Not Made Of Glass Poems 1968 1988:

Not Made of Glass Lyn Lifshin, Mary Ann Lynch, 1989-01-01      Critical Survey of Poetry Philip K. Jason, 2003 Presents alphabetized profiles of nearly seven hundred significant poets from around the world providing biographies primary and secondary bibliographies and analysis of their works      Contemporary Jewish-American Dramatists and Poets Joel Shatzky, Michael Taub, 1999-08-30 Entries summarize the life work and critical reception of contemporary Jewish American dramatists and poets      The Writer's Directory, 1998-2000 Miranda H. Ferrara, 1995 Information on more than 17 500 living authors from English speaking countries      Philip Larkin James Booth, 2014-08-28 _____ Superb Booth s psychology is subtler than Motion s and more convincing Peter J Conradi Spectator Booth s diligence is unquestionable and even readers who think they know the poems will see nuances they had previously missed should render further attention by biographers superfluous for several years Guardian Those of us who never warmed to Larkin the man or poet will have our aversions challenged by this sympathetic but different account of his life and work Independent _____ A fascinating and controversial study of Philip Larkin s world and how it bled into his work James Booth s biography is a unique insight into the man whose life and art have been misunderstood for too long Philip Larkin was that rare thing among poets a household name in his own lifetime Lines such as Never such innocence again and Sexual intercourse began In nineteen sixty three made him one of the most popular poets of the last century Larkin s reputation as a man however has been more controversial A solitary librarian known for his pessimism he disliked exposure and had no patience with the literary circus And when in 1992 the publication of his Selected Letters laid bare his compartmentalised personal life accusations of duplicity faithlessness racism and misogyny were levelled against him There is of course no requirement that poets should be likeable or virtuous but James Booth asks whether art and life were really so deeply at odds with each other Can the poet who composed the moving Love Songs in Age have been such a cold hearted man Can he who uttered the playful self deprecating words Deprivation is for me what daffodils were for Wordsworth really have been so boorish A very different public image is offered by those who shared the poet s life the women with whom he was romantically involved his friends and his university colleagues It is with their personal testimony including access to previously unseen letters that Booth reinstates a man misunderstood not a gaunt emotional failure but a witty provocative and entertaining presence delightful company an attentive son and a man devoted to the women he loved Meticulously researched unwaveringly frank and full of fresh material Philip Larkin Life Art and Love definitively reinterprets one of our greatest poets      Monstrous Liminality Robert G. Beghetto, 2022-01-24 This book examines the transformation of the figure of the stranger in the literature of the modern age in terms of liminality As a spectral monster that has a paradoxical and liminal relationship to both the sacred and the secular the figure of the modern stranger has played a role in both adapting and shaping a culturally determined understanding of the self and the other With the advent of modernity the stranger the monster and the spectre became interconnected Haunting the edges of reason while also being absorbed into normal society all three together with the cyborg manifest the vulnerability of an age that is fearful of the return of the repressed Yet these figures can also become re appropriated as positive symbols able to navigate between the dangerous and chaotic elements that threaten society while serving as precarious and ironic symbols of hope or sustainability The book shows the explanatory potential of focusing on the resacralizing in a paradoxical and liminal manner of traditionally sacred concepts such as messianic time and the utopian and the conflicts that emerged as a result of secularized modernity s denial of its own hybridization This approach to modern literature shows how the modern stranger a figure that is both paradoxically immersed and removed from society deals with the dangers of failing to be re assimilated into mainstream society and is caught in a fixed or permanent state of liminality a state that can ultimately lead to boredom alienation nihilism and failure These monstrous aspects of liminality can also be rewarding in that traversing difficult and paradoxical avenues they confront both traditional and contemporary viewpoints enabling new and fresh perspectives suspended between imagination and reality past and future nature and artificial In many ways the modern stranger as a figure of literature and the cultural imagination has become more complicated and challenging in the post modern contemporary age both clashing with and encompassing people who go beyond simply the psychological or even spiritual inability to blend in and out of society However while the stranger may be altering once again the defining or essentializing the figure could result in the creation of other sets of binaries and thereby dissolve the purpose and productiveness of both strangeness and liminality The intention of Monstrous Liminality is to trace the liminal sphere located between the secular and sacred that has characterized modernity itself This space has consequently altered the makeup of the stranger from something external into a figure far more liminal which is forced to traverse this uncanny space in an attempt to find new meanings for an age that is struggling to maintain any of continuity Shining new light on a series of playful imaginative texts that are left out of the traditional accounts of Greek literature Whitmarsh models a more adventurous exploratory approach to later Greek culture Beyond the Second Sophistic offers not only a new way of looking at Greek literature from 300 BCE onwards but also a challenge to the Eurocentric aristocratic constructions placed on the Greek heritage Accessible and lively it will appeal to students and scholars of Greek literature and culture Hellenistic Judaism world literature and cultural theory New to North America Abby Bogomolny,1997 Abby Bogomolny's collection of moving narratives firsthand testimonials by people who have been excluded from voicing their own experiences document in fiction poetry memoir and essay the crossing of cultural and linguistic borders and the precarious nature of negotiating life in the US It is a necessary addition to the immigrant debate and a must for courses in literature International Studies and Multicultural and Ethnic Studies Contemporary Poets Thomas Riggs,1995 This reference work combines bibliographical biographical and critical information on 900 living poets writing in the English language Entries are arranged alphabetically and this edition includes 120 new entrants including Wendy Cope Benjamin Zephaniah and Rachel McAlpine Beyond Lament Marguerite M.
