The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2006 Burnt Offerings Rabbi David H. Chanofsky, 2012-05-31 Coincidence can color our experiences in ways that cannot be predicted When the ordinary becomes the extraordinary it transforms commonplace happenings and gives them new significance and wonder For half a century Rabbi David H Chanofsky has witnessed these transformative miracles and here he shares some of his favorite memories and lessons He shares tales from his years of fighting anti-Semitism in America and of his efforts to defend the rights of Jews everywhere Through the prism of humor and pathos as they relate to Jewish life his experiences seek to inspire thought laughter tears and debate Is there such a thing as conservative and reform Judaism How does Judaism view intermarriage Why do so many people feel alone in a crowded synagogue Is there a solution What happens when religion and politics intersect in Israel Who are your Jewish superheroes The rabbi's early experiences gave him a lifelong commitment to Jewish survival and a zealous love of the United States Judaism is central to his insights and he approaches these issues with strong often controversial points of view that he hopes will challenge your perceptions
