The Paradise of Submission Nasir al-Din al-Tusi, 2005-03-02 Nasir al-Din Tusi the renowned Shi'i scholar of the 13th century produced a range of writings in different fields of learning under Ismaili patronage and later under the Mongols. This is a new English translation of his Rawda-yi taslim, the single most important Ismaili text from the Alamut period. Here the Persian and English texts are published together for the first time to produce a work of enormous value to students of Islamic theology and philosophy. The book contains an introduction by Professor Hermann Landolt and philosophical commentary by Professor Christian Jambet who has produced a French translation of this text.

Ismailis in Medieval Muslim Societies Farhad Daftary, 2005-12-20 I B Tauris in association with the Institute of Ismaili Studies. A comprehensive treatment of Ismaili medieval history in its entirety. It will have great appeal to all scholars of medieval Islam. Farhad Daftary is one of the world's leading authorities on Ismaili history and literature. This important book by an internationally acknowledged expert in Ismaili studies introduces Ismaili history and thought in medieval times. Discussing the different phases in Ismaili history, it describes both the early Ismailis as well as the contributions of the later Ismailis to Islamic culture. A number of chapters deal with key Ismaili individuals such as Hasan al-Sabbah. Other chapters contextualise the Ismailis within the early Muslim societies, in addition to investigating the Ismaili Crusader relations and the resulting legends on the Ismaili secret practices. Over the course of the work, it becomes clear that Ismaili historiography and the perception of the Ismailis by others in both Muslim and Christian milieus have had a fascinating evolution. During their long history, the Ismailis have often been accused of various heretical teachings and practices, and at the same time a multitude of myths and misconceptions have circulated about them. Farhad Daftary here separates myth from fact, propaganda from actuality, in a work characterised by his customary mastery of the sources and literature.

Command and Creation: A Shi'i Cosmological Treatise Daryoush Mohammad Poor, 2021-02-25 I B Tauris in association with the Institute of Ismaili Studies. Among the considerable oeuvre of Muhammad al-Shahrastani (1086-1153), the prominent Persian theologian and heresiographer, the Majlis-i maktub (The Transcribed Sermon) is his only known work in Persian. First delivered as a sermon in Khwarazm in Central Asia, this treatise invokes the theme of creation and command, providing an esoteric cosmological narrative where faith, revelation, prophecy, and the spiritual authority of the Household of the Prophet are interwoven. The Majlis-i maktub further discusses themes such as the evolution of religious law (shari'ah) and its culmination in the qiyamat resurrection the relation between free will and predestination the interplay between the exoteric and esoteric aspects of faith and the role and function of the Shi'i Imams in the cosmological narrative This treatise is arguably the most dense expression of al Shahrastani's thought and it demonstrably indicates the Ismaili inclination of this Muslim scholar who has usually been regarded as a Shafi'i Ash'ari Daryoush Mohammad Poor's comparative study of this treatise and the corpus of Nizari Ismaili literature from the Alamut period 1090-1256 reveals the massive impact of al Shahrastani's thought on every aspect of the doctrines of Nizari Ismailis

The Ismailis in the Middle Ages Shafique N. Virani, 2007-04-19 None of that people should be spared not even the babe in its cradle With these chilling words the Mongol warlord Genghis Khan declared his intention to destroy the Ismailis one of the most intellectually and politically significant Muslim communities of medieval Islamdom The massacres that followed convinced observers that this powerful voice of Shi'i Islam had been forever silenced Little was heard of these people for centuries until their recent and dramatic emergence from obscurity Today they exist as a dynamic and thriving community established in over twenty five countries Yet the interval between what appeared to have been their total annihilation and their modern seemingly phoenix like renaissance has remained shrouded in mystery Drawing on an astonishing array of sources gathered from many countries around the globe The Ismailis in the Middle Ages A History of Survival A Search for Salvation is a richly nuanced and compelling study of the murkiest portion of this era In probing the period from the dark days when the Ismaili fortresses in Iran fell before the marauding Mongol hordes to the emergence at Anjudan of the Ismaili Imams who provided a spiritual centre to a scattered community this work explores the motivations passions and presumptions of historical actors With penetrating insight Shafique N. Virani examines the rich esoteric thought that animated the Ismailis and enabled them to persevere A work of remarkable erudition this landmark book is essential reading for scholars of Islamic history and spirituality Shi'ism and Iran Both specialists and informed lay readers will take pleasure not only in its scholarly perception but in its lively anecdotes quotations of delightful poetry and gripping narrative style This is an extraordinary book of historical beauty and spiritual vision

