Pan Africanism And East African Integration:

Pan-Africanism and East African Integration Joseph S. Nye, 1965 Pan-Africanism and East African Integration, 1967 Pan-Africanism and East African Integration Joseph S. Nye, Jr., Nye, Jr. (Joseph S.), Politics and Pan-Africanism Dawn Nagar, 2019-12-12 Offering an examination of the diplomatic and economic regional power structures in Africa and their relationships with each other Dawn Nagar discusses the potential and future of pan Africanism The three primary regional economic communities RECs that are recognised by the African Union as the key building blocks of a united Africa are examined these are the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa COMESA the East African Community EAC and the Southern African Development Community SADC These RECs include Africa's major economies Egypt South Africa and Kenya but are also home to Africa's most conflict prone and volatile states the Democratic Republic of the Congo DRC Burundi South Sudan Somalia and Lesotho Providing a detailed overview of the current relationship between these power blocs this book provides insight into the current state of diplomatic and economic relations within Africa and shows how far there is to go for a future of Pan Africanism Studies in East African Geography and Development S.H. Ominde, 2024-03-29 This title was originally published in 1971 This title was originally published in 1971 Towards Pan-Africanism Stephen M. Magu, 2023-03-11 This book traces the development and impact of regional economic communities RECs in Africa and addresses a timely question do REC members and the REC itself positively influence member states behaviors towards other members and more broadly regionally and continentally due to REC membership Changing member states behaviors is measured across three interconnected fundamental dimensions of societal systems proposed by Marshall and Elzinga Marshall in CSP's Global Report 2017 These are i the persistence of conflict or its counterpoint achieving peace ii fostering democratization and better governance and iii achieving socio economic development and as proposed by this research a fourth dimension iv being active participants in multilateralism Is membership in a REC ultimately beneficial to the member and other countries in the region While there are no clear and obvious at least discernible traditional benefits such as increase in trade perhaps because Africa's overall trade relative to the world is about 3 percent there are other non trade benefits e.g. decrease in conflict coercion to take certain actions towards peace and refrain from others coups and wars presenting in REC member states These in actions abilities coercions exclusions and cooperation instances are outlined and discussed in the book Constructing the East African Community Mariel Reiss, 2022-04-27 This book provides a systematic analysis of the establishment and decision making processes concerning the institutional design of the East African Community EAC throughout the 1990s and discusses to what extent these were impacted and inspired by other regional organizations from Africa and Europe Analysing the decision making processes that led to the set up of the EAC the book explores the extent to which they were impacted by several other regional organizations namely the Organization of African Unity OAU the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa

COMESA the Southern African Development Community SADC the European Union EU and the first EAC The findings indicate that the relevant east African state and non state actors adopted substantial aspects from the first EAC the EU and the COMESA and adapted them to set up the current EAC This book demonstrates that the perception of other regional organizations and their institutional design considerably effected the construction of the EAC here its own past provided crucial learning objectives which challenges the notion of mimicry or replica regional organizations of the EU in the Global South This work will be of particular interest to scholars and students of regional and international organizations international relations multilevel governance approaches as well as diffusion literature

The Politics of African and Middle Eastern States Anne Gordon Drabek, Wilfrid Knapp, 2013-10-22 The Politics of African and Middle Eastern States An Annotated Bibliography is a record of books written about the politics history and the lives of the leaders of Africa and the Middle East The book is divided per chapter according to the geographical area being discussed Each chapter contains a list of books that fall under the following categories Political History Political Systems and Government Biographies Memoirs Speeches and Writings and External Relations Chapters I to VII cover different regions of Africa while Chapters VIII to XI cover the Middle East The text is a recommended for historians and political scientists especially those interested in the areas mentioned in the book The selection also serves a guide to those who plan to have further readings or make a paper about the political history government and development of the areas mentioned

The Palgrave Handbook of Christianity in Africa from Apostolic Times to the Present Andrew Eugene Barnes, Toyin Falola, 2024-03-07 This comprehensive Handbook provides chapter length surveys of the history of Christian missions and Christian churches on the African continent since the time of Christ Africa is rapidly becoming the most Christianized region of the world While common narratives about Christianity tend to present Christianity as a set of ideas and beliefs imposed on Africa from the outside such narratives hold little meaning for African Christians or for those seeking to understand Christianity in Africa as an indigenous faith The aim of the Handbook is to propose a set of scholarly starting points for a new set of narratives The chapters collected here communicate an idea of Christianity as it has been embraced among African peoples at particular historical moments It therefore grants voice to the various strands of African Christianity on their own terms and offers scholarly study of what these voices teach us about how the world's most adhered to religion is practiced and understood on the continent of Africa

African Regional Trade Agreements as Legal Regimes James Thuo Gathii, 2011-07-21 African regional trade integration has grown exponentially in the last decade This book is the first comprehensive analysis of the legal framework within which it is being pursued It will fill a huge knowledge gap and serve as an invaluable teaching and research tool for policy makers in the public and private sectors teachers researchers and students of African trade and beyond The author argues that African Regional Trade Agreements RTAs are best understood as flexible legal regimes particularly given their commitment to variable geometry and multiple memberships He analyzes the progress made toward trade liberalization in each region how the RTAs are financed their trade remedy and judicial regimes and how well they measure up to Article XXIV of GATT The book also covers monetary unions as well as intra African regional integration and examines free trade agreements with non African regions including the Economic Partnership Agreements with the European Union

