Connections and Influence in the Russian and American Short Story Jeff Birkenstein, Robert C. Hauhart, 2021-03-10 In Connections and Influence in the Russian and American Short Story editors Robert C Hauhart and Jeff Birkenstein have assembled a collection of eighteen original essays written by literary critics from around the globe Collectively these critics argue that the reciprocal influence between Russian and American writers is integral to the development of the short story in each country as well as vital to the global status the contemporary short story has attained This collection provides original analyses of both well known Russian and American stories as well as some that might be more unfamiliar Each essay is purposely crafted to display an appreciation of the techniques subject matter themes and approaches that both Russian and American short story writers explored across borders and time Stories by Gogol Dostoevsky Turgenev Chekhov and Krzhizhanovsky as well as short stories by Washington Irving Faulkner Langston Hughes Richard Wright Ursula Le Guin Raymond Carver and Joyce Carol Oates populate this essential multivalent collection Perhaps more important now than at any time since the end of the Cold War these essays will remind readers how much Russian and American culture share as well as the extent to which their respective literatures are deeply intertwined Understanding Gary Shteyngart Geoff Hamilton, 2017-04-15 A survey of the Russian born American author s work and themes questioning identity politics and multiculturalism Understanding Gary Shteyngart the first comprehensive examination of Shteyngart s novels and memoir introduces readers to one of the most critically acclaimed and commercially successful contemporary American authors Born in Leningrad in 1972 Shteyngart immigrated to the United States in 1979 attended Oberlin College and the City University of New York and currently teaches in the Writing Program at Columbia University His novels include Super Sad True Love Story winner of the Bollinger Everyman Wodehouse Prize Absurdistan chosen as one of the ten best books of the year by the New York Times Book Review and Time magazine and The Russian Debutante s Handbook winner of the Stephen Crane

Award for First Fiction and the National Jewish Book Award for Fiction Geoff Hamilton studies three broad overlapping elements of Shteyngart's work his construction of Russian Jewish identity in the United States his appraisal of communism's imaginative legacy for the wider East European diaspora and former Soviet republics and his representation of the deadening effects of late capitalism Focusing on Shteyngart's themes of the fracturing and decay of ethnic identities the limits and pitfalls of multiculturalism and the decline of privacy and civility against the creeping power of technological mediation Hamilton also tracks the author's playful manipulation of literary traditions and his incisive revision of seminal mythologies of Russian Jewish and American selfhood Although Shteyngart has sometimes been pigeon holed as an immigrant author working a rather marginal ethnic shtick Hamilton demonstrates that Shteyngart's work deserves attention for its remarkable centrality that is its relevance to core questions of identity formation and beliefs common to globalized societies
