Palestyna Po Raz Trzeci:

Palestine for the Third Time Ksawery Pruszyński, 2021-03-02 Palestine for the Third Time is a book of reportage originally published in Poland in 1933 by Ksawery Pruszyński a young reporter working for a Polish newspaper who went to Mandate Palestine to see for himself whether the Zionist dream of returning to Eretz Yisrael had a chance of turning into reality Travelling widely and talking to people he happened to meet on his way Jews Arabs committed dreamers and the disaffected he was trying to explain to his readers what he was seeing This book is a unique firsthand account of the early stages in formation of the state and nation of Israel But it is not just a nostalgic vignette It resonates powerfully today linking Tony Judt Edward Said and Amos Oz illuminating the hotly debated questions of modern Israel Palestyna po raz trzeci Ksawery Pruszyński, 1936 Warsaw. The Jewish Metropolis Glenn Dynner, François Guesnet, 2015-04-14 Warsaw was once home to the largest and most diverse Jewish community in the world It was a center of rich varieties of Orthodox Judaism Jewish Socialism Diaspora Nationalism Zionism and Polonization This volume is the first to reflect on the entire history of the Warsaw Jewish community from its inception in the late 18th century to its emergence as a Jewish metropolis within a few generations to its destruction during the German occupation and tentative re emergence in the postwar period The highly original contributions collected here investigate Warsaw Jewry's religious and cultural life press and publications political life and relations with the surrounding Polish society This monumental volume is dedicated to Professor Antony Polonsky chief historian of the new Warsaw Museum for the History of Polish Jews on the occasion of his 75th birthday An Ordinary Life? Anna Müller, 2023-03-07 One woman's national political ethnic social and personal identities impart an extraordinary perspective on the histories of Europe Polish Jews Communism activism and survival during the twentieth century Tonia Lechtman was a Jew a loving mother and wife a Polish patriot a committed Communist and a Holocaust survivor Throughout her life these identities brought her to multiple countries Poland Palestine Spain France Germany Switzerland and Israel during some of the most pivotal and cataclysmic decades of the twentieth century In most of those places she lived on the margins of society while working to promote Communism and trying to create a safe space for her small children Born in 1918 Lechtman became fascinated with Communism in her early youth In 1935 to avoid the consequences of her political activism during an increasingly antisemitic and hostile political environment the family moved to Palestine where Tonia met her future husband Sioma In 1937 the couple traveled to Spain to participate in the Spanish Civil War After discovering she was pregnant Lechtman relocated to France while Sioma joined the International Brigades She spent the Second World War in Europe traveling with two small children between France Germany and Switzerland at times only miraculously avoiding arrest and being transported east to Nazi camps After the war she returned to Poland where she planned to rebuild Communist Poland However soon after her arrival she was imprisoned for six years In 1971 under pressure from her children Lechtman emigrated from Poland to Israel where she died in 1996 In writing Lechtman's biography Anna Müller has consulted a rich collection of primary source material including archival documentation private documents and photographs interviews from different periods of Lechtman s life and personal correspondence Despite this intimacy M ller also acknowledges key historiographical questions arising from the lacunae of lost materials the selective preservation of others and her own interpretive work translating a life into a life story Nietypowe migracje Polaków w XIX-XXI wieku ,2011

An Unchosen People Kenneth B. Moss,2021-12-14 Conventional histories of modern Jewish politics emphasize the agency offered by Zionism liberalism and socialism Kenneth B Moss traces a darker reckoning with powerlessness amid grave dangers in Europe s largest Jewish community recovering a search for realism about minority experience the nation state and the making of a future In-Between Empire Raymond Patton,2024-10-17 Exploring how Polish writers positioned themselves as neither colonized nor colonizers In Between Empire analyses their literary works on empire during the 19th and 20th centuries to explore how they negotiated their in between position in the global imperial hierarchy Leveraging this vantage point they claimed the unique ability to represent the South to the West constructing a Polish national identity in conversation with both imperial and anti imperial currents and influencing international discourse on colonialism and its legacy Written at the nexus of historical and literary studies of imperial and colonial discourse Patton centres Poland and Eastern Europe in debates that have frequently excluded these perspectives Showing how these Polish writers attempted to portray anticolonial solidarity with non European victims of colonialism yet also employed European colonial tropes each writer demonstrated a distinctive ability to identify the tensions and flaws of imperialism whilst simultaneously reconciling those tensions to themselves as exceptional Europeans innocent of colonialism by alternating between metropolitan and peripheral perspectives In doing so they informed transnational discourses and policies on colonialism decolonization the Cold War and beyond Major Changes Within the Jewish People in the Wake of the Holocaust Israel Gutman,1996
