Paneros Some Words On Aphrodisiacs:

Paneros, Some Words on Aphrodisiacs and the Like Norman Douglas,1932 Paneros Norman Douglas,1931

Lustful Appetites Rachel Hope Cleves,2024-11-18 We take the edible trappings of flirtation for granted chocolate covered strawberries and romance oysters on the half shell and desire the eggplant emoji and a suggestive wink But why does it feel so natural for us to link food and sexual pleasure Rachel Hope Cleves explores the long association between indulging in good food and an appetite for naughty sex from the development of the Parisian restaurant as a place for men to meet with prostitutes and mistresses to the role of sexual outlaws like bohemians new women lesbians and gay men in creating epicurean culture in Britain and the United States Taking readers on a gastronomic journey from Paris and London to New York Chicago and San Francisco Lustful Appetites reveals how this preoccupation changed the ways we eat and the ways we are intimate while also creating stigmas that persist well into our own twenty first century Paneros. Words on Aphrodisiacs and the Like. Illustrated by Robert Rotter George Norman DOUGLASS,1932 The Letters of Alciphron Michèle Biraud,Arnaud Zucker,2018-11-26 In The Letters of Alciphron A Unified Literary Work Mich le Biraud and Arnaud Zucker have gathered a dozen international contributions about the collection of letters of Alciphron hitherto mainly studied as part of the epistolary genre at the time of the Second Sophistic or as testimony of a nostalgia for the Athens of Menander s time The aim is to show the unity of a literary project through studies on the careful arrangement of each book overall organization coherent reappropriation of a culture innovations in generic hybridization and various elements of cohesion between the four books For this purpose were used as tools codicological criticism stylistic and rhetorical examination analysis of prosody study of thematic treatments uses of onomastics A Study of Erotic Literature in England

W. v. Murat,2019-09-24 The present work fills a gap as it attempts to offer a history of erotic literature published in the United Kingdom The word Study in the title is perhaps a bit exaggerated as the material is largely taken from the now well known bibliographies by Pisanus Fraxi Henry Spencer Ashbee and quotations from the books themselves The time line is WW II Who was the author He may have been Charles Reginald Dawes 1879 1964 who is supposed to have written but not published a text of this or a similar title His profession or his activities are not known he once called himself a writer but library catalogues credit him only with two publications The Marquis de Sade Paris 1927 and Retif de la Bretonne London 1946 privately printed He may have been a popular writer under pseudonyms though Dawes owned a good erotica collection which he willed to the British Museum Library that would explain why the author of this Study if he was Dawes could quote freely from erotic texts which only few of his contemporaries would have had available The main merits of this book are that the author was thoroughly familiar with English and French erotic literature and that he put his material in chronological order and in context The editor added a number of references illustrations and indices of personal names and titles to facilitate navigation Lust Pamela C. Regan,Ellen Berscheid,1999-08-27 Accessibly written this interdisciplinary book reviews theory and research on the characteristics of sexual desire the individual physical and mental factors that influence the experience of sexual desire hormones age gender beliefs mood the various partner characteristics that incite sexual desire attractiveness and the association between sexual desire and interpersonal relational events and experiences romantic love The book concludes with an examination of the personal interpersonal and societal implications of sexual desire Throughout the authors draw on findings from their own body of research on sexual and romantic attraction as well as on an extensive review of the relevant social behavioural and medical science Twentieth Century Fiction George Woodcock,1983-04-01 Catalog of Copyright Entries.
