Para Comprender America Latina:

, The Oxford Handbook of Vatican II Catherine E. Clifford, Massimo Faggioli, 2023-01-19 The Oxford Handbook of Vatican II is a rich source of information and reflections on many aspects of the Second Vatican Council 1962-1965 one of the most significant religious events of the twentieth century The chapters introduce readers to the historical context and outstanding features of the conciliar event and its principal teachings on Scripture and Tradition the church liturgy religious liberty ecumenism interreligious dialogue church world relations and mission Consideration is given to some neglected aspects of the council including the forgotten papal speeches that lay out its fundamental orientation and ought to guide its interpretation the presence and contributions of women and the non reception of the council among Catholic traditionalists Ecumenical scholars reflect on the significance of Vatican II for the life of other Christian churches and the search for Christian unity others examine Catholic dialogue with other religious traditions Surveying the diverse receptions of the council in the perspective of a world church chapters focusing on Asia Africa Latin America North America Oceania and Europe reflect on the interpretation and influence of the council and its teaching on the life of the church in diverse cultural contexts This Handbook will serve as a valuable guide to one of the most important events and bodies of Catholic teaching since the Protestant Reformation and the Council of Trent in the sixteenth century to the interpretation of the council's teaching and to its continuing role in guiding the life of the church in the twenty-first century Handbook of Public Policy in Latin America Leonardo Secchi, Cesar N. Cruz-Rubio, 2025-06-09 Bringing together an array of recognized scholars and practitioners from the region and beyond this Handbook provides a comprehensive overview of public policy research in Latin America It showcases diverse perspectives on the policymaking process from historical descriptive and prescriptive approaches to critical and feminist analyses The Routledge Handbook of Postcolonial Disability Studies Tsitsi Chataika, Dan Goodley, 2024-03-29 This book centres and explores postcolonial theory which looks at issues of power economics politics religion and culture and how these elements work in relation to colonial supremacy It argues that disability is a constitutive material presence in many postcolonial societies and that progressive disability politics arise from postcolonial concerns By drawing these two subjects together this handbook challenges oppression voicelessness stereotyping undermining neo colonisation and postcolonisation and bridges binary debate between global North and the global South The book is divided into eight sections Setting the Scene Decolonising Disability Studies Postcolonial Theory Inclusive Development Postcolonial Disability Studies and Disability Activism Postcolonial Disability and Childhood Studies Postcolonial Disability Studies and Education Postcolonial Disability Studies Gender Race and Religion Conclusion And comprised of 27 newly written chapters this book leads with postcolonial perspectives closely followed by an engagement with critical disability studies with the explicit aim of foregrounding these contributions pulling them in from the edges of empirical and theoretical work where they often reside in mainstream academic literature The book will be of interest to all scholars and students of disability studies and postcolonial studies as well as those working in sociology literature and development studies A Critical Approach to Climate Change Adaptation Silja Klepp, Libertad

Chavez-Rodriguez, 2018-05-20 This edited volume brings together critical research on climate change adaptation discourses policies and practices from a multi disciplinary perspective Drawing on examples from countries including Colombia Mexico Canada Germany Russia Tanzania Indonesia and the Pacific Islands the chapters describe how adaptation measures are interpreted transformed and implemented at grassroots level and how these measures are changing or interfering with power relations legal pluralism and local ecological knowledge As a whole the book challenges established perspectives of climate change adaptation by taking into account issues of cultural diversity environmental justice and human rights as well as feminist or intersectional approaches This innovative approach allows for analyses of the new configurations of knowledge and power that are evolving in the name of climate change adaptation This volume will be of great interest to students and scholars of climate change environmental law and policy and environmental sociology and to policymakers and practitioners working in the field of climate change adaptation Routledge Handbook of Latin America and the Environment

