The Works of Aurelius Augustine Saint Augustine (of Hippo), 1872 Meaning Without Truth Stefano Predelli, 2013-07-11 In this book the author presents an account of the relationships between the central semantic notions of meaning and truth

Powers of Distinction Nancy Levene, 2017-12-06 In this major new work philosopher of religion Nancy Levene examines the elemental character of religion and modernity Deep in their operating systems she argues are dualisms of opposition and identity that cannot be reconciled with the forms of life they ostensibly support These dualisms are dead ends but they conceal a richer position another kind of dualism constitutive of mutual relation This dualism is difficult to distinguish and its concept of relation difficult to commit to It risks contention and even violence But it is also the indispensable support for modernity's most innovative ideals: democracy, criticism, and interpretation. In readings from Abraham to the present, Levene recovers this richer dualism in its difference from the alternatives: other dualisms, nondualism, multiplication. From Abraham we get the biblical call to give up tribal belonging for a promised land of covenantal relation. Yet modernity, inclusive of this call, is also the principle that critiques the promise when it divides self from other, us from them. Drawing on a long tradition of thinkers and scholars, even as she breaks new ground, Levene offers here nothing less than a new way of understanding modernity as an ethical claim about our world, a philosophy of the powers of distinction to include rather than to divide.

Truity Abram Allen, 2013-09-16 From the truths of nature, man reasons his truths, the sum of which is TRUITY. Truity creates, all sustains, all and accounts for all. The Adversity of Diversity Law and Truity's Trinity: subject, function, and object ground all grammar, reinforce every language, and accommodate all reason. Truity reveals the fundamental law: no subject possesses truth, as every subject represents truth. Man has yet to learn this basic rule of grammar. To be born in ignorance is understandable; but to stand in ignorance is to insult The Creator.

Emerson as Philosopher Richard Gilmore, 2023-05-31 This book considers the role of postmodernism, skepticism, towards metanarratives, and anti-essentialism in Ralph Waldo Emerson's philosophy by putting it in conversation with key 20th and 21st century thinkers such as Beauvoir, Coates, Derrida, Paz, Rorty, and Žižek. Postmodern Emerson shows how Emersonian skepticism to metanarratives such as sexism, racism, Beauvoirian serious values, and others can help us face some of society's gravest contemporary social and philosophical challenges. Methodologically, the book exemplifies Emersonian postmodernism by defying traditional philosophical metanarratives about the difference between high and low culture, or serious and ridiculous subjects, and Emerson with what would seem to be his opposite. This is itself a postmodern gesture, breaking rules of genre and topic to make unlikely but interesting connections. Above all, this book proves that in this time of social division and widespread despair, Emerson can help.

The Struggles and Triumphs of the Truth James William Lowber, 1889

The Liquefaction of Publicness Slavko Splichal, 2020-04-28 The successful Brexit referendum campaign, Donald Trump's election, and the rise of right-wing nationalist populist political parties and movements: all of these events have incited renewed interest in public communication and the internetised media, deliberative democracy, and public spheres challenged by an informational abundance that generates a communicative liquefaction of publicness and politics. This book celebrates the 25th anniversary of the journal Javnost: The Public, bringing together internationally renowned scholars from 20 countries to discuss topical issues in contemporary media and communication research. It focuses on challenging issues of the changing nature of publicness and the public sphere in the internet age, issues of democracy and the crisis of public communication, and the tasks of media and communication research as a social practice. It critically reflects on the democratisation crisis and the demise of popular and scholarly optimism, which the emerging internet inspired in early 1990s when Javnost: The Public was founded.
