Crossroads of Conflict Michael Conniff, 2025-06-19. Crossroads of Conflict traces the experiences of Panama and its famous canal during the years leading up to and during the Second World War. Beginning with the expulsion of a German airline from a base in Colombia, it then follows Panamanian American reporter Sam Diamond as he engages in counterespionage activities. The story follows Axis agents who attempt to disrupt canal transits and block access to a major airfield serving the Pacific Theater, and the dramatic finale shows a monster Japanese submarine attempt an aerial attack on Panama. The story features cameo appearances by filmmaker John Ford, actor John Wayne, and high level officials of Panama and the United States.

Conversations with Maryse Condé Maryse Condé, Françoise Pfaff, 1996-01-01. This book is an exploration of the life and art of Maryse Condé, who first won international acclaim for Segu, a novel about West African experience and the slave trade. Born in Guadeloupe in 1937, Condé lived in Guinea after it won its independence from France. Later she lived in Ghana and Senegal during turbulent decisive moments in the histories of these countries. Her writings, novels, plays, essays, stories, and children's books, have led her to an increasingly important role within Africa and throughout the world. Françoise Pfaff met Maryse Condé in 1981 when she first interviewed her. Their friendship grew quickly. In 1991 the two women continued recording conversations about Condé's geographical sojourns and literary paths, her personality and her thoughts. Their conversations reveal connections between Condé's vivid art and her eventful, passionate life. In her encounters with historical and literary figures and in her opinions on politics and culture, Condé appears as an engaging witness to her time. The conversations frequently sparkle with humor; at other moments they are infused with profound seriousness. Maryse Condé is the recipient of the French literary awards Le Grand Prix Littéraire de la Femme and Le Prix de l'Académie Française. She currently teaches at Columbia University, and her most recent works include Tree of Life and Crossing the Mangrove. Born and educated in Paris, Françoise Pfaff is a professor of French at Howard University. The translator of this book, she is also the author of Twenty-five Black African Filmmakers: A Critical Study with Filmography and Bibliography and The Cinema of Ousmane Sembène: A Pioneer of African Cinema. Entretiens avec Maryse Condé was first published in France in 1993.
