Papers In Boiotian Topography And History:

Papers in Boiotian Topography and History John M. Fossey, 2024-04-08 To coincide with the publication of his large monograph Topography and Population of Ancient Boiotia we are reprinting a series of 15 of Professor Fossey's previously published papers. These papers scattered across many periodicals were written during the preparation of the monograph; the latter in its turn makes frequent reference to the papers. In this way the two works complement each other: the papers also treat of detailed problems which could not have received the same full discussion in the monograph. The papers are divided into four sections: testimonia, Mykenaian Boiotia, Sites and History of Boiotia from Protohistoric to Classical Times, and Roman Boiotia.

Topography and History of Ancient Epicnemidian Lokris José Pascual, Maria-Foteini

Papakonstantinou, 2013-09-26 This book presents the results of a major project carried out by a team from the Universidad Autónoma de Madrid and the 14th Ephorate of Prehistoric and Classical Antiquities at Lamia. The book gives a full picture of an extensive area of Greece known as Epicnemidian Lokris, on which very little has been studied and published in the past. Its relevance in historical times was due to its natural environment and mainly on the pass at Thermopylae which marked the physical boundary between central northern Greece and the south, being the scene of repeated conflicts. The book offers a complete picture of what Epicnemidian Lokris was like in the past: its geography, topography, frontiers, and the ancient settlements of the region.

Boiotia in Ancient Times John M. Fossey, 2019-10-14 The results of over 50 years of research into the History and Topography of Boiotia: the early development of its League and its coinage; the confrontation with Sparta and the battle of Leuktra; discussion of some cults and myths, especially those of Artemis, Herakles, and the Horseman Hero.

The Ancient Topography of Opountian Lokris John M. Fossey, 2024-09-02 Following on from the author's Ancient Topography of Eastern Phokis 1986 and Topography and Population of Ancient Boiotia 1988, this monograph completes his studies of settlement in antiquity of Eastern Central Greece, excluding Attika and Megaris. The structure of the book is exactly the same as the parallel work on Eastern Phokis: an account of the physical geography and natural economy of the area is followed by a detailed catalogue of 22 sites in which location, bibliography, and structural remains are discussed; surface finds and inscriptions are listed, and the possible identifications with ancient names are elaborated. After these presentations of the raw data, analytical sections on settlement development and organisation, on fortifications, and on cults follow. Several appendices treat of connex subjects or list various testimonia, ancient and modern, and the work concludes with indices of ancient texts, placenames, and general subjects.

Boiotia and the Boiotian League, 432-371 B.C. Robert J. Buck, 1994 The history of the federal state of Boiotia from the outbreak of the Peloponnesian War in 432 BC to the triumph of the states over its enemies in 371 BC is the focus of Professor Buck's study. It is especially interesting because the federation underwent so many changes. The interplay of political factions with external enemies and with clashing ideologies makes it useful to study.

City Walls James D. Tracy, 2000-09-25 The essays presented in this volume first published in 2000 describe a phenomenon so widespread in human time and space that its importance is easily overlooked City walls shaped the history of warfare the mobilisation of manpower and resources needed to build them favoured some kinds of polities over others and their massive strength appropriately ornamented created a visual language of authority Previous collective volumes on the subject have dealt mainly with Europe but the historians and art historians who collaborate here follow a comparative agenda The millennial practice of wall building that branched out from the ancient Near East into India Europe and North Africa shows continuities and points of contact of which the makers of urban fortifications were scarcely aware separate traditions in China sub Saharan Africa and North America illustrate universal themes of defensive strategy and the symbolism of power each time embedded in a distinctive local context Boeotia Antiqua III John M. Fossey,P.J.

