The Toho Studios Story Stuart Galbraith IV, 2008-05-16 Since its inception in 1933 Toho Co Ltd

Japan's most famous movie production company and distributor has produced and/or distributed some of the most notable films ever to come out of Asia including Seven Samurai, Godzilla, When a Woman Ascends the Stairs, Kwaidan, Woman in the Dunes, Ran, Shall We Dance?, Ringu, and Spirited Away. While the western world often defines Toho by its iconic classics which include the Godzilla franchise and many of the greatest films of the legendary director Akira Kurosawa and actor Toshiro Mifune, these pictures represent but a tiny fraction of Toho's rich history. The Toho Studios Story: A History and Complete Filmography provides a complete picture of every Toho feature the Japanese studio produced and released, as well as foreign films that it distributed during its first 75 years. Presented chronologically, each entry in the filmography includes, where applicable, the original Japanese title, a direct translation of that title, the film's international U.S. release, and alternate titles; production credits including each film's producers, director, screenwriters, cinematographers, art directors, and composers; among others, casts with character names, production companies, technical specs, running times, and release dates; U.S. release data including distributor, whether the film was released subtitled or dubbed, and alternate versions; domestic and international awards; and plot synopses.

Panda Nation E. Elena Songster, 2018 A logo on products ranging from chopsticks and toilet paper to cell phones and automobiles the panda is one of the most ubiquitous images in China and throughout the world Yet the panda holds little notable historical significance in China Although it has existed in the territory of present day China since the Pliocene epoch its widespread popularity there is not only recent but almost sudden In Panda Nation E. Elena Songster links the emergence of the giant panda as a national symbol to the development of nature protection in the People's Republic of China The panda's transformation into a national treasure exemplifies China's efforts in the mid twentieth century to distinguish itself as a nation through government directed science and popular nationalism The story of the panda's iconic rise offers a striking reflection of China's recent and dramatic ascent as a nation
