Configuring the Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank Ian Tsung-Yen

Chen, 2020-12-30 Studying the Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank AIIB through the lens of international relations IR theory Chen argues that it is inappropriate to treat the AIIB as either a revisionist or a complementary institution Instead the bank is still evolving and the interaction of power interests and status that will determine whether the bank will go wild. Theoretically the current shape of the AIIB will influence global strategic conditions and global perceptions of the bank itself consequently affecting China's level of dissatisfaction with its power and status in the international financial system and maneuvering in the AIIB. To empirically show that this book presents the evolution of the AIIB compares the bank with its main competitors in the Asia Pacific region and conducts ten comparative case studies to show how countries around the world have positioned themselves in response to the emergence of the AIIB. This book presents critical insights for scholars and foreign policy practitioners to understand China's surging influence in international organizations and how China can shape the world order. It should prove of interest to students and scholars of IR, strategic studies, China Studies, Asian Studies, developmental studies, economics and global finance.

Richard Halliburton and the Voyage of the Sea Dragon Gerald Max, 2023-08-18. Richard Halliburton (1900-1939) considered the world's first celebrity travel writer: swam the length of the Panama Canal, recreated Ulysses' voyages in the Mediterranean, crossed the Alps on an elephant, flew around the world in a biplane, and descended into the Mayan Well of Death, all the while chronicling his own adventures. Several books treat his life and travels, yet no book has addressed in detail Halliburton's most ambitious expedition: an attempt to sail across the Pacific Ocean in a Chinese junk. Set against the backdrop of a China devastated by invading Japanese armies and the storm clouds of World War gathering in Europe, Halliburton and a crew of fourteen set out to build and sail the Sea Dragon, a junk or ancient sailing ship from Hong Kong to San Francisco for the Golden Gate International Exposition. After battling through crew conflicts and frequent delays, the Sea Dragon set sail on March 4, 1939. Three weeks after embarking, the ship encountered a typhoon and disappeared without a trace. Richly enhanced with historic photographs, Richard Halliburton and the Voyage of the Sea Dragon follows the dramatic arc of this ill-fated expedition in fine detail. Gerry Max artfully unpacks the tensions between Halliburton and his captain John Wenlock Welch owing much to Welch's homophobia and Halliburton's unconcealed homosexuality. And while Max naturally explores the trials and tribulations of preparing, constructing, and finally launching the Sea Dragon, he also punctuates the story with the invasion of China by the Japanese. As Halliburton and his letters home reveal an excellent wartime reporter, Max mines these documents, many of which have only recently come to light, as well as additional letters from Halliburton and his crew to family and friends, photographs, films, and tape recordings to paint an intricate portrait of Halliburton's final expedition from inception to tragic end. 365 Fun Activities for Parents, Teachers, and Kids Susan Ohanian, 1997 Children will be begging to learn with this exciting new activity book containing hundreds of entertaining projects based on fascinating facts, true life events, and worldwide celebrations.
