Parables For The Virtual Movement Affect Sensation Post Contemporary Interventions:

Parables for the Virtual Brian Massumi, 2002-04-09 A major theoretical rethinking of intellectual models of embodiment movement and sensation Parables for the Virtual Brian Massumi, 2021-08-30 Since its publication twenty years ago Brian Massumi's pioneering Parables for the Virtual has become an essential text for interdisciplinary scholars across the humanities Massumi views the body and media such as television film and the internet as cultural formations that operate on multiple registers of sensation Renewing and assessing William James's radical empiricism and Henri Bergson's philosophy of perception through the filter of the postwar French philosophy of Deleuze Guattari and Foucault Massumi links a cultural logic of variation to questions of movement affect and sensation Replacing the traditional opposition of literal and figural with distinctions between stasis and motion and between actual and virtual Massumi tackles related theoretical issues by applying them to cultural mediums as diverse as architecture body art the digital art of Stelarc and Ronald Reagan's acting career The result is an intriguing combination of cultural theory science and philosophy that asserts itself in a crystalline and multifaceted argument This twentieth anniversary edition includes a new preface in which Massumi situates the book in relation to developments since its publication and outlines the evolution of its main concepts It also includes two short texts Keywords for Affect and Missed Conceptions about Affect in which Massumi explicates his approach to affect in ways that emphasize the book's political and philosophical stakes Sounding the Virtual: Gilles Deleuze and the Theory and Philosophy of Music Nick Nesbitt, 2016-04-01 It is the contention of the editors and contributors of this volume that the work carried out by Gilles Deleuze where rigorously applied has the potential to cut through much of the intellectual sedimentation that has settled in the fields of music studies Deleuze is a vigorous critic of the Western intellectual tradition calling for a philosophy of difference and despite its ambitions he is convinced that Western philosophy fails to truly grasp or think difference as such It is argued that longstanding methods of conceptualizing music are vulnerable to Deleuze's critique But as Deleuze himself stresses more important than merely critiquing established paradigms is developing ways to overcome them and by using Deleuze's own concepts this collection aims to explore that possibility Blackpentecostal Breath Ashon T. Crawley, 2016-10-03 In this profoundly innovative book Ashon T. Crawley engages a wide range of critical paradigms from black studies queer theory and sound studies to theology continental philosophy and performance studies to theorize the ways in which alternative or otherwise modes of existence can serve as disruptions against the marginalization of and violence against minoritarian lifeworlds and possibilities for flourishing Examining the whooping shouting noise making and speaking in tongues of Black Pentecostalism a multi racial multi class multi national Christian sect with one strand of its modern genesis in 1906 Los Angeles Blackpentecostal Breath reveals how these aesthetic practices allow for the emergence of alternative modes of social organization As Crawley deftly reveals these choreographic sonic and visual practices and the sensual experiences they create are not only important for imagining what Crawley identifies as otherwise worlds of possibility they also yield a general hermeneutics a methodology for reading culture in an era when such expressions are increasingly under siege

Restorying Environmental Education Chessa Adsit-Morris, 2017-02-09 This book examines a performative environmental educational inquiry through a place based eco art project collaboratively undertaken with a class of grade 4-6 students around the lost streams of Vancouver The resulting work explores the contradictions gathered in relation to the Western educational system and the encounter with Other real and imaginary others including the shifting and growing self and an attempt to find and foster nourishing alliances for transforming environmental education Drawing on the work of new materialist theorists Donna Haraway Rosi Braidotti and Karen Barad Adsit Morris considers the co-constitutive materiality of human corporeality and nonhuman natures and provides useful tools for finding creative theoretical alternatives to the reductionist representationalist and dualistic practices of the Western metaphysics

Vibes Up Sabia McCoy-Torres, 2024-08-13 This book focuses on reggae dancehall culture and West Indian historic and contemporary migration to Costa Rica and Brooklyn It centers an analysis of migration diaspora queerness Blackness affect and Caribbean cultural subjectivity using reggae dancehall culture as an ethnographic lens The author unveils underexplored forms of resistance negotiations of gender and sexuality and creation of informal cultural institutions with transnational ties

Queering Translation, Translating the Queer Brian James Baer, Klaus Kaindl, 2017-09-22 This groundbreaking work is the first full book length publication to critically engage in the emerging field of research on the queer aspects of translation and interpreting studies The volume presents a variety of theoretical and disciplinary perspectives through fifteen contributions from both established and up and coming scholars in the field to demonstrate the interconnectedness between translation and queer aspects of sex gender and identity The book begins with the editors introduction to the state of the field providing an overview of both current and developing lines of research and builds on this foundation to look at this research more closely grouped around three different sections Queer Theorizing of Translation Case Studies of Queer Translations and Translators and Queer Activism and Translation This interdisciplinary approach seeks to not only shed light on this promising field of research but also to promote cross fertilization between these disciplines towards further exploring the intersections between queer studies and translation studies making this volume key reading for students and scholars interested in translation studies queer studies politics and activism and gender and sexuality studies

