Not In Front Of The Servants:

Not in Front of the Servants Frank Victor Dawes, 2005 This book details the lives of the servants in large British houses during the 19th and the 20th centuries Over 250 former domestic servants contributed their reminiscences and anecdotes of life in service

Domestic Service and the Formation of European Identity Antoinette Fauve-Chamoux, 2004 Before the Servant Project began its activities on the initiative of the editor of this book the long term history of domestic service was still in its beginning stage This volume is the first wide ranging attempt to determine the role of domestic workers both in past and present times Domestic service was of major importance in the multi secular process of urbanization and socio economic development of European societies Today domestic workers mainly women represent an important component of international labour migrations to Western countries Instead of disappearing as expected for a long time paid domestic work is currently experiencing a kind of resurgence The contributions assembled in this volume analyze the situation of domestic workers and contribute to improve knowledge concerning their individual characteristics gender ethnic group religion origin motivation and cultural identity relationship with their own families and those of the employers Further topics are connections with the home country and place of destination legal status rights and duties in order to understand the current globalization of domestic work

The Country House Servant Pamela A Sambrook, 2002-05-13 One 19th century footman complained about the work involved in drawing more than 40 baths for his household yet Lady Grenville felt no compunction in describing her footman as a lazy flunkey For centuries a large body of domestic servants was an often unappreciated foundation for the smooth running of a household Today the warrens of domestic offices intrigue visitors This book makes sense of these and the social structures behind them It describes the skills equipment cleaning methods and work organization of the housemaid laundrymaid footman valet and hall boy the servants who spent their days polishing fine furniture and washing brilliant chandeliers but also sponging filthy riding habits and washing babies nappies The author also looks at how servants spent their leisure time One footman enjoyed rowing on the lake every morning before work while others had to sit up late at night sewing their own work dresses Contemporary manuals diaries accounts and first hand recollections provide a vivid insight into what life was really like for those in domestic service A wealth of photographs engravings and panels illustrate the domestic workings of country houses many now looked after by the National Trust This is an absorbing book for social historians and visitors to country houses alike end of the Parliament with a comprehensive change programme for Whitehall with a timetable to be implemented over the lifetime of the next Parliament The Report considers the increased tensions between ministers and officials which have become widely reported and places the problems in Whitehall in a wider context of a Civil Service built on the Northcote Trevelyan settlement established in 1853 and the Haldane principles of ministerial accountability set out in 1919 The government's Civil Service Reform Plan lacks strategic coherence and clear leadership from a united team of ministers and officials The Northcote Trevelyan Civil Service remains the most effective way of supporting the democratically elected Government and future administrations in the UK Divided leadership and confused accountabilities in Whitehall have led to problems a low level of engagement amongst civil servants in some departments and agencies and a general lack of trust and openness the Civil Service exhibits the key characteristics of a failing organisation with the leadership are in denial about the scale of the challenge they face There is a persistent lack of key skills and capabilities across Whitehall and an unacceptably high level of churn of lead officials which is incompatible with good government

Not in Front of the Servants Frank Victor Dawes, 1974 Speaking Truth to Canadians about Their Public Service Donald J. Savoie, 2024-09-10 The federal public service plays a vital role in Canada's development by helping to shape public policies and deliver programs and services to Canadians Speaking Truth to Canadians about Their Public Service provides a comprehensive review of the challenges confronting the public service how the relationship between politicians and career officials has evolved in recent years and what motivates public servants Donald Savoie calls on Canadians and their politicians to consider what they want from their federal public service Answering this question requires a fresh look at the government's traditional accountability requirements how policies are shaped and how government programs and services are delivered It also requires a review of ambitious modernization and reform measures launched over the past forty years to make the public service more accommodating to political direction and to improve program delivery Dividing federal public servants into two groups poets those who write policy and plumbers those who deliver programs and services the book establishes who has the upper hand This division sheds new light on the theories that seek to explain the attitudes and behaviours of career government officials Amid increasingly strong signs that the public service is in need of a reset Speaking Truth to Canadians about Their Public Service concludes with practical recommendations to assist Canadians and their politicians in defining what they want their public service to be
