Pan African Theology:

A Pan-African Theology Josiah Ulysses Young, 1992 African Theology en Route Kofi Appiah-Kubi, Sergio Torres, 1979 African Theology Emmanuel Martey, 2009-11-01 Two major strands of theology have developed in Africa inculturation and liberation each in response to different needs Emmanuel Martey's African Theology provides a clear scholarly examination of these two basic approaches solidly based on Martey's understanding of contemporary theology and his firsthand knowledge of Africa Martey first examines the historical background of each of these theological developments especially relating to cultural and political movements enveloping the continent in the 1970s In sub Saharan Africa struggles for independence from colonizers have resulted in inculturation theology The defining aspect of this theology is that it pushes its roots firmly in African culture and traditions In South Africa on the other hand Black Africans struggling against the oppressive systems of apartheid have turned to liberation theology Martey shows how the real hope for African theology lies in the dialectical encounter between these two approaches and in their potential for convergence The two foci of liberation and inculturation Martey says are not contradictory but complement each other African Theology concludes by challenging African theologians to weld together the praxis of inculturation with that of liberation in order to achieve an integrative vision for the continent Religion and Poverty Peter J. Paris, 2009-11-25 Examines religion centered resistance strategies of the poor in Africa and its diaspora analyzing the roots and structure of this poverty religion's interaction with globalization and informal markets and how the politics of social and economic amelior Pan-African Education John K. Marah, 2017-08-09 This book makes a critical contribution to the study of pan Africanism and the education of African people for continental African citizenship It is a unique endeavor in that it intersects the social history of pan Africanism and the education of African people at a global level and provides reflections from a multidisciplinary perspective on the urgency for continental pan Africanism educational system in order to produce a more nascent African for the twenty first century Arguing that Pan African Education is a mass based educational system that will craft a pan African African personality John Marah calls for integrated African school systems and curriculum changes conducive to larger social integration and institutionalized pan African educational processes The establishments of pan African Teachers Colleges intensive language institutes pan African literature courses the training of African military and police forces the use of music sports media and other extra curricular activities the hidden curriculum etc are viewed as essential aspects in the socialization of a pan African character or personality Pan African Education is an essential read for students and scholars of Pan Africanism African and Africana Studies and Black Studies Orishatukeh Faduma Moses N. Moore, 1996-07-11 Provides insights into the role of Protestant liberal theology of evangelical missionary enterprise in the evolution of Pan Africanism challenging traditional assumptions that depict Africans and African Americans as passive recipients of Western theology After an overview of recent literature and the missiological roots of evangelical Pan Africanism chapters examine the synthesis of theological liberalism and Pan Africanism as reflected in the writings of Faduma Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR
