Black Power Ideologies John McCartney, 2010-06-18 Tracing the course of Black Power Movements from the 18th century to the present

Proudly We Can Be Africans James H. Meriwether, 2009-01-05 The mid twentieth century witnessed nations across Africa fighting for their independence from colonial forces By examining black Americans attitudes toward and responses to these liberation struggles James Meriwether probes the shifting meaning of Africa in the intellectual political and social lives of African Americans Paying particular attention to such important figures and organizations as W E B Du Bois Martin Luther King Jr and the NAACP Meriwether incisively utilizes the black press personal correspondence and oral histories to render a remarkably nuanced and diverse portrait of African American opinion Meriwether builds the book around seminal episodes in modern African history including nonviolent protests against apartheid in South Africa the Mau Mau war in Kenya Ghana s drive for independence under Kwame Nkrumah and Patrice Lumumba s murder in the Congo Viewing these events within the context of their own changing lives especially in regard to the U S civil rights struggle African Americans have continually reconsidered their relationship to contemporary Africa and vigorously debated how best to translate their concerns into action in the international arena Grounded in black Americans encounters with Africa this transnational history sits astride the leading issues of the twentieth century race civil rights anticolonialism and the intersections of domestic race relations and U S foreign relations

Translations from Kommunist, 1964

Black on Black John Cullen Gruesser, 2021-05-11 Black on Black provides the first comprehensive analysis of the modern African American literary response to Africa from W E B Du Bois s The Souls of Black Folk to Alice Walker s The Color Purple Combining cutting edge theory extensive historical and archival research and close readings of individual texts Gruesser reveals the diversity of the African American response to Countee Cullen s question What is Africa to Me John Gruesser uses the concept of Ethiopianism the biblically inspired belief that black Americans would someday lead Africans and people of the diaspora to a bright future to provide a framework for his study Originating in the eighteenth century and inspiring religious and political movements throughout the 1800s Ethiopianism dominated African American depictions of Africa in the first two decades of the twentieth century particularly in the writings of Du Bois Sutton Griggs and Pauline Hopkins Beginning with the Harlem Renaissance and continuing through the Italian invasion and occupation of Ethiopia however its influence on the portrayal of the continent slowly diminished Ethiopianism s decline can first be seen in the work of writers closely associated with the New Negro Movement including Alain Locke and Langston Hughes and continued in the dramatic work of Shirley Graham the novels of George Schuyler and the poetry and prose of Melvin Tolson The final rejection of Ethiopianism came after the dawning of the Cold War and roughly coincided with the advent of postcolonial Africa in works by authors such as Richard Wright Lorraine Hansberry and Alice Walker

W.E.B. Du Bois on Race and Culture Bernard W. Bell, Emily R. Grosholz, James B. Stewart, 2014-03-18 Interpreting Du Bois thoughts on race and culture in a broadly philosophical sense

this volume assembles original essays by some of today's leading scholars in a critical dialogue on different important theoretical and practical issues that concerned him throughout his long career the conundrum of race the issue of gender equality and the perplexities of pan Africanism United States and Africa Relations, 1400s to the Present Toyin Falola, Raphael Chijioke Njoku, 2020-09-01 A comprehensive history of the relationship between Africa and the United States Toyin Falola and Raphael Njoku reexamine the history of the relationship between Africa and the United States from the dawn of the trans Atlantic slave trade to the present Their broad interdisciplinary book follows the relationship's evolution tracking African American emancipation the rise of African diasporas in the Americas the Back to Africa movement the founding of Sierra Leone and Liberia the presence of American missionaries in Africa the development of blues and jazz music the presidency of Barack Obama and more African Theology Emmanuel Martey, 2009-11-01 Two major strands of theology have developed in Africa inculturation and liberation each in response to different needs Emmanuel Martey's African Theology provides a clear scholarly examination of these two basic approaches solidly based on Martey's understanding of contemporary theology and his firsthand knowledge of Africa Martey first examines the historical background of each of these theological developments especially relating to cultural and political movements enveloping the continent in the 1970s In sub Saharan Africa struggles for independence from colonizers have resulted in inculturation theology The defining aspect of this theology is that it pushes its roots firmly in African culture and traditions In South Africa on the other hand Black Africans struggling against the oppressive systems of apartheid have turned to liberation theology Martey shows how the real hope for African theology lies in the dialectical encounter between these two approaches and in their potential for convergence The two foci of liberation and inculturation Martey says are not contradictory but complement each other African Theology concludes by challenging African theologians to weld together the praxis of inculturation with that of liberation in order to achieve an integrative vision for the continent Race and U.S. Foreign Policy from 1900 Through World War II Michael L.
