Wallis Budge, 2016-10-11 Excerpt from The Nile Notes for Travellers in Egypt The short descriptions of the principal Egyptian monuments on each side of the Nile between Cairo and Khartoum printed in the following pages are not in any way intended to form a Guide to Egypt They are drawn up for the use of those travellers who have a very few weeks to spend in Egypt and who wish to carry away from that country some of the more important facts connected with the fast perishing remains of one of the most interesting and ancient civilizations that has been developed on the face of the earth The existing guide books are too full and they contain too many details for such travellers Experience has shown that the greater number of travellers in Egypt are more interested in the remains and civilization of the ancient Egyptians than in the history of Egypt under the rule of the Persians Ptolemies Romans Arabs and Turks It is for this reason that no attempt has been made to describe otherwise than in the briefest manner possible its history under these foreign rulers and only such facts connected with them as are absolutely necessary for a right understanding of its monuments have been inserted In addition to such descriptions a few chapters have been added on the history of the country during the rule of the Pharaohs and on its people and their buildings their religion and their methods of writing The lists of hieroglyphic characters and their phonetic values printed on pp 133 139 will it is hoped be useful to those who may wish to spell out the royal names on tombs and temples and the commoner words which occur in the inscriptions About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works     Sacred scenes; or, notes of travel in Egypt and the Holy Land Fergus FERGUSON (Minister of Montrose Street E.U.
