Reflections in Place Donna Deyhle, 2009-10-15 Woven together in Donna Deyhle's ethnohistory are three generations and twenty five years of friendship interviews and rich experience with Navajo women Through a skillful blending of sources Deyhle illuminates the devastating cultural consequences of racial stereotyping in the context of education Longstanding racial tension in southeastern Utah frames this cross generational set of portraits that together depict all aspects of this specifically American Indian struggle Deyhle cites the lefthanded compliment Navajos work well with their hands which she indicates represents the limiting and all too common appraisal of American Indian learning potential that she vehemently disputes and seeks to disprove As a recognized authority on the subject qualified by multiple degrees in racial and American Indian studies Deyhle is able to chronicle the lives and survivance of three Navajo women in a way that is simultaneously ethnographic and moving Her critique of the U S education system s underlying yet very real tendency toward structural discrimination takes shape in elegant prose that moves freely into and out of time and place The combination of substantive sources and touching personal experience forms a profound and enduring narrative of critical and current importance While this book stands as a powerful contribution to American Indian studies its compelling human elements will extend its appeal to anyone concerned with the ongoing plight of American Indians in the education system

The Game Was Good to Me John Crawley, 2000-12-20 Yes The Game Was Good To Me until I discovered the Holy Spirit and Salvation becoming a Born Again Christian For many of my adult years I lived a life of wrong doings transgressions and sin My earliest recollections were as an earth bound child dragging a heavy gunnysack through fields of cotton and corn towering over my head I was a sharecropper s son barefooted and destined to toil for the rest of my life in a no win hard rock situation My family and I were indentured slaves to a harsh southern system From these humble beginnings I started a fantastic journey through self discipline and soul survivorship step by step through the nightmarish world of file de joie and many devious adventures I became very successful and lived in a post enclave on the famed Sutton Place New York City I flew high rubbing shoulders with fast players movers and city slick shakers I covered many major cities as my fortunes ebbed and flowed but always came up smelling like a rose How sweet it was In The Game Was Good to Me I do not use the real names of my friends associates and acquaintances unless I have their full approval otherwise substitute names are used to protect their privacy I sincerely feel that my greedy story will be a warning to young men who may attempt to walk the same dangerous paths that I once followed The Royal Romeos Series Jenny Gardiner ,2019-04-19
