The Palestinian National Movement in Lebanon Erling Lorentzen Sogge, 2021-05-20 Hosting over 30 000 inhabitants and governed by competing militias Ayn al Hilwe in the south of Lebanon is one of the most contested refugee camps in the Middle East Known as the Capital of the Palestinian Diaspora the camp has endured a long history of internal power struggles and external influence and intervention Based on extensive ethnographic research in the camp focused on the actors who have shaped its modern political trajectory since the rupture caused by the 1993 Oslo Accords The Palestinian National Movement in Lebanon places the attention on the role of exile leaderships camp based militia commanders and shape shifting networks of patronage in the political landscape of the Palestinian movement in Lebanon Offering original empirical and theoretical findings this book will be essential reading for students of the Palestinian movement and refugee politics in the Middle East and beyond Politics, Culture and the Lebanese Diaspora Nathalie Nahas,Paul

Tabar,2010-07-12 This book is a collection of essays that were originally presented at a conference at the Lebanese American University in late May 2007 entitled Politics Culture and the Lebanese Diaspora It looks at various facets of the Lebanese Diaspora and examines the politics and culture of Lebanese migrants and their descendants in different parts of the world while detailing the communal national and transnational elements of these practices and exploring the changing characteristics of politics and culture in respect to migration Diaspora and globalization The essays raise questions about the in compatible and interpenetrating relationships between these dynamics and analyze processes of identity formation as cultural manifestations of migratory politics The book is divided into three main sections The first section deals with issues of identity and multiculturalism among Lebanese emigrants concluding that identities are continuously molded and negotiated in the diaspora It examines the formation of identities among second and third generation migrants and the changing conceptions of the meaning of roots and homelands The second section deals with politics and activism in the Diaspora It looks at how diasporas relate to the political processes in their homelands during post conflict resolution and explores the role of Lebanese migrants abroad in the process of peace building back home The third part deals with the Diaspora in literature and media through the assessment of key writings on the explorations of self of the Lebanese abroad drawing on how symbols of identification and conventions of representation become sites of conflict over time The wide variety of perspectives presented in these papers invite us to challenge the notion of a fixed bounded and rigid homeland and identity and move towards one that is more nomadic and fluid They call us to pay attention to the symbols used in the cultural construction of both homelands and identities in the country of immigration and to think of the complex ways in which transnational politics affect the homeland and are in turn affected by it Paradoxical Citizenship Silvia

Nagy-Zekmi,2008-01-01 In a collection of intriguing essays on the work of Edward Said internationally recognized scholars pay homage to the late critic by addressing many aspects of his oeuvre including his breakthrough Orientalism the role of the intellectual the Question of Palestine and finally his dramatic memoir Out of Place This volume is a useful contribution for classroom use as well as recreational reading for those interested in the work of this controversial thinker Politics and

War in Lebanon Mordechai Nisan,2015-05-31 Lebanon is an exceptionally misunderstood country its religious politics are typically misrepresented and denigrated in Western political commentary Politics and War in Lebanon offers a lucid examination of Lebanese society and politics Mordechai Nisan examines Lebanon in its own terms on its own cultural turf He then points to the causes of political disintegration in 1975 and explores the capacity of Lebanon to recover and retain its unique national poise Avoiding disorienting Western stereotypes Nisan presents Lebanon in its own native frame of reference as a multi ethnic country that operates according to its immutable and enigmatic political forms Lebanon is different from other Arab countries as demonstrated through its very complex electoral system its tradition of cross elite cooperation and its special sense of Lebanese national identity that differentiates it from its overbearing Syrian neighbor Nisan explores intra Maronite Christian feuds identifies Syria's occupation strategy analyzes the violence of the Palestinians and studies Israel's failed policy strategy and the role of Hezbollah in the Lebanese power equation Lebanon is caught between its special historical identity as a country of poise creativity and liberty and the interminable warfare in the streets and villages of the country Although its future appears dim its resilience enabled it to prevail in the past and may yet continue to do so
