Parade Of Shapes Concept:

After the Postsecular and the Postmodern Anthony Paul Smith, Daniel Whistler, 2010-02-19 Continental philosophy of religion has been dominated for two decades by postsecular and postmodern thought This volume brings together a vanguard of scholars to ask what comes after the postsecular and the postmodern that is what is Continental philosophy of religion now Against the subjugation of philosophy to theology After the Postsecular and the Postmodern New Essays in Continental Philosophy of Religion argues that philosophy of religion must either liberate itself from theological norms or mutate into a new practice of thinking in order to confront the challenges religion presents for our time The essays do not propose a new orthodoxy but set the stage for new debates by reclaiming a practice of philosophy of religion that recovers and draws on the insights of a distinctly modern tradition of Continental philosophy confronts the challenge of rethinking the secular in the light of the postsecular event and calls for a move from strictly critical to speculative thought in order to experiment with what philosophy can do This collection of essays is indispensable for anyone interested in the relationship between philosophy and theology political questions regarding religion and in what contemporary speculative Continental philosophy has to add to philosophy of religion

CONCEPTS THAT SHAPE POLITICS AND GOVERNMENT IN CAMEROON

Akwalefo Bernadette Djeudo, 2013-10 In this book the reader is introduced to the concepts of politics government political theory and political culture with reference to Cameroon Defined as human activity concerned with controversies over public questions and the resolution of those controversies politics is concerned with the affairs of government and because government action deeply affects us we take a lively interest in what governments do We form associations and organize campaigns to articulate our demands We negotiate with others and try to shape the goals that governments pursue When we disagree with the policies of the government we protest and organize demonstration to persuade our governments to change the existing laws We passionately debate the actions of our representatives In this way we look for the rationale underlying the prevalent chaos and decay and aspire to create a better world To sum up politics arises from the fact that we have different visions of what is just and desirable for us and our society Politics exist because we possess reason and the ability to reflect on government actions and communicate our innermost thoughts and desires with each other Political theory has its roots in these twin aspects of the human being Defined as a network of concepts and generalizations about political life involving ideas assumptions and statements about the nature purpose and key features of government Political theory systematically thinks about the values that inform political life values such as freedom equality justice nationalism secularism development etc It explains the meanings and significance of these and other related concepts by focusing on some major political thinkers theologians kings economists sociologists popes etc of the past and present It also examines the extent to which freedom or equality are actually present in the institutions that we participate in everyday such as schools shops buses or trains or government offices and it looks at whether existing definitions and institutions are adequate or must be modified to become more democratic The objective of political theory is to train citizens to think rationally about political questions and assess correctly the political events of our time In applying political theory some countries are more successful than others due to the variations in political culture A country s degree of success in operating a governmental system that is democratic in character depends to a very large extent upon the nature and content of the political culture of that country For democracy to work the country s political culture must be compatible with and support the very concepts of constitutionalism the rule of law and representative democracy as well as be consistent with and sustain the country s established agreed upon Constitution including the constitutionally prescribed procedures for managing and resolving controversy over public questions making and carrying out authoritative decisions on public policy protecting the rights and liberties of citizens and peacefully transferring governing authority from one group of political leaders to another In all discussions examples are drawn from Cameroon and elsewhere in the world
