Papers on Practical Religion Catherine Mumford Booth, 1890      Practical Religion. Being Plain Papers on the Daily Duties, Experience, Dangers, and Privileges of Professing Christians John Charles Ryle, 2024-02-27 Reprint of the original first published in 1883      PAPERS ON PRAC RELIGION Catherine Mumford 1829-1890 Booth, 2016-08-28 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it. This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible. All who take interest in such disputed questions as the nature of the Church, the Ministry, Baptism, Regeneration, the Lord's Supper, the Real Presence, Worship, Confession, and the Sabbath will find them pretty fully discussed in Knots Untied. Old Paths consists of a similar series of papers about those leading doctrines of the Gospel which are generally considered necessary to salvation. The inspiration of Scripture, sin, justification, forgiveness, repentance, conversion, faith, the work of Christ, and the work of the Holy Spirit are the principal subjects handled in Old Paths. The present volume contains a series of papers about practical religion and treats of the daily duties, dangers, experience, and privileges of all who profess and call themselves true Christians. Read in conjunction with another work I have previously put out called Holiness, I think it will throw some light on what every believer ought to be, to do, and expect. One common feature will be found in all the three volumes. I avow it frankly at the outset and will not keep it back for a moment. The standpoint I have tried to occupy from first to last is that of an Evangelical Churchman.      A Help for the Common Days, 1896      Practical Religion Catherine Booth, 2016-08-03 It will be observed that these papers are mostly the reports of addresses delivered at various times in various places where God has called me to witness for Him. I have frequently been asked to publish them in one volume by those who have listened to me with thankfulness to God and profit to themselves. Compelled in great measure to desist for a season from public speaking by bodily infirmity I seize the opportunity to repeat on paper what I have been privileged to express in to me brighter days I pray that I may thus be allowed to continue my testimony against the attempt now so prevalent to serve both God and mammon and to warn and teach everyone to flee from the wrath to come by avoiding every sin and the very appearance of evil and by devoting themselves without reserve to the service of God and the salvation of the world and I trust that He who has given to me these thoughts and words may restore to me the power to speak again and to speak more boldly still THANK GOD brighter days have come than I have ever known before God having set before me an open door to vast multitudes all over the world who three years ago were not within our reach In Aggressive Christianity and Godliness may be found some of my later addresses to these millions But our views have no way changed and I am thankful to find increasing need to supply the demand for the old volume      Practical Religion J.
