Notes For A New Culture:

Postmodernism and Notions of National Difference Geoffrey Lord, 2024-08-26 Postmodernism and Notions of National Difference examines the critical construction of postmodern fiction raising the question of whether the construction of postmodernism has sufficiently accounted for national difference Geoffrey Lord argues that current meta national conceptions of postmodernism need serious reconsideration to take national cultural contexts into account Through a comparative investigation of the theoretical debate literary traditions and close textual reading of a number of postmodern texts Lord makes a persuasive case for his broad claim that national cultural differences are more persistent and powerful than usually allowed by established theories of postmodernity which claim a general collapse of traditional cultural orders and the meta narratives that justify them

Metamorphosis - Structures of Cultural Transformations Jürgen Schläeger, 2005 The New Cultures of Food Martin K. Hingley, 2016-03-03 Food is an extraordinary expression of culture the assortment of flavours smells colours and appearance match the diversity of the cultures from which they come and provide very visible evidence of the migration of populations and of the growing multiculturalism of many countries Adam Lindgreen and Martin K Hingley draw on research into European Latin American and Near and Far Eastern markets to provide a comprehensive collection of original cutting edge research on the opportunities that the changing landscapes of ethnic religious and cultural populations present for businesses and marketers The New Cultures of Food uses the perspective of food culture to explore the role of food as a social agent and attitudes to new foodstuffs amongst indigenous populations and to indigenous food amongst immigrant communities Opportunities and routes to market for exploiting growing demand for ethnic food are also investigated This is an important book for food and consumer businesses policy makers and researchers seeking to understand changing global markets and the significance of food as an indicator of social and religious attitude diet and ethnic identity