Fifty Years in the East Farhad Daftary, 2014-12-02 I B Tauris in association with the Institute of Ismaili Studies Few fields of Islamic studies have witnessed as much progress in modern times as Ismaili studies and in even fewer instances has the role of a single individual been as pivotal in initiating progress as that of Wladimir Ivanow 1886-1970 whose memoirs are now published here for the first time The breakthrough in modern Ismaili studies occurred mainly as a result of the recovery and study of a large number of texts relating to the field which had not been available to the earlier generations of orientalist The Persian and Arabic Ismaili manuscripts many edited and published by Ivanow reflect a rich diversity of intellectual and literary traditions Ivanow left his native Russia soon after the October Revolution of 1917 and settled in India where he was formally commissioned in 1931 by Sultan Muhammad Shah Aga Khan III the 48th Imam of the Nizari Ismailis to investigate the history and teachings of the Ismailis Henceforth Ivanow began the systematic recovery and study of texts from this tradition of Shi'i Islam discovered in India the Middle East and Central Asia amongst other regions He also played a key role in the establishment of the Ismaili Society the first research institution of its kind with a major collection of Ismaili manuscripts Ivanow made these manuscripts available to other scholars thereby contributing to further progress in the field Ivanow completed his memoirs entitled Fifty Years in the East in 1968 shortly before his death This work originally written in Russian is comprised of an autobiography and vivid accounts from his travels These convey his ethnologist's interest in the archaeology of the way of life and profound curiosity for regional customs and languages The memoirs written in Tehran during Ivanow's final years have now been edited with substantial annotations by Farhad Daftary They reveal for the first time the circumstances under which modern Ismaili studies were initiated and an eyewitness account of several regions during the early decades of the twentieth century before the rapid onset of modernisation

The Shi'i World Farhad Daftary, Aryn Sajoo, Shainool Jiwa, 2015-09-25 I B Tauris in association with the Institute of Ismaili Studies The world's 200 million Shi'i Muslims express their faith in a multiplicity of ways united by reverence for the ahl al bayt the family of the Prophet In embracing a pluralistic ethic fourteen centuries of Shi'i Islam have given rise to diverse traditions and practices across varied geographic and cultural landscapes The Shi'i World is a comprehensive work authored by leading scholars from assorted disciplines to provide a better understanding of how Shi'i communities view themselves and articulate their teachings The topics range from Shi'i Islam's historical and conceptual foundations formative figures and intellectual legal and moral traditions to its devotional practices art and architecture literature music and cinema as well as expressions and experiences of modernity The book thus provides a panoramic perspective of the richly textured narratives that have shaped the social and moral universe of Shi'i Muslims around the globe This fourth volume in the Muslim Heritage Series will appeal to specialists and general readers alike as a timely resource on the prevailing complexities not only of the Muslim world but also of the dynamic Shi'i diasporas of Europe and North America

The Routledge International Handbook of Life and Values Education in Asia John Chi-Kin Lee, Kerry J Kennedy, 2024-06-28 This Handbook provides a comprehensive look at the educational scope of life and values that characterize 21st century Asia as well as those values shared across cultures Some values are deeply resonant with the region's past while others reflect modernity and the new contexts in which Asian societies find themselves Exploring these values of different types and the way they are constructed in Eastern and Western contexts the contributors delve into the diversity of religious moral and social education to promote greater understanding across cultures While a range of values is identified here there is no single set of values that can be applied to all people in all contexts The time has long gone even for single societies when values can be imposed Yet this Handbook emphasizes both the extent and importance of values to individuals and their societies how they respond to these values may provide the key to better and more caring societies and to better lives for all Academics and teachers will find this Handbook resourceful because it raises important theoretical issues related to social values and their formation in distinctive contexts and provides novel insights into the diverse educational landscape in Asia Policymakers and educators will also find this text helpful in learning to think about new ways to improve the quality of people's lives