Mapping the Affective Turn in Education Bessie Dernikos, Nancy Lesko, Stephanie McCall, Alyssa Niccolini, 2020-04-16 Passions are high in education and this edited volume offers bold new ways to conceive of the affective intensities shaping our present historical moment Concerns over school practices deemed ineffective disruptive irrational or even promising are matters modulated by and through feelings such as optimism shame enhanced concentration or empathy The recent turn to affect offers vibrant methodological and theoretical material for an educational present marked by high stakes rhetoric heated debate teacher and student vulnerabilities and extreme educational measures Affect studies are a part of new materialist and post humanist turns and this volume connects these new theoretical directions within education This comprehensive volume on affect crosses educational subfields and responds to the transdisciplinary interest in thinking through pedagogy education and feeling This comprehensive reader addresses affect in education from a wide range of styles topics and perspectives This collection offers an introduction to theory empirical research studies interviews with affect studies scholars and an assessment of the current and future significance of affect studies in education Contributors utilize a range of theoretical and interpretive approaches to thinking with and through schooling phenomena Interviews with affect scholars in the humanities and social sciences address affective dimensions of teaching The editors introduction different foci and interdisciplinary genres of writing help readers feel their ways into what affect studies in education does and might do This field defining collection will be of interest to a range of readers from graduate students to established scholars with varying levels of expertise and familiarity putting affect theories to work in education All the contributions are accessible to those new to the theory methods and debates in this vibrant area of educational studies

Music as Atmosphere Friedlind Riedel, Juha Torvinen, 2019-11-25 This book explores the atmospheric dimensions of music and sound With multidisciplinary insights from music studies sound studies philosophy and media studies chapters investigate music and sound as shared environmental feelings This book probes into cutting edge conceptual issues at the forefront of contemporary discussions on atmosphere atmospherology and affect It also extends the spatial and relational focus towards fundamentally temporal questions of performance process timbre resonance and personhood The capacity of atmospheric relations to imbue a situation with an ambient feeling and to modulate social collectives is highlighted as well as auditory experience as a means of connecting with feelings In addition to original research the volume features a first translation of an important text by German phenomenologist Hermann Schmitz and a debate on affect and atmosphere between the philosophers Jan Slaby and Brian Massumi This novel contribution to the field of music research provides a strong theoretical framework as well as vibrant case studies which will be invaluable reading for scholars and students of music sound aesthetics media anthropology and contemporary philosophy

Cultural Studies and Cultural Industries in Northeast Asia Chris Berry, Nicola Liscutin, Jonathan D. Mackintosh, 2009-05-01 These timely essays highlight regional cross fertilization in music film new media and popular culture in Northeast Asia including analysis of gender and labor issues amid differing regulatory frameworks and public policy concerning cultural production and piracy

Emotions, Consciousness-Raising and Feminisms in the Global South Gabriela Silva Loureiro, 2025-05-23 This book is about the role of emotions in the creation and dissipation of feminist collectives and grapples with difficult questions that have been circulating for a while in activist circles but are far from answered What are the emotions involved in building and sustaining solidarity What can we learn from previous waves of feminist activism and what is worth saving in social media activism today These questions are tackled via the discourse analysis of hashtagged posts of two popular feminist hashtags in Brazil PrimeiroAss dio and

MeuAmigoSecreto and interviews with Brazilian feminist actors But instead of merely analysing the content of the hashtags or over celebrating aesthetics I interpret them as empirical evidence of the emotional life of varied feminisms and therefore useful to reflect upon historical build ups and dissipation of solidarity The unique feature of the book is making a bridge between sociology of emotions feminist theory and decolonial Black and Global South literature and praxis that articulate solidarity based on principles of difference instead of sameness This book will be of interest to students scholars teachers activists and community members interested in the emotions involved in building and sustaining feminist solidarity from a non Western perspective

Fear of God Daniel Eastman An,2025-11-18 In the writings of ancient Christians the near ubiquitous references to the fear of God have traditionally been seen as a generic placeholder for piety Focusing on monastic communities in late antiquity across the eastern Mediterranean this book explores why the language of fear was so prevalent in their writings and how they sought to put it into practice in their daily lives Drawing on a range of evidence including sermons liturgical prayers and archaeological evidence Daniel An explores how the languages monastics spoke the socioeconomic settings they inhabited and the visual spaces in which they prayed came together to shape their emotional horizons By investigating emotions as practices embedded in the languages cultures and sensorial environments of late antiquity this book offers new insights into the spiritual world of Christian monasteries

National Performance Erin Hurley,2011-01-01 In National Performance Erin Hurley examines the complex relationship between performance and national identity How do theatrical performances represent the nation in which they were created How is Quebecois performance used to define Quebec as a nation and to cultivate a sense of Quebec ness for audiences both within and outside the province In exploring Expo 67 the critical response to Michel Tremblay s Les Belles Soeurs Carbone 14 s image theatre Marco Micone s writing practices Celine Dion s popular music and feminist performance of the 1970s and 80s Hurley reveals the ways in which certain performances come to be understood as national while others are relegated to sub national or outsider status Each chapter focuses on a particular historical moment in Quebec s modern history and a genre of performance emblematic of the moment and uses these to elaborate the nature of the national performances Winner of the Northeast Modern Language Association s Book Prize National Performance is sophisticated yet accessible seeking to enlarge the parameters of what counts as Quebecois performance while providing a thorough introduction to changing discourses of nation ness in Quebec

Walking and the Aesthetics of Modernity Klaus Benesch,François Specq,2016-08-31 This book gathers together an array of international scholars critics and artists concerned with the issue of walking as a theme in modern literature philosophy and the arts Covering a wide array of authors and media from eighteenth century fiction writers and travelers to contemporary film digital art and artists books the essays collected here take a broad literary and cultural approach to the art of walking which has received considerable interest due to the burgeoning field of mobility studies Contributors demonstrate how walking far from constituting a simplistic na ve or transparent cultural script
