get her there so she hires an escort to show her the way This turns out to be a grave mistake Things are at rock bottom when the escort s naked body is found in Thelma s bedroom Will Laurel be able to steer the police in the right direction before they arrest her mother Or will she come to a dead end Ghost Stories is Book 4 in the USA Today Bestselling paranormal cozy mystery series Witch Wood Funeral home

Mourn Not Your Dead Deborah Crombie,2010-08-24 In this superb and engaging mystery from award winning author Deborah Crombie a powerful policeman is found brutally murdered in his kitchen just outside of London and Scotland Yard detectives Duncan Kincaid and Gemma James are called in to solve the most troubling case either of them has ever encountered Few in suburban Surrey mourn the violent passing of Division Commander Alastair Gilbert whose arrogance and cruelty were legendary in his village and in wider police circles which only makes the job of Scotland Yard investigators Superintendent Duncan Kincaid and Sergeant Gemma James more difficult And as every discovery reveals another instance of misplaced trust festering secrets and murderous rage they must put aside their own personal feelings for the victim and for each other in the name of justice and the law

Mother of Invention: How Our Mothers Influenced Us as Feminist Academics and Activists Vanessa Reimer,2013-06-01 Mother of Invention How Our Mothers Influenced Us As Feminist Academics and Activists is an interdisciplinary collection that combines feminist theory with life writing to explore the diverse ways that mothers whether or not they themselves identify as feminist inspire feminist consciousness in their daughters and sons It features creative and scholarly contributions from feminist academics activists writers and artists from different educational backgrounds places and walks of life While not an exclusive celebration of maternal relations this collection provides an antidote to matrophobia and mother blaming by critically exploring and affirming the myriad of challenges and complexities that constitute motherwork It explores how the mothering of feminist daughters and sons intersects with issues of gender sexuality disability ethnicity racialization citizenship religion economic class education and socio historical location Collectively these essays explore the centrality of intergenerational matrilineal narratives in shaping feminist consciousness they deconstruct dominant ideologies of patriarchal motherhood and womanhood and they challenge the notion that there is a formulaic way to raise feminist daughters and sons or a singular correct way to engage in feminist maternal practice

Destination: Unknown Joey Paul, 2016-07-09 Harriet has a complicated life She cares for her chronically ill Mum while trying to juggle school and a social life She's tired overworked and underpaid Yet one day she sees what she thinks is a ghost but ghosts don't exist do they And they especially don't help you travel in time right Now Harriet has a murder to solve all the while trying to make sure no one finds out about the secret behind that stone in her back garden The Secret

Cemetery Doris Francis, Leonie Kellaher, Georgina Neophytou, 2020-07-12 Burial sites have long been recognized as a way to understand past civilizations Yet the meanings of our present day cemeteries have been virtually ignored even though they reveal much about our cultures Exploring an extraordinarily diverse range of memorial practice Greek Orthodox Muslim Jewish Roman Catholic and Anglican as well as the unchurched The Secret Cemetery is an intriguing study of what these places of death mean to the living Most of us experience cemeteries at a ritualized moment of loss What we forget is that these are often places to which we return either as a general space in which to contemplate or as a specific site to be tended These are also places where different communities can reinforce boundaries and even recreate a sense of homeland Over time ritual artefact and place shape an intensely personal landscape of memory and mourning a landscape more alive more actively engaged with than many of the other places we inhabit Making Modern Mothers Heather Paxson, 2004-02-12

Publisher Description The Work/life Collision Barbara Pocock, 2003 Longer working hours insecure jobs child care declining birth rates parental leave the mummy track the success or failure of feminism the levels of passion vitriol despair and guilt these subjects engender attest to the importance Australians place on them and rightly so Their effects go beyond how we feel they affect vital economic and demographic trends The Work Life Collision grounded in thorough quantitative and qualitative research analyses how these factors affect each other in particular the collision of work and care and its implications for how we live Pocock demonstrates how the existing work care regime that shapes how we live and work has high social costs for mothers fathers families and those who want to be both workers and carers She weighs the hidden costs of how we live and work now costs that can be measured in bedrooms kitchens workplaces and streetscapes and in our declining birth rate and embedded gender inequality The Work Life Collision goes further than just explaining our growing anxiety about quality of life despite the evidence of unmatched material wealth Pocock proposes ways in which a new work care regime can be built through the redistribution of working hours the rehabilitation of degraded and insecure part time jobs a new system of leave from paid work and better support for mothers fathers and all kinds of dependants She guides us through the real experiences of Australian households and points to a uniquely Australian solution to a fairer world