The Founder of Cairo

Shainool Jiwa, 2013-05-30 The reign of the founder of Cairo the fourth Fatimid Imam caliph al Mu'izz li Din Allah 341 365 953 975 marks a watershed in the transformation of the Fatimid state from a regional North African dynasty to an expansive Mediterranean empire It was also under al Mu'izz that articulations of the supreme authority of the Fatimid Ismaili imamate were written and disseminated across various regions of Fatimid influence The writings of Idris Imad al Din d 872 1468 provide a distinctive presentation of the Fatimid imamate from the perspective of the Ismaili da'wa itself as the chief da'i of the Yemeni Tayyib Ismailis Idris composed his monumental Uyun al akhbar wa funun al athar as a record of the Ismaili imamate from its inception to his own time in doing so Idris drew upon the rich repertoire of Ismaili and non Ismaili sources that had been part of the corpus of the Fatimid literary tradition many of which have subsequently been lost due to the vagaries of time and circumstance As the only surviving medieval Ismaili work documenting the history of the Fatimid dynasty the Uy un al akhbar is among its principal primary sources This book provides the first annotated English translation of the extensive chapter on al Mu izz in the Uy un which remains a vital yet relatively unknown Ismaili source The introduction to this work not only outlines the salient features of al Mu izz s reign but also examines Idris purpose and approach to historical writing In providing an insider s account of the reign of one of the most influential rulers of the medieval Muslim world this work will be of particular interest to students of Ismaili history and thought medieval Mediterranean history and Muslim historiography The Study of Shi'i Islam Gurdofarid Miskinzoda, Farhad

Daftary, 2014-01-08 Shi i Islam with its rich and extensive history has played a crucial role in the evolution of Islam as both a major world religion and civilization The prolific achievements of Shi i theologians philosophers and others are testament to the spiritual and intellectual wealth of this community Yet Shi i studies has unjustly remained a long neglected field despite the important contribution that Shi ism has made to Islamic traditions Only in recent decades partially spurred by global interest in political events of the Middle East have scholars made some significant contributions in this area The Study of Shi i Islam presents papers originally delivered at the first international colloquium dedicated exclusively to Shi i studies held in 2010 at The Institute of Ismaili Studies London Within the book are eight sections namely history the Qur an and its Shi i interpretations hadith law authority theology rites and rituals and intellectual traditions and philosophy Each section begins with an introduction contextualizing the aspects of studying Shi i Islam particular to its theme before going on to address topics such as the state of the field methodology and tools and the primary issues with which contemporary scholars of Shi i studies are dealing The scope and depth here covered makes this book of especial interest to researchers and students alike within the field of Islamic studies The volume benefits from the diverse expertise of nearly 30 world class scholars including Mohammad Ali Amir Moezzi Meir M Bar Asher Farhad Daftary Daniel De Smet Gerald R Hawting Nader El Bizri Etan Kohlberg Wilferd Madelung Andrew Newman Ismail K Poonawala Sabine Schmidtke and Paul E Walker The Oxford

Handbook of Islamic Philosophy Khaled El-Rouayheb, Sabine Schmidtke, 2017 The study of Islamic philosophy has entered a new and exciting phase in the last few years Both the received canon of Islamic philosophers and the narrative of the course of Islamic philosophy are in the process of being radically questioned and revised Most twentieth century Western scholarship on Arabic or Islamic philosophy has focused on the period from the ninth century to the twelfth It is a measure of the transformation that is currently underway in the field that unlike other reference works the Oxford Handbook has striven to give roughly equal weight to every century from the ninth to the twentieth The Handbook is also unique in that its 30 chapters are work centered rather than person or theme centered in particular taking advantage of recent new editions and translations that have renewed interest and debate around the Islamic philosophical canon The Oxford Handbook of Islamic Philosophy gives both the advanced student and active scholar in Islamic philosophy theology and intellectual history a strong sense of what a work in Islamic philosophy looks like and a deep view of the issues concepts and arguments that are at stake Most importantly it provides an up to date portrait of contemporary scholarship on Islamic philosophy

