

A painting of a desert landscape at sunset. A dirt path leads from the foreground into the distance, flanked by low-lying green and blue shrubs. Several tall, green saguaro cacti are scattered throughout the scene. In the background, dark, silhouetted mountains rise against a warm, orange and red sky. The overall style is impressionistic with visible brushstrokes.

Pipits Song A Love Story:

A Hudson Anthology William Henry Hudson, 1924 Songs of Love and War Dominic Couzens, 2017-04-06 A naturalist's journey to explore and understand the birds that fill the air with their music The dawn chorus a single voice cutting through the darkness heralds a breaking wave of sound at the very beginning of the day It is an iconic natural phenomenon with many familiar performers yet it is a mysterious event for which there is no complete explanation A mass of starlings gathers at the end of the midwinter day As the sun sets wave upon wave of bodies rolls in and embarks upon another of nature's great attempts to show off The murmuration is another much admired spectacle but again its purpose is obscure and defies our understanding From dawn until dusk birds do things that are surprising and mystifying Songs of Love and War delves into bird behaviour and uncovers its purpose and meaning More than just an inside look at bird behaviour this book also represents a personal journey of discovery What starts as a desire to learn more about the birds encountered on a regular father and son walk through the woods leads to a realisation that a bird's life is very far from the idyllic scene that can often be glimpsed by the casual birdwatcher Actually a bird's life is often unusual and surprising but above all it is brief and much darker than you might think The Collected Works of W.H. Hudson: Fan; the story of a young girl's life William Henry Hudson, 1923 Pipit's Song Alene Roberts, 2001 British Film Music Paul Mazey, 2020-01-03 This book offers a fresh approach to British film music by tracing the influence of Britain's musical heritage on the film scores of this era From the celebration of landscape and community encompassed by pastoral music and folk song and the connection of both with the English Musical Renaissance to the mystical strains of choral sonorities and the stirring effects of the march this study explores the significance of music in British film culture With detailed analyses of the work of such key filmmakers as Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger Laurence Olivier and Carol Reed and composers including Ralph Vaughan Williams William Walton and Brian Easdale this systematic and in depth study explores the connotations these musical styles impart to the films and considers how each marks them with a particularly British inflection Chatterbox, 1902 The Expository Times, 1920 Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004 The Gendered Score: Music in 1940s Melodrama and the Woman's Film Heather Laing, 2017-07-05 Heather Laing examines for the first time the issues of gender and emotion that underpin the classical style of film scoring but that have until now remained unquestioned and untheorized thus providing a benchmark for thinking on more recent and alternative styles of scoring Many theorists have discussed this type of music in film as a signifier of emotion and the feminine a capacity in which it is frequently associated with female characters The full effect of such an association on either female or male characterization however has not been examined This book considers the effects of this association by progress through three stages cultural historical precedents the generic parameters of melodrama and the woman's film and the narrativization of music in film through diegetic performance and the presence of musicians as characters Case studies of specific films provide textual and musical analyses and the genres of melodrama and the woman s film have been chosen as representative not only of the epitome of the Hollywood scoring style but also of the narrative association of women emotion and music Laing leads to the conclusion that music functions as more than merely a signifier of emotion Rather it takes a crucial role in both indicating and determining how emotion is actually understood as part of the construction of gender and its representation in film The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1906
