Not So Perfect Man:

The Not-So-Perfect Man Valerie Frankel, 2009-10-13 As far as her family and friends are concerned Frieda has been the grieving widow for long enough At 35 she s still relatively young still adequately attractive Her sex drive is very much alive even Frieda admits she d like to put it to use again Besides she has a son who certainly needs a father figure With visions of the perfect second husband in mind Frieda s sisters start to send eligible males in her direction Big sister Ilene herself substantially married has found the ultimate unattached catch a gorgeous independently wealthy successful divorced father pillar of society and paragon of potential What more could a single mom ask for Apparently a lot more than loved ones realize Frieda s own efforts bear very tasty fruit Sam is young talented devoted and incredibly sexy though broke only sporadically employed and clueless about kids But he makes Frieda feel brand spanking new in a most wonderfully wanton way When all is said and done does Frieda really need the perfect man or the far from ideal man who s perfect for her

Dispatches from a Not-So-Perfect Life Faulkner Fox, 2007-12-18 When Salon com published Faulkner Fox s article on motherhood What I Learned from Losing My Mind the response was so overwhelming that Salon reran the piece twice The experience made Faulkner realize that she was not alone that the country is full of women who are anxious and conflicted about their roles as mothers and wives In Dispatches from a Not So Perfect Life her provocative brutally honest and often hilarious memoir of motherhood Faulkner explores the causes of her unhappiness as well as the societal and cultural forces that American mothers have to contend with From the time of her first pregnancy Faulkner found herself and her body scrutinized by doctors friends strangers and perhaps most of all herself In addition to the significant social pressures of raising the perfect child and being the perfect mom Faulkner also found herself increasingly incensed by the unequal distribution of household labor and infuriated by the gender inequity in both her home and others And though she loves her children and her husband passionately is thankful for her bountiful middle class life and feels wracked with guilt for being unhappy she just can t seem to experience the sense of satisfaction that she thought would come with the package She s finally got it all the husband the house the kids an interesting part time job even a few hours a week to write so why does she feel so conflicted Faulkner sheds light on the fear confusion and isolation experienced by many new mothers mapping the terrain of contemporary domesticity marriage and motherhood in a voice that is candid irreverent and deeply personal while always chronicling the unparalleled joy she and other mothers take in their children