Apocalyptic History of the Early Fatimid Empire Jamel Velji, 2016-08-04 Explores the role of apocalyptic symbolism in the formation and maintenance of a medieval Islamic empire How can religion transform a society This book investigates the ways in which a medieval Islamic movement harnessed Quranic visions of utopia to construct one of the most brilliant and lasting empires in Islamic history 979 1171 The Fatimids apocalyptic vision of their central place in an imminent utopia played a critical role in transfiguring the intellectual and political terrains of North Africa in the early tenth century Yet the realities that they faced on the ground often challenged their status as the custodians of a pristine Islam at the end of time Through a detailed examination of some of the structural features of the Fatimid revolution as well as early works of ta wil or symbolic interpretation Jamel Velji illustrates how the Fatimids conceived of their mission as one that would bring about an imminent utopia He then examines how the Fatimids reinterpreted their place in history when the expected end never materialised The book ends with an extensive discussion of another apocalyptic event linked to a Fatimid lineage the Nizari Ismaili declaration of the end of time on August 8 1164 Key features Introduces selected themes texts and theoretical problems in early Fatimid history and thought to those unfamiliar with Islam or the Shia tradition Explores the nature of apocalyptic rhetoric what constitutes an apocalypse and how apocalyptic prophecies can be reinterpreted Uses techniques from religious studies and rhetorical analysis on data from the Fatimid tradition showing how Islam can contribute to broader discussions in the history of religions Contains extensive translations from two Fatimid texts including the Kitab al Kashf Book of unveiling and Qadi l Nu mans Ta wil al da a im Symbolic interpretation of his Pillars of Islam Cloud: Between Paris and Tehran Joan Copjec, 2025-05-06 A theoretical examination of veiling shame and modesty in the films of the Iranian director Abbas Kiarostami through the lenses of Islamic philosophy and Lacanian psychoanalysis In Cloud Between Paris and Tehran Joan Copjec examines the films of the Iranian director Abbas Kiarostami The key to these films she argues lies in the image of a fragile yet sheltering tree that appears in several of his films This simple image depicts a central concept of Islamic philosophy which is known as the Cloud or the Imaginal World It designates the place out of which all the things of this world manifest themselves and covers or veils that which must remain hidden The concept of the Cloud plays a significant role in defining 1 the unique nature of the Islamic God who is not a creator or father 2 the nature of the image which assumes a priority and a greater power than it is elsewhere accorded and 3 the nature of modesty shame and sexuality Copjec walks her readers through the thicket of Islamic philosophy while demonstrating how its abstract concepts produce what audiences see on screen The most ambitious aspect of the book lies in its attempt to demonstrate the inheritance by psychoanalysis of a new notion of knowledge or gnosis formulated by Muslim thinkers who radically redefined the relation between body and thought Contextualizing Premodern Philosophy Katja Krause, Luis Xavier López-Farjeat, Nicholas

Affirming the Imamate: Early Fatimid Teachings in the Islamic West Wilferd Madelung, Paul E. Walker, 2021-02-25 I B Tauris in association with the Institute of Ismaili Studies The two sermons edited and translated here for the first time are primary material from the years before the establishment of the Fatimid caliphate in 297 909 The authors have been identified as Abu Abd Allah al Shi i and Abu l Abbas Muhammad two brothers who were central to the success of the Ismaili da wa in North Africa Da wa a term used to describe how Muslims teach others about the beliefs and practices of their Islamic faith therefore provide a unique view of the nature and development of Islam throughout history In this case the primary texts shed light on the development of Islam among the Berbers of the Maghreb The first text by Abu Abd Allah al Shi i shows how the arguments for belief in the imamate of the family of the Prophet that is the Shi a belief that all imams should be spiritual descendants of the Prophet Muhammad and his household were developed and presented to bring new adherents to the cause The Book of the Keys to Grace by his elder brother Abu l Abbas too concerns not only the centrality of the imam in the faith but also sheds light on the hierarchy of the da wa in this early period and its organisational sophistication Both texts also reveal the contemporary theology propagated by the Ismaili da wa including for instance the powerful analogy of Moses Aaron and Muhammad Ali the awareness of a variety of religious traditions and the use of detailed Qur anic quotations and a wide range of hadith As such they constitute primary source material of interest not only for Ismaili history but for this early period of Islam in general
