Pioneers of "B" Television Richard Irvin, 2022-11-11 As television grew more enticing for both viewers and filmmakers in the 1950s several independent film producers with knowledge of making low cost films and radio shows transferred their skills to producing shows for the small screen. Rather than funding live programs that were popular at the time these producers saw the value in pre-taped shows which created large financial returns through episode reruns. This low cost high yield production model resulted in what are known and beloved as B television shows. Part historical account and part filmography this book documents the careers of over a dozen B television producers. It chronicles the rise of situation comedies and crime dramas and explores the minds behind popular shows like My Little Margie, The Lone Ranger, Lassie, Highway Patrol, and Sea Hunt. Divided into 14 chapters of producer profiles this work is rich in both trivia and critical assessments of the first years of television. A chapter detailing the work of early female television producers rounds out the text. Overland Monthly, 1888 The Overland Monthly, 1895 Overland Monthly and Out West Magazine, 1888

Black Rhythms of Peru Heidi Feldman, 2023-02-28 Winner of the IASPM's Woody Guthrie Award 2007 In the late 1950s to 1970s an Afro-Peruvian revival brought the forgotten music and dances of Peru's African musical heritage to Lima's theatrical stages. The revival conjured newly imagined links to the past in order to celebrate and to some extent recreate Black culture in Peru. In this groundbreaking study of the Afro-Peruvian revival and its aftermath Heidi Carolyn Feldman reveals how Afro-Peruvian artists remapped blackness from the perspective of the Black Pacific, a marginalized group of African diasporic communities along Latin America's Pacific coast. Feldman's ethnography of remembering traces the memory projects of charismatic Afro-Peruvian revival artists and companies including Jos Durand Nicomedes and Victoria Santa Cruz and Per Negro, culminating with Susana Baca's entry onto the global world music stage in the 1990s. Readers will learn how Afro Peruvian music and dance genres although recreated in the revival to symbolize the ancient and forgotten past express competing modern beliefs regarding what constitutes Black Rhythms of Peru Text & Presentation, 2007
