Pamela Wilson The Realist Narrative:

Pamela Wilson Pamela Wilson, Gabriel P. Weisbert, Claire Oliver Fine Arts, 1996 Combating Injustice Jon Falsarella Dawson, 2022-05-04 In Combating Injustice Jon Falsarella Dawson approaches American literary naturalism as a means of social criticism exploring the powerful economic arguments and commentaries on labor struggles presented in novels by Frank Norris Jack London and John Steinbeck Making use of extensive archival research Dawson considers many of the original periodical sources that fueled books from McTeague to The Grapes of Wrath as Norris London and Steinbeck transformed contemporary materials into illustrations of the socioeconomic forces that shape American life By depicting the operations of powerful individuals and institutions these naturalist writers offered audiences a greater awareness of the plight of labor so that readers might find the inspiration to become agents of change Works such as The Octopus The Iron Heel Martin Eden and In Dubious Battle illuminate many of the central economic issues at play in the United States during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries including the rise of commodity culture labor disputes involving industrial and agricultural workers widespread poverty extreme inequality and the concentration of resources and land ownership Norris London and Steinbeck highlighted the dangers of these developments by charting their impact on central characters whose fates result from the predatory tactics of corporate monopolies wealthy individuals and large financial establishments Dawson's lucid analysis shows how all three writers drawing on contemporary events accentuated the need for reform and stressed the potential for change by human action Each author took inspiration from notable events in California ranging from the Mussel Slough tragedy of 1880 to the agricultural strikes in the Central Valley during the 1930s presenting the state as a microcosm for conditions throughout the nation during a period of tremendous upheaval Combating Injustice The Naturalism of Frank Norris Jack London and John Steinbeck provides carefully contextualized readings of three major writers whose works express both the necessity for and the possibility of creating a more egalitarian society REDESIGNING WOMEN Amanda D. Lotz, 2010-10-01 In the 1990s American television audiences witnessed an unprecedented rise in programming devoted explicitly to women Cable networks such as Oxygen Media Women's Entertainment Network and Lifetime targeted a female audience and prime time dramatic series such as Buffy the Vampire Slayer Judging Amy Gilmore Girls Sex and the City and Ally McBeal empowered heroines single career women and professionals struggling with family commitments and occupational demands After establishing this phenomenon's significance Amanda D Lotz explores the audience profile the types of narrative and characters that recur and changes to the industry landscape in the wake of media consolidation and a profusion of channels Employing a cultural studies framework Lotz examines whether the multiplicity of female centric networks and narratives renders certain gender stereotypes uninhabitable and how new dramatic portrayals of women have redefined narrative conventions Redesigning Women also reveals how these changes led to narrowcasting or the targeting of a niche segment of the overall audience and the ways in which the new sophisticated portrayals of women

inspire sympathetic identification while also commodifying viewers into a marketable demographic for advertisers

Unlikely Angel Lydia R. Hamessley, 2020-10-12 Dolly Parton's success as a performer and pop culture phenomenon has overshadowed her achievements as a songwriter. But she sees herself as a songwriter first and with good reason. Parton's compositions like "I Will Always Love You" and "Jolene" have become American standards with an impact far beyond country music. Lydia R. Hamessley's expert analysis and Parton's characteristically straightforward input inform this comprehensive look at the process, influences, and themes that have shaped the superstar's songwriting artistry. Hamessley reveals how Parton's loving, hard-scrabble childhood in the Smoky Mountains provided the musical language, rhythms, and memories of old-time music that resonate in so many of her songs. Hamessley further provides an understanding of how Parton combines her cultural and musical heritage with an artisan's sense of craft and design to compose eloquent, painfully honest, and gripping songs about women's lives, poverty, heartbreak, inspiration, and love. Filled with insights on hit songs and less familiar gems, Unlikely Angel covers the full arc of Dolly Parton's career and offers an unprecedented look at the creative force behind the image.

Ecologies of the Moving Image Adrian J. Ivakhiv, 2013-10-07 This book presents an ecophilosophy of cinema: an account of the moving image in relation to the lived ecologies, material, social, and perceptual relations within which movies are produced, consumed, and incorporated into cultural life. If cinema takes us on mental and emotional journeys, the author argues, that those journeys have reshaped our understanding of ourselves, life, and the Earth and universe. A range of styles are examined, from ethnographic and wildlife documentaries, westerns, and road movies, sci-fi blockbusters, and eco-disaster films to the experimental and art films of Tarkovsky, Herzog, Malick, and Brakhage, to YouTube's expanding audio-visual universe.

Big Brother International Ernest Mathijs, Janet Jones, 2004 Modernism and the Architecture of Private Life offers a bold new assessment of the role of the domestic sphere in modernist literature, architecture, and design. Elegantly synthesizing modernist literature with architectural plans, room designs, and decorative art, Victoria Rosner's work explores the collaborations among modern British writers, interior designers, and architects in redefining the form, function, and meaning of middle-class private life. Drawing on a host of previously unexamined archival sources and works by figures such as E. M. Forster, Roger Fry, Oscar Wilde, James McNeill Whistler, and Virginia Woolf, Rosner highlights the participation of modernist literature in the creation of an experimental, embodied, and unstructured private life, which we continue to characterize as modern.

Feminist Narrative and the Supernatural Katherine J. Weese, 2008-04-14 Women authors have explored fantasy fiction in ways that connect with feminist narrative theories, as examined here by Katherine J. Weese in seven modern novels These include Margaret Atwood's Lady Oracle Iris Murdoch's The Sea the Sea Marilynne Robinson's Housekeeping Carol Shields's The Stone Diaries Barbara Kingsolver's The Poisonwood Bible and Toni Morrison's Beloved and Paradise The fantastic devices highlight various feminist narrative concerns such as the authority of the female voice the implications of narrative form for gender construction revisions to traditional genre conventions by women writers and the recovery of alternative versions of stories suppressed by dominant historical narratives Weese also frames the fantastic elements in the scope of traditional fictional structure Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

Realism: Aesthetics, Experiments, Politics Jens Elze, 2022-04-07 Realism seems to be everywhere both as a trending critical term and as a revitalized aesthetic practice This volume brings together for the first time three aspects that are pertinent for a proper understanding of realism its 19th century aesthetics committed to making reality into an object of serious art the experiments with and against realism by 20th century modernist postmodernist or magical realist writing and the politics of realism especially its ambitions to map the complex realities produced by global capitalism and climate catastrophe This juxtaposition of aesthetics experiments and politics unsettles the entrenched opposition between realism and experimental literature that tends to ignore the fact that realism by virtue of its commitment to a changing material and social world cannot be but continuously experimenting The innovative chapters of this book address some of the pressing questions of literary and cultural studies today like the complex relation between historical materialism and new materialisms between science and art or the different aesthetic and political affordances of making systemic analyses against depicting the specificity of the local Some of the chapters deal with classically realist authors such as George Eliot, Zola and Joseph Conrad to gauge the aesthetic radicalism of their diverse realist projects Others investigate the experimental engagements with realism by authors such as B S Johnson J M Coetzee or Rachel Cusk Yet others analyze the politics of realism found in contemporary anglophone novels by writers like Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie David Mitchell or Rohinton Mistry The readings assembled here are a testament to the diversity of literary realism's from the 19th 20th and 21st centuries and to the ongoing controversies surrounding definitions and deployments of realism
