Not Even A Thread When A Rapist Repents:

The Diary Arthur L. Lindsay, 2010-10-29 BECAUSE IT WAS A TRAGEDY THAT CAME AT THE END OF WORLD WAR TWO the infamous Black March conducted by the German regime against Prisoners of War has been largely ignored by history Nonetheless during 87 torturous days in the blizzard like frozen days of winter 1945 beginning from Stalag IV in western Poland 8 000 American and British airmen were forced to march as much as 40 miles a day across northern Germany They were not supplied with proper clothing sanitation water or food Night after weary night they slept on the frozen ground in open fields or crowded into ramshackle barns Those who died along the way were left behind on the side of the road never with the dignity of a burial Sergeant James B Lindsay of Kokomo Indiana was one of the survivors Under the very noses of the German guards he maintained a daily diary of his experience More than that his miraculous fall from the sky when his 9 other crewmates perished in a mid air collision is breathtakingly exciting Then to have survived that tragedy only to be betrayed by Italian farmers and sold into the hands of the Germans was the start of his thousand mile journey to incarceration in Poland