Beatriz Bustos, Salvatore Engel-Di Mauro, Gustavo García-López, Felipe Milanez, Diana Ojeda, 2023-05-31 The Routledge Handbook of Latin America and the Environment provides an in depth and accessible analysis and theorization of environmental issues in the region It will help readers make connections between Latin American and other regions perspectives experiences and environmental concerns Latin America has seen an acceleration of environmental degradation due to the expansion of resource extraction and urban areas This Handbook addresses Latin America not only as an object of study but also as a region with a long and profound history of critical thinking on these themes Furthermore the Handbook departs from most treatments on the topic by studying the environment as a social issue inextricably linked to politics economy and culture The Handbook will be an invaluable resource for those wanting not only to understand the issues but also to engage with ideas about environmental politics and social ecological transformation The Handbook covers a broad range of topics organized according to three areas physical geography ecology and crucial environmental problems of the region These are key theoretical and methodological issues used to understand Latin America's ecosocial contexts and institutional and grassroots practices related to more just and ecologically sustainable worlds The Handbook will set a research agenda for the near future and provide comprehensive research on most subregions relative to environmental transformations challenges struggles and political processes It stands as a fresh and much needed state of the art introduction for researchers scholars post graduates and academic audiences on Latin American contributions to theorization empirical research and environmental practices Fractured Cities Dirk Kruijt, Kees Koonings, 2013-04-04 As cities sprawl across Latin America absorbing more and more of its people crime and violence have become inescapable From the paramilitary invasion of Medellín in Colombia the booming wealth of crack dealers in Managua Nicaragua and police corruption in Mexico City to the glimmers of hope in Lima this book provides a dynamic analysis of urban insecurity Based on new empirical evidence interviews with local people and historical contextualization the authors attempts to shed light on the fault lines which have appeared in Latin American society Neoliberal economic policy it is argued has intensified the gulf between elites insulated in gated estates monitored by private security firms and the poor who are increasingly mistrustful of state sponsored attempts to impose order on their slums Rather than the current trend towards government withdrawal the situation can only be improved by co operation between communities and police to build new networks of trust In the end violence and insecurity are inseparable from social justice and democracy

Neoeextractivism and Territorial Disputes in Latin America Penelope Anthias,Pabel C. López Flores,2023-09-27 This book reflects on the continuing expansion of extractive forms of capitalist development into new territories in Latin America and the resistance movements that are trying to combat the ecological and social destruction that follows Latin American development models continue to prioritise extractivism the intensive exploitation and exportation of nature in its primary commodity form This constant expansion of the extractive frontier into new territories leads to forms of place based resistance negotiation and struggle in which competing territorial projects and claims are at stake This book uncovers the underlying trends and dynamics of these territorialities in dispute and the socio ecological resistance movements that are emerging as marginalized communities struggle to reclaim their territorial rights and defend and protect their right of access to the global commons A focus on territorialities in dispute renders visible the unsustainable expansion of extractivist territories and opens up new horizons to learn from these processes and to consider post extractivist post development imaginings of another world and alternate futures as well as the challenges to their realisation This book will be of interest to both students and researchers in the fields of international development political ecology critical geography social anthropology as well as to activists engaged in socio ecological eco territorial movements

The Limits of Judicialization Sandra Botero,Daniel M. Brinks,Ezequiel A. Gonzalez-Ocantos,2022-08-25 Latin America was one of the earliest and most enthusiastic adopters of what has come to be known as the judicialization of politics the use of law and legal institutions as tools of social contestation to curb the abuse of power in government resolve policy disputes and enforce and expand civil political and socio economic rights Almost forty years into this experiment The Limits of Judicialization brings together a cross disciplinary group of scholars to assess the role that law and courts play in Latin American politics Featuring studies of hot button topics including abortion state violence judicial corruption and corruption prosecutions this volume argues that the institutional and cultural changes that empowered courts what the editors call the judicialization superstructure often fall short of the promise of greater accountability and rights protection Illustrative and expansive this volume offers a truly interdisciplinary analysis of the limits of judicialized politics

