Panama Places In The News:

Soft News Goes to War Matthew A. Baum, 2011-10-16 The American public has consistently declared itself less concerned with foreign affairs in the post Cold War era even after 9 11 than at any time since World War II How can it be then that public attentiveness to U S foreign policy crises has increased This book represents the first systematic attempt to explain this apparent paradox Matthew Baum argues that the answer lies in changes to television s presentation of political information In so doing he develops a compelling byproduct theory of information consumption The information revolution has fundamentally changed the way the mass media especially television covers foreign policy Traditional news has been repackaged into numerous entertainment oriented news programs and talk shows By transforming political issues involving scandal or violence especially attacks against America into entertainment the soft news media have actually captured more viewers who will now follow news about foreign crises due to its entertainment value even if they remain uninterested in foreign policy Baum rigorously tests his theory through content analyses of traditional and soft news media coverage of various post WWII U S foreign crises and statistical analyses of public opinion surveys The results hold key implications for the future of American politics and foreign policy For instance watching soft news reinforces isolationism among many inattentive Americans Scholars political analysts and even politicians have tended to ignore the soft news media and politically disengaged citizens But as this well written book cogently demonstrates soft news viewers represent a largely untapped reservoir of unusually persuadable voters

A Nation in Search of Its Nationhood Juan Manuel Pérez,2023-11-16 When the Liberal Party reached power in Panama in 1912 it started a period that lasted until 1941 A period in which Panamanians due to the special circumstances under which the country became independent the presence of the United States and of thousands of foreign workers in its territory began to doubt and asked themselves if they were truly independent The American presence impacted politics and a sense of inferiority developed because people believed that nothing could be accomplished without the blessings of the United States In the middle of chaotic political scene and self doubt the country retreated to its Hispanic past and began an effort to Hispanize in the face of so much foreign presence and influence and tried to show the world that Panama was an independent country with history and traditions and not an appendage of the United States Belisario Porras who became president in 1912 emphasized the Hispanic past and built statues to Balboa and Cervantes Acci n Comunal founded in 1923 promoted nationalism and criticized the corrupt nature of politics It led a successful campaign against the 1926 Treaty and a coup in 1931 This new generation repudiated the generation that made the 1903 Treaty Panama for Panamanians became one of the catch phrases for the Panamanian youth of the 1920 s and 1930 s which found in the brothers Harmodio and Arnulfo Arias the leading exponents The Marine News ,1955 The Medical News ,1905 Engineering News ,1905 Building Supply News ,1925 Vols for 1979 include annual buyers guide Agricultural News Commissioner of Agriculture for the West Indies,1912 Agricultural News ,1906 Recruiting News ,1933 United States Army Recruiting News ,1938
