the profound impact you have on your child's life Good Night, Sleep Tight! 21 Bedtime Stories & Poems Nalini Sorensen, 2023-07-20 When darkness falls And Mr Moon's up high Smile and wish The day goodbye Snuggle up and get cosy pull up a blanket and open this book Poems stories stories in rhyme there's something for everyone tucked within the pages of this beautifully illustrated book You are guaranteed a peaceful night of sleep with the finest dreams from this collection of 21 stories and poems written just for you Story Time with Papa Bruce Allen Carey, 2015-10-31 This book contains bedtime stories that children of all ages will enjoy reading and parents will enjoy reading to their children as they go to sleep each night Come to a Memory Frances Webb, 2016-08-04 Prejudice takes many forms Set in New Jersey just before World War II Come to a Memory Joab's Story Lila's Story is about two classmates who are both bullied in school for different reasons Joab arrives in Lila's fourth grade class as the new kid and is greeted with scorn because he's a half Jewish refugee from Germany and everyone knows that Germany is the enemy in the war He talks funny and dresses differently and has a black number burned into his arm The teacher sits him next to Lila another student who is belittled by the other students She comes from a poor extended family and her grandfather is considered the town fool Can these two forge a friendship and survive against all the odds This historical novel reflects how memory can affect current relationships and is set as a backdrop to life during wartime It also depicts the slow development of friendship through patience and kindness in the face of childhood bullying The story takes place in a small suburban northern New Jersey commuter town at the very beginning of World War II just as the Great Depression is lifting for some but not for others Lila's family extended and living in one large house divided in two is poor and her grandfather rants to his son Lila's father about letting the bank foreclose on part of his property and on their livelihood Early rumblings of war reverberate from newspaper headlines and the evening news with Lowell Thomas Lila is an outcast at school since she is poor and lives in an odd house with her grandfather the town tyrant and fool The first day of the school year in 1939 is clouded with sadness for Lila because of the noise coming from her backyard A bulldozer is razing her family's greenhouses disturbing the peace of the neighborhood and she is tormented by her classmates because of it The child is self-conscious about her house which she has divided into the green and blue sides She and her nuclear family represent the green and her aunts and grandparents are blue This along with being old-fashioned in dress add to Lila's ostracism Papa, PhD Mary Ruth Marotte, Paige Reynolds, Ralph Savarese, 2010-11-03 It is not easy raising a family and balancing work and personal commitments in academia regardless of gender Parents endure the stress of making tenure with the demands of life with children While women's careers are derailed more often than men's as a result of such competing pressures fathers too experience conflicting feelings about work and home making parenting ever more challenging In Papa PhD Mary Ruth Marotte Paige Martin Reynolds and Ralph James Savarese bring together a group of contributors from a variety of backgrounds and disciplines They are white black South Asian Asian and Arab They are gay and straight married and divorced They are tenured and untenured at research one universities and at community colleges

Some write at the beginning of their careers others at the end But perhaps most important they do not look back they look forward to new parental and professional synergies as they reflect on what it means to be a father in the academy The fathers writing in Papa PhD seek to expand their children s horizons giving them the gifts of better topic sentences and a cosmopolitan sensibility They seriously consider the implications of gender theory and queer theory even Marxist theory and make relevant theoretical connections between their work and the less abstract more pragmatic world of fathering What resonates is the astonishing range of forms that fatherhood can take as these dads challenge traditional norms by actively questioning the status quo
