Not In My Valley:

Water Logic Laurie J. Marks, 2007-06-01 The Elemental Logic series continues with its third novel in the series Water Logic where the patterns of history are made and unmade Laurie Marks Elemental Logic series introduced readers in Fire Logic to the realm of Shaftal an intricately imagined land whose people operate within the boundaries of their basic natures here defined as logics which sometimes bequeath them with access to magical elemental powers and sometimes embroil them in unsolvable internal conflicts Readers will discover inside Water Logic that amid assassinations rebellions and the pyres of too many dead a new government has formed in Shaftal a government of soldiers and farmers scholars and elemental talents all weary of war and longing for peace But some cannot forget their losses and some cannot imagine a place for themselves in an enemy land Before memory before recorded history something happened that now must be remembered Zanja na Tarwein the crosser of boundaries born in fire and wedded to earth has fallen under the ice Now by water logic the logic of patterns repeated of laughter and music the lost must be found or the found may forever be lost

Stages of Conflict Diana Taylor, Sarah J. Townsend, 2008 This fascinating anthology reveals the rich performance history of Latin America from the sixteenth century to the present The Shadow Hunter Pat Murphy, 2014-04-15 A time travel adventure from the Nebula Award winning author Murphy's blend of fantasy and reality honorably recalls the novels of Margaret Atwood Publishers Weekly For generations the people of the valley have hunted the bear killing it to draw on its mystical power On his first hunt a young member of the tribe pursues the bear through the wilderness Moments before their battle begins the boy plunges into darkness and awakes in a world beyond his wildest imagination where nature is corrupted and the boundaries of time mean nothing at all The researchers who brought him into the future call the Neanderthal boy Sam The portal he fell through is the plaything of a billionaire intent on repopulating the world of its many extinct animals birds wolves and bears Sam was brought along by accident but he will find a purpose in these alien surroundings Guided by one woman who can see the past and another who can look into the future the boy who hunted the bear will unlock the mysteries of time itself The Dawning Dawn S. Smith, 2000-12 After the celebrated arrival of Cries of A Young Girl Dawn S. Smith returns with her latest work the dawning While maintaining the candid expressiveness of her earlier works Dawn supplies the valuable wisdom synonymous with growing older Opening with the playful section freestylin Dawn whisks you to the most happening of juke joints with merry marvels like just that bad lovers bend The artist's tribute to musical legend Ella Fitzgerald Once the joint has closed for the night Dawn curiously wanders into from whence we came where she celebrates the plight of those who struggle just to be Bear witness to the once secret occurrences seen felt with sobering poems such as the slap before that in the pen doing ten From these painful memories and observances together we march triumphantly into and there was light the final trimester of this collection The reader is inspired by the testimonies commentaries and anointed poetics such as eagle in the hope A culmination of a lifetime of experiences compacted into a young woman's soul Dawn invites you to take a glimpse at her journey Perhaps you will find pieces of yourself and your own dawning Tales of the Hanging Valleys Sharr Riya, 101-01-01 Tales of the Hanging Valleys explores the fascinating geological formations known as hanging valleys where smaller valleys are perched high above larger ones created by glacial activity during the Ice Age The book presents these valleys as living entities each with its own first person narrative that brings their unique histories personalities and landscapes to life Through captivating stories the book takes readers to iconic locations like Yosemite Valley Lauterbrunnen Valley and Cirque de Gavarnie where the valleys share their geological origins cultural significance and connections to the people who have lived in or near them The valleys dramatic features such as steep cliffs and waterfalls serve as powerful backdrops for tales of natural forces and human interaction This journey through these stunning landscapes invites readers to connect personally with the natural world and appreciate its beauty grandeur and the intricate relationship between humans and nature You Are Still a Mother Jackie Gibson, 2023-10-09 When you lose your baby to stillbirth or miscarriage it feels like the ground has fallen out from underneath you Speaking from experience Jackie Gibson reaches out offering the only balm that will bring comfort to your pain Visual Encounters in the Study of Rural Childhoods April Mandrona, Claudia Mitchell, 2018-07-02 Visual Encounters in the Study of Rural Childhoods brings together visual studies and childhood studies to explore images of childhood in the study of rurality and rural life The volume highlights how the voices of children themselves remain central to investigations of rural childhoods Contributions look at representations and experiences of rural childhoods from both the Global North and Global South including U S Canada Haiti India Sweden Slovenia South Africa Russia Timor Leste and Colombia and consider visuals ranging from picture books to cell phone video to television Britten, Opera and Film Peter Auker, Pianist Piano Teacher and Examiner Founder Trustee of the Stephen Sondheim Society Peter Auker, 2025-01-14 Investigates cinematic qualities in opera and reveals why Benjamin Britten's operas lend themselves to TV and film interpretations Benjamin Britten's 1954 opera The Turn of the Screw based on Henry James's ghost story has been described by many critics and commentators as cinematic Along with Peter Grimes The Turn of the Screw is one of the most frequently televised or filmed of Britten's operas Some of these productions have used location footage and or studio work and others are based on theatrical settings This book explores the notion of cinematic opera in the context of The Turn of the Screw and filmed opera in general and questions what inherent cinematic qualities exist in the work which make it particularly conducive for screen interpretation an aspect of Britten's compositional style which has rarely been examined in detail before Contrary to the prevailing narrative around Britten's disdain for cinema and television the composer engaged with film as both a cinemagoer and film music composer early in his career and these experiences informed his compositional and dramatic choices Archival research reveals clues to the composer's adaptation process By tracing the progress from Henry James's original novella to operatic stage and screen production via the development of Myfanwy Piper's libretto and Britten's score the journey of adaptation is discussed in detail A key part of the book looks at the subsequent interpretation of the opera on screen Case studies evaluate eight directors interpretations of the opera ranging from 1959 up to the 2020s Included is a special study of Peter Morley s 1959 ITV version which had previously been thought lost This reveals the roots of Britten s subsequent engagement with screen media culminating in his television opera Owen Wingrave The book also briefly explores the influence of cinema on stage productions of the opera which have not been filmed