Smith,2023-10-09 McGill University Monographs in Classical Archaeology and History is a series intended for the publication of monographs in the fields of Greek and Roman Archaeology It may also include monographs concerning Greek and Roman History when they present results acquired directly and not just incidentally from archaeological fieldwork The keynote of the series is thus archaeological field research both excavation and topographical study The series may also house studies in Greek and Latin Epigraphy since many of the additions in these fields come from the results of archaeological fieldwork

The Epigraphy and History of Boeotia Nikolaos Papazarkadas,2014-06-26 Over the past 20 years Boeotia has been the focus of intensive archaeological investigation that has resulted in some extraordinary epigraphical finds The most spectacular discoveries are presented for the first time in this volume dozens of inscribed sherds from the Theban shrine of Heracles Archaic temple accounts numerous Classical Hellenistic and Roman epitaphs a Plataean casualty list a dedication by the legendary king Croesus Other essays revisit older epigraphical finds from Aulis Chaironeia Lebadeia Thisbe and Megara radically reassessing their chronology and political and legal implications The integration of old and new evidence allows for a thorough reconsideration of wider historical questions such as ethnic identities and the emergence rise dissolution and resuscitation of the famous Boeotian koinon Contributors include Vassilios Aravantinos Hans Beck Margherita Bonanno Claire Grenet Yannis Kalliontzis Denis Knoepfler Angelos P Matthaiou Emily Mackil Christel M ller Nikolaos Papazarkadas Isabelle Pernin Robert Pitt Adrian Robu and Albert Schachter Boeotia Antiqua IV John M.

Fossey,P.J. Smith,2023-10-09 McGill University Monographs in Classical Archaeology and History is a series intended for the publication of monographs in the fields of Greek and Roman Archaeology It may also include monographs concerning Greek and Roman History when they present results acquired directly and not just incidentally from archaeological fieldwork The keynote of the series is thus archaeological field research both excavation and topographical study The series may also house studies in Greek and Latin Epigraphy since many of the additions in these fields come from the results of archaeological fieldwork Introduction to an Inventory of 'Poleis' Mogens Herman Hansen,1996 Localism in Hellenistic Greece Sheila

L. Ager,Hans Beck,2023-12-18 The Hellenistic age witnessed a dynamic increase of cultural fusion and entanglement across the Mediterranean and Eurasian worlds Amid seismic changes in the world writ large the regions of central Greece and the Peloponnese have often been considered a cultural space left behind Localism in Hellenistic Greece explores how various processes impacted the countless small scale local communities of the Greek mainland Drawing on notions of locality localism local tradition and boundedness in place Sheila L Ager and Hans Beck delve into some of the main hubs of Hellenistic Greece from Thessaly to Cape Tainaron Along with their contributors they explore how polis and ethnos societies positioned themselves in a swiftly expanding horizon and the meaning making force of the local The book reveals how local discourses were energized by local sentiments and much like an echo chamber how discourses related back to the community and the place it occupied prioritizing the local as the critical source of communal orientation Engaging with debates about cultural connectivity and convergence Localism in Hellenistic Greece offers new insights into lived experience in ancient Greece

Epigraphica Boeotica II John M. Fossey, 2014-05-22 In Epigraphica Boeotica II John Fossey continues to treat results of his nearly 50 years of research into the archaeology and inscriptions of Ancient Boiotia Epigraphica Boeotica I Amsterdam 1991 The first part of the volume discusses the relations between Boiotia and other parts of the Greek world as seen in acts of proxenia and agonistic victor lists After a section on dedications both religious and civic there follows a series of studies of ancient tombstones many of them spolia used in more recent buildings with prosopographic and onomastic commentary on the names contained in them Discussion throughout features letter forms and one specific example of this is an epigramme by the Roman philhellene emperor Hadrianus An unusual rupestral text concludes the volume

Epigraphica Boeotica I John M. Fossey, 2023-08-21 A collection of papers on various aspects of Boiotian epigraphy Imperial letters decrees of proxenia military catalogues manumissions statue dedications tombstones and graffiti The texts discussed come from many parts of Boiotia but with a certain concentration from the Kopa s A few of the papers are reprinted from previous publications but many are here published for the first time and they are extensively illustrated In addition to discussions of the various genres of text there are full onomastic and prosopographic comments on all names cited

