The Independent ,1901 Maxims and Spiritual Counsels Claude de la Colombière (S.J.),1895 Jung & Film II Christopher Hauke,Luke Hockley,2011 This book tackles the broader issues of film production and consumption the audience and the place of film culture in our lives Breaking the Fall Robert Detweiler,1995-01-01 The power of his writing reminds us of the relative neglect of modern and post modern literature by most studies which are concerned with the relation ship between literature and religion Love letter to Nigeria Gale Hicks,2024-08-29 Love Letter to Nigeria is an autobiographical account of a young Caucasian woman marrying a community leader from a rural village in Nigeria Despite the racial temperature in the world at the time and even though it meant leaving everything she knew behind the author travels home with her husband to Igboland the geographic home of the Igbo tribe located in Southeastern Nigeria Love Letter to Nigeria is a first person account of the trials and tribulations faced by the author From learning a new culture to losing her husband and helping out a community both foreign and beloved this book is a story of courage and love The Book of Touch Constance Classen,2020-09-03 This book puts a finger on the nerve of culture by delving into the social life of touch our most elusive yet most vital sense From the tortures of the Inquisition to the corporeal comforts of modernity and from the tactile therapies of Asian medicine to the virtual tactility of cyberspace The Book of Touch offers excursions into a sensory territory both foreign and familiar How are masculine and feminine identities shaped by touch What are the tactile experiences of the blind or the autistic How is touch developed differently across cultures What are the boundaries of pain and pleasure Is there a politics of touch Bringing together classic writings and new work this is an essential guide for anyone interested in the body the senses and the experiential world

Jung and Film II: The Return Christopher Hauke, Luke Hockley, 2012-05-23 Since Jung and Film was first published in 2001 Jungian writing on the moving image in film and television has accelerated Jung and Film II The Return provides new contributions from authors across the globe willing to tackle the broader issues of film production and consumption the audience and the place of film culture in our lives As well as chapters dealing with particular film makers such as Maya Derren and films such as Birth The Piano The Wrestler and Breaking the Wave there is also a unique chapter co written by documentary film maker Tom Hurvitz and New York Jungian analyst Margaret Klenck Other areas of discussion include the way in which psychological issues come under scrutiny in many movies the various themes that concern Jungian writers on film how Jungian ideas on psychological personality types can be applied in fresh ways to analyse a variety of characters The book also includes a glossary to help readers with Jungian words and concepts Jung and Film II is not only a welcome companion to the first volume it is an important stand alone work essential for all academics and students of analytical psychology as well as film media and cultural studies

Cinema as Therapy John Izod, Joanna Dovalis, 2014-12-17 Loss is an inescapable reality of life and individuals need to develop a capacity to grieve in order to mature and live life to the full Yet most western movie audiences live in cultures that do not value this necessary process and filmgoers finding themselves deeply moved by a particular film are often left wondering why In Cinema as Therapy John Izod and Joanna Dovalis set out to fill a gap in work on the conjunction of grief therapy and cinema Looking at films including Million Dollar Baby The Son's Room Birth and The Tree of Life Cinema as Therapy offers an understanding of how deeply emotional life can be stirred at the movies Izod and Dovalis note that cinema is a medium which engages people in a virtual dialogue with their own and their culture's unconscious more deeply than is commonly thought By analysing the meaning of each film and the root cause of the particular losses featured the authors demonstrate how our experiences in the movie theatre create an opportunity to prepare psychologically for the inevitable losses we must all eventually face In recognising that the movie theatre shares symbolic features with both the church and the therapy room the reader sees how it becomes a sacred space where people can encounter the archetypal and ease personal suffering through laughter or tears without inhibition or fear to reach a deeper understanding of themselves Cinema as Therapy will be essential reading for therapists students and academics working in film studies and looking to engage with psychological studies in depth as well as filmgoers who want to explore their relationship with the screen The book includes a glossary of Jungian and Freudian terms which enhances the clarity of the text and the understanding of the reader

Dreams of Love and Fateful Encounters Ethel S. Person, 2007-04-02 This groundbreaking study has been widely hailed for its focus on a

human emotion generally considered impervious to rational analysis romantic passionate love Ethel Person views romantic love as a powerful agent of change arguing that it is as central to human culture as it is to human existence This new edition of Dreams of Love and Fateful Encounters emphasizes the relevance of passion not only to lovers but also to mental health professionals whose patients often enter treatment because of love related issues from the inability to love or make a commitment to the perils of extramarital love to love sickness or loss of love She forthrightly addresses not only the power of love to unlock the soul but also its inherent paradoxes and conflicts Employing a philosophical perspective in order to understand the existential dilemmas posed by love and a cultural perspective in order to understand its cultural variability Dr Person breaks with contemporary intellectual and philosophical dismissive assumptions about romantic love She acknowledges love's vital importance and power proposing that passion serves an important function not only for the individual but also for the culture while charging psychoanalysis with a reductionist emphasis on sexuality and psychopathology that has narrowed the focus of inquiry into love Among the issues she discusses are romantic love's sources in our early lives its relationship to imagination and creativity and its capacity to enable the lover to transcend the self how romantic love often demands a reordering of values and promotes personal growth by exposing the self to new risks and possibilities the transformational potential of transference love in the therapy process flaws in the common misperception that women are more influenced by romantic love than men considerations of homosexual love love across generations and love triangles focusing on the individual growth that can result from such relationships Citing accounts of love drawn from literature film and real life Person focuses on the lover's internal soliloquy and external dialogue with the beloved that can develop over an individual's life An uplifting resource for people experiencing failing or unorthodox romances Dreams of Love and Fateful Encounters boldly takes on issues pertinent to lovers to professionals who encounter patients for whom key conflicts revolve around romantic love and to anyone who has struggled to understand the importance of romantic love in his or her own life

A Lover's Almanac Maureen Howard, 1999-01-01 One of the preeminent novelists of our time Maureen Howard dazzles us with a love story of radiant intelligence and delicious wit The exhilarating flights and emotional depths of Howard's storytelling balance the fates of two young lovers in New York Artie a bastard perhaps begot in the mud of Woodstock now a boyish computer wizard and Louise a hot new painter out of the Midwest seriously committed to her art Their romance seemingly shattered on the eve of the millennium is played out against the tale of two old lovers lost to each other for a half century As these two couples search through the cultural flotsam and jetsam for love and happiness Howard spins a superb novel of ideas and transforms as only she can the dear Old Farmer's Almanac into a bright book of life