Sovereignty as Responsibility Francis M. Deng, Sadikiel Kimaro, Terrence Lyons, 2010-12-01 The authors assert that sovereignty can no longer be seen as a protection against interference but as a charge of responsibility where the state is accountable to both domestic and external constituencies In internal conflicts in Africa sovereign states have often failed to take responsibility for their own citizens welfare and for the humanitarian consequences of conflict leaving the victims with no assistance This book shows how that responsibility can be exercised by states over their own population and by other states in assistance to their fellow sovereigns Sovereignty as Responsibility presents a framework that should guide both national governments and the international community in discharging their respective responsibilities Broad principles are developed by examining identity as a potential source of conflict governance as a matter of managing conflict and economics as a policy field for deterring conflict Considering conflict management political stability economic development and social welfare as functions of governance the authors develop strategies guidelines and roles for its responsible exercise Some African governments such as South Africa in the 1990s and Ghana since 1980 have demonstrated impressive gains against these standards while others such as Rwanda Somalia Liberia Nigeria and Sudan have failed Opportunities for making sovereignty more responsible and improving the management of conflicts are examined at the regional and international levels The lessons from the mixed successes of regional conflict management actions such as the West African intervention in Liberia the East African mediation in Sudan and international efforts to urge talks to end the conflict in Angola indicate friends and neighbors outside the state in conflict have important roles to play in increasing sovereign responsibility Approaching conflict management from the perspective of the responsibilities of sovereign Race, Nation, and

Citizenship in Postcolonial Africa Ronald Aminzade, 2013-10-31 Nationalism has generated violence bloodshed and genocide as well as patriotic sentiments that encourage people to help fellow citizens and place public responsibilities above personal interests This study explores the contradictory character of African nationalism as it unfolded over decades of Tanzanian history in conflicts over public policies concerning the rights of citizens foreigners and the nation s Asian racial minority These policy debates reflected a history of racial oppression and foreign domination and were shaped by a quest for economic development racial justice and national self reliance Africa and the Backlash Against International Courts

Peter Brett, Line Engbo Gissel, 2020-07-23 At the start of the twenty first century the story of Africa s engagement with international law was one of marked commitment and meaningful contributions Africa pioneered new areas of law and legal remedies such as international criminal law and universal jurisdiction and gave human rights jurisdiction to a number of new international courts However in recent years African states have mobilised politically and collectively against the regional courts and the International Criminal Court contesting these institutions authority and legitimacy at national regional and international levels Africa and the Backlash Against International Courts provides the first comprehensive account of this important phenomenon bringing together original fieldwork empirical analysis and a critical overview of the diverse scholarship on both international and African regional courts Moving beyond conventional explanations Brett and Gissel use this remarkable research to show how the actions of African states should instead be seen as part of a growing desire for a more equal global order a trend that not only has huge implications for Africa s international relations but that could potentially change the entire practice of international law

Power, Politics, and the African Condition Ali Al'Amin Mazrui, 2004 Power Politics and the African Condition is the third volume of The Collected Essays of Ali A Mazrui which will provide readers with a broad spectrum of Ali A Mazrui s scholarly writings The third volume is centered on issues of power and politics at the nexus of Africa s domestic affairs and its international concepts about the disequilibrium of power in the international system and the problems that Africa has confronted globally because of it Mazrui focuses the reader s attention on the impact that the colonial legacy and African tradition had on state formation leadership Africa s political economy violence and conflict resolution while presenting some of his most interesting and even controversial ideas for building Pax Africana Spanning nearly forty years Mazrui s essays are classic and contemporary statements on the diagnosis and treatment of what he called The African Condition

Indigenous Peoples and Borders Sheryl Lightfoot, Elsa Stamatopoulou, 2023-12-04 The legacies of borders are far reaching for Indigenous Peoples This collection offers new ways of understanding borders by departing from statist approaches to territoriality Bringing together the fields of border studies human rights international relations and Indigenous studies it features a wide range of voices from across academia public policy and civil society The contributors explore the profound and varying impacts of borders on Indigenous Peoples around the world and the ways borders are challenged and worked around From Bangladesh s colonially imposed militarized borders to resource extraction in the Russian Arctic and along the Colombia Ecuador border to the transportation of toxic pesticides from the United States to Mexico the chapters examine sovereignty power and obstructions to Indigenous rights and self determination as well as globalization and the economic impacts of borders Indigenous Peoples and Borders proposes future action that is informed by Indigenous Peoples voices needs and advocacy Contributors Tone Bleie Andrea Carmen Jacqueline Gillis Rauna Kuokkanen Elifuraha Laltaika Sheryl Lightfoot David Bruce MacDonald Toa Elisa Maldonado Ruiz Binalakshmi Bina Nepram Melissa Z Patel Manoel B do Prado Junior Hana Shams Ahmed Elsa Stamatopoulou Liubov Suliandziga Rodion Sulyandziga Yifat Susskind Erika M Yamada

Uniting Africa David J. Francis, 2017-05-15 Plagued by bloody wars and armed conflicts political instability communal violence and displaced persons and at the mercy of natural catastrophes such as drought and famine it is not surprising that the Western press has long dismissed Africa as the hopeless continent In the face of these challenges Africa today is faced with a stark choice either unite or perish The debate on why and how the continent should unite in terms of co operative peace security and development is more urgent than at any other time in Africa s post colonial history Moving forward from the failure of the earlier typically idealistic Africa unity project David Francis demonstrates how peace and security challenges have created the imperative for change He argues that a series of regional peace and security systems are emerging and that states that have participated in practical experiments in regional peacekeeping peace support operations conflict stabilization management and preventive diplomacy are building de facto systems of peace and security that could be institutionalized and extended *Africa Air University (U.S.).