Constructions of Greek Past Hero Hokwerda, 2021-11-22 In May 1999 a second conference of Hellenists of all periods and subject areas from the Dutch speaking countries was organized in Groningen The theme of this second conference was Constructions of Greek Past Identity and Historical Consciousness from Antiquity to the Present The conference theme was described as follows When seeking to establish its own identity a culture country people nation readily resorts to its own history which it uses either as an example or as something to react against In recent years there has been a growing awareness that this process often reveals more about a culture in the present day than the historical era to which it harks back its own identity and thus its own history are constructed in this way The constructional approach is usually applied to the birth of new nation states and the development of their national ideologies particularly in the nineteenth century But it can be applied more broadly too Greek culture is an excellent subject area for studying this phenomenon even further back in history precisely because its history is so long and included several Golden Ages to which later periods could and can hark back Greek culture still presents itself as a product of Ancient Greek and or Byzantine culture However the problem of continuity in Greek culture has frequently manifested itself particularly during periods of radical political ideological or demographic change The Homeric influence on the Mycenaean world is therefore also an aspect of this phenomenon The Homeric world served as an example for later periods as did the Attic period for the Greeks in the Hellenistic Roman age The tensions between the Hellenistic and Roman character of the Greek world had a strong influence on the shaping of the Greek identity during late Antiquity and the Middle Ages Those tensions still exist today ellenism s ellenik tita v romiosyni The theme was designed to bring together Hellenists of all periods and disciplines literature language history archaeology ecclesiastical history sociology etc relating to the Greek world The colloquium sessions were held in Dutch but the papers are published in English two in French Byzantine Style, Religion and Civilization Elizabeth Jeffreys, 2006-10-12 A volume of cutting edge essays written in honour of renowned Byzantinist Sir Steven Runciman

Visualizing cityscapes of Classical antiquity: from early modern reconstruction drawings to digital 3D models Chiara Piccoli, 2018-04-30 The study presented here aims to make a practical contribution to a new understanding and use of digital 3D reconstructions in archaeology namely as laboratories to test hypotheses and visualize evaluate and discuss multiple interpretations Cities Called Athens Kevin F. Daly, Lee Ann Riccardi, 2014-12-18 The fourteen essays in this volume share new and evolving knowledge theories and observations about the city of Athens or the region of Attica The contents include essays on topography architecture religion and cult sculpture ceramic studies iconography epigraphy trade and drama This volume is dedicated to John McK Camp II to acknowledge the extraordinary impact he has had on the field of Greek archaeology through his work in the Athenian Agora as a scholar of ancient Greece and as Mellon Professor at the American School of Classical Studies The contributors work represents current research by the latest generation of scholars with ties to Athens All of the contributors were students of Professor Camp in Greece and their essays are dedicated to him in gratitude for his profound influence on their lives and careers Hesiod's Ascra Anthony T. Edwards, 2004-02-26 Publisher Description Boeotia Antiqua: Papers in Boiotian history, institutions and epigraphy in memory of Paul Roesch, 1993 The Historical Greek Village Brice L. Erickson, 2018-10-22 This volume presents the Protogeometric through Hellenistic material ca 970 175 B C from ASCSA excavations conducted in the 1950s at Lerna in the Argolid one of the most important prehistoric sites in Greece The material derives from two main sources burials from a Geometric cemetery near the settlement and Late Archaic Classical and Hellenistic wells from the mound proper Although the material consists primarily of pottery and other ceramic finds it also includes human remains animal bones and shells coins inscriptions and bronze and stone objects Heather Graybehl provides a petrographic analysis Mark L Lawall discusses the transport amphoras and import patterns David S Reese presents the faunal material and David Scahill presents and catalogues two

Doric capitals This study not only gives scholars greater insight into ceramic developments in the Argolid it brings much needed focus to the material culture of a historic settlement not known for strategic trading politics or military prowess Lerna VIII will greatly facilitate comparative studies with other modestly sized communities in ancient Greece