Social Movements and Latin American Philosophy Luis Rubén Díaz Cepeda, 2020-10-07 Social Movements and Latin American Philosophy From Ciudad Juarez to Ayotzinapa provides a historical and theoretical analysis of the Ayotzinapa social movement from the perspective of Latin American philosophy to provide a deeper understanding of the challenges that social movements face in the context of extreme violence Luis Rubén Díaz Cepeda analyzes the complete cycle of mobilization appertaining to Ciudad Juarez the Movement for Peace with Justice and Dignity and the Ayotzinapa social movement Guided by the theories of Enrique Dussel Boaventura de Sousa Santos Ernesto Laclau and Santiago Castro Gomez Díaz Cepeda addresses questions of how a social movement is born how the distinct social movement organizations should articulate to form a movement of movements what if at all the limits and extent of these organizations should be In raising and addressing such questions Díaz Cepeda argues in favor of a soft articulation and the perennial need for social movement organizations Scholars of Latin American studies philosophy history and sociology will find this book particularly useful

Our Cry for Life Maria Pilar Aquino, 2002-11-26 Political Ecology of Agriculture Omar Felipe Giraldo, 2019-02-28 This study discusses an original proposal aimed at critically analyzing the power relations that exist in contemporary agriculture The author endeavors herein to clarify some of the strategies that industrial agribusiness in collusion with the state and multilateral structures sets in motion in order to functionalize the lives of millions of farmers so that their bodies enunciations and sensibilities can be repurposed in accordance with the dynamics of capital accumulation The argument is based on the idea that agro extractivism cannot be thought of exclusively as an economic political and technological system but as a complex interweaving of cultural meanings aesthetics and affections which amalgamated under the abstract name of development act as a support for the whole system s scaffolding The book also explores the other side of the coin describing how and under what conditions social movements are responding to the calamities generated by this model The central thesis is that many ongoing agroecological processes are providing one of the most interesting guidelines at present for visualizing transitions towards post development post extractivism and the construction of multiple worlds beyond the sphere of capital Political ecology of agriculture joins the calls that question the cultural project of modernity and the predatory sense imposed by the globalized food empire and invites recognition of the importance of agroecology in the context of the end of the fossil fuel era and the likely collapse of our industry based civilization

Enflamed by the Sacramental Word Vincent J. Pastro, 2010-04-15 Christian proclamation says Dietrich Bonhoeffer is the living Christ walking among the people Preachers know that Jesus is the living Word and that the Spirit of Jesus animates the preaching event Preaching is an epiclesis an invocation of the Holy Spirit over God s holy people As such it must touch their imagination Pastro proposes that preaching is the living ecclesial presence of Jesus Christ Sacramental Word of the God of the poor The Word speaks from the imagination of the poor the economic poor but also the new poor of the twenty first century entire indigenous cultures women those marginalized because of their sexuality undocumented immigrants in dominant cultures and many others All Christian preachers in every context are called to solidarity with the poor

Latin American Perspectives on Civil-Military Relations today Jose Manuel Ugarte, Bertha Judit Garcia Gallegos, 2025-07-25 This edited volume discusses civil military relations in Latin America Written by regional experts the chapters take a multifaceted approach combining a general overview of the situation in the region a historical analysis of its evolution and its causes and an in depth analysis of national cases Argentina Brazil Chile Colombia Ecuador Uruguay and Venezuela The case studies examine power relations between armed forces and their respective governments comparing the degree to which governments exercise political leadership direction supervision and control over the armed forces and the degree of interference of armed forces in aspects of the State unrelated to traditional military missions of protection of sovereignty independence and territorial integrity against external aggressions Giving a nuanced view of a complex problem that continues to have a strong impact on political stability human rights and the quality of life in the region the book will be of particular interest to researchers and students of international relations Latin American politics defense and security studies
